8. Fiscal Implications: As stand-alone legislation, the Department of Elections considers implementation of this bill as “routine,” and does not require additional funding. However, the agency will review all electoral legislation likely to be enacted prior to the passage by each house. If the aggregate number of “routine” bills likely to pass either house is unusually large, it is possible the agency will require additional resources. If so, the Department of Elections will identify the costs at that time.

Any potential fiscal impact to local school divisions or public institutions of higher education to meet the requirements of this bill is indeterminate.

9. Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected: Virginia Department of Elections, public institutions of higher education, and local public high schools.

10. Technical Amendment Necessary: No
