

2019 SPECIAL SESSION I

ENROLLED

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 4023

Commending George Mason University's Arlington Campus.

Agreed to by the Senate, July 9, 2019

WHEREAS, George Mason University's Arlington Campus will celebrate its 40th anniversary in 2019; and

WHEREAS, the George Mason University Foundation acquired eleven acres of land and a single building on November 28, 1978 that became the School of Law and was known as Arlington Original; and

WHEREAS, George Mason University School of Law officially opened on July 1, 1979; and

WHEREAS, currently, the Arlington Campus hosts the Schar School of Policy and Government, Antonin Scalia Law School, the School for Conflict Analysis and Resolution, the School of Business, the College of Visual and Performing Arts' Arts Management Program, continuing education professional education programs and more than twenty-five Centers of Research including: The Mercatus Center, the Law and Economics Center, the Center for World Religions, Diplomacy and Conflict Resolution, the Center for Regional Analysis, and the Interdisciplinary Center for Economic Science; and

WHEREAS, the Arlington Campus currently serves roughly 2,600 students; and

WHEREAS, George Mason University has constructed three additional buildings to the Arlington Campus totaling over 500,000 square feet of academic, research and office space; and

WHEREAS, a soon-to-be expanded and renovated Arlington Campus will be the new home of George Mason University's Institute for Digital Innovation and School of Computing to meet the technology and data sciences need for the ever-expanding computer science industry in Northern Virginia now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, that George Mason University's Arlington Campus be commended on its 40th anniversary so that the Board of Visitors, advisory committees, interested citizens, and local governments may plan for appropriate celebrations in 2019 and 2020; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, that the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the President of George Mason University as an expression of the General Assembly's gratitude for their extraordinary efforts to promote educational access and excellence in Arlington.

ENROLLED

SR4023ER