Referred to Committee on General Laws

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:1. That § 2.2-212 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:*§ 4.1-212. Permits required in certain instances.

A. The Board may grant the following permits which shall authorize:

1. Wine and beer salesmen representing any out-of-state wholesaler engaged in the sale of wine and beer, or either, to sell or solicit the sale of wine or beer, or both in the Commonwealth.

2. Any person having any interest in the manufacture, distribution or sale of spirits or other alcoholic beverages to solicit any mixed beverage licensee, his agent, employee or any person connected with the licensee in any capacity in his licensed business to sell or offer for sale such spirits or alcoholic beverages.

3. Any person to keep upon his premises alcoholic beverages which he is not authorized by any license to sell and which shall be used for culinary purposes only.

4. Any person to transport lawfully purchased alcoholic beverages within, into or through the Commonwealth, except that no permit shall be required for any person shipping or transporting into the Commonwealth a reasonable quantity of alcoholic beverages when such person is relocating his place of residence to the Commonwealth in accordance with § 4.1-310.

5. Any person to keep, store or possess any still or distilling apparatus.

6. The release of alcoholic beverages not under United States custom bonds or internal revenue bonds stored in Board approved warehouses for delivery to the Board or to persons entitled to receive them within or outside of the Commonwealth.

7. The release of alcoholic beverages from United States customs bonded warehouses for delivery to the Board or to licensees and other persons enumerated in subsection B of § 4.1-131.

8. The release of alcoholic beverages from United States internal revenue bonded warehouses for delivery in accordance with subsection C of § 4.1-132.

9. A secured party or any trustee, curator, committee, conservator, receiver or other fiduciary appointed or qualified in any court proceeding, to continue to operate under the licenses previously issued to any deceased or other person licensed to sell alcoholic beverages for such period as the Board deems appropriate.

10. The one-time sale of lawfully acquired alcoholic beverages belonging to any person, or which may be a part of such person's estate, including a judicial sale, estate sale, sale to enforce a judgment lien or liquidation sale to satisfy indebtedness secured by a security interest in alcoholic beverages, by a sheriff, personal representative, receiver or other officer acting under authority of a court having jurisdiction in the Commonwealth, or by any secured party as defined in subdivision (a)(73) of § 8.9A-102 of the Virginia Uniform Commercial Code. Such sales shall be made only to persons who are licensed or hold a permit to sell alcoholic beverages in the Commonwealth or to persons outside the Commonwealth for resale outside the Commonwealth and upon such conditions or restrictions as the Board may prescribe.

11. Any person who purchases at a foreclosure, secured creditor's or judicial auction sale the premises or property of a person licensed by the Board and who has become lawfully entitled to the possession of the licensed premises to continue to operate the establishment to the same extent as a person holding such licenses for a period not to exceed 60 days or for such longer period as determined by the Board. Such permit shall be temporary and shall confer the privileges of any licenses held by the previous owner to the extent determined by the Board. Such temporary permit may be issued in advance, conditioned on the above requirements.

12. The sale of wine and beer in kegs by any person licensed to sell wine or beer, or both, at retail for off-premises consumption.

13. The storage of lawfully acquired alcoholic beverages not under customs bond or internal revenue bond in warehouses located in the Commonwealth.

14. The storage of wine by a licensed winery or farm winery under internal revenue bond in 59 warehouses located in the Commonwealth.

60 15. Any person to conduct tastings in accordance with § 4.1-201.1, provided that such person has 61 filed an application for a permit in which the applicant represents (i) that he or she is under contract to 62 conduct such tastings on behalf of the alcoholic beverage manufacturer or wholesaler named in the 63 application; (ii) that such contract grants to the applicant the authority to act as the authorized
64 representative of such manufacturer or wholesaler; and (iii) that such contract contains an 65 acknowledgment that the manufacturer or wholesaler named in the application may be held liable for 66 any violation of § 4.1-201.1 by its authorized representative. A permit issued pursuant to this subdivision
67 shall be valid for at least one year, unless sooner suspended or revoked by the Board in accordance with 68 § 4.1-229.

69 16. Any person who, through contract, lease, concession, license, management or similar agreement
70 (hereinafter referred to as the contract), becomes lawfully entitled to the use and control of the premises
71 of a person licensed by the Board to continue to operate the establishment to the same extent as a
72 person holding such licenses, provided such person has made application to the Board for a license at 73 the same premises. The permit shall (i) confer the privileges of any licenses held by the previous owner
74 to the extent determined by the Board and (ii) be valid for a period of 120 days or for such longer
75 period as may be necessary as determined by the Board pending the completion of the processing of the 76 permittee's license application. No permit shall be issued without the written consent of the previous 77 licensee. No permit shall be issued under the provisions of this subdivision if the previous licensee owes
78 any state or local taxes, or has any pending charges for violation of this title or any Board regulation,
79 unless the permittee agrees to assume the liability of the previous licensee for the taxes or any penalty
80 for the pending charges. An application for a permit may be filed prior to the effective date of the 81 contract, in which case the permit when issued shall become effective on the effective date of the 82 contract. Upon the effective date of the permit, (a) the permittee shall be responsible for compliance
83 with the provisions of this title and any Board regulation and (b) the previous licensee shall not be held
84 liable for any violation of this title or any Board regulation committed by, or any errors or omissions of,
85 the permittee.

86 17. Any sight-seeing carrier or contract passenger carrier as defined in § 46.2-2000 transporting 87 individuals for compensation to a winery, brewery, or restaurant, licensed under this chapter and
88 authorized to conduct tastings, to collect the licensee's tasting fees from tour participants for the sole
89 purpose of remitting such fees to the licensee.

90 18. Any tour company guiding individuals for compensation on a ~~culinary~~ walking tour to one or
91 more establishments licensed to sell alcoholic beverages at retail for on-premises consumption to collect
92 as one fee from tour participants (i) the licensee's fee for the ~~food and~~ alcoholic beverages served as 93 part of the tour ~~and~~, (ii) a fee for any food offered as part of the tour, and (iii) a fee for the ~~culinary~~
94 walking tour service. The tour company shall remit to the licensee any fee collected for the ~~food and~~
95 alcoholic beverages ~~and any food served as part of the tour. Food cooked or prepared on the premises~~
96 ~~of such licensed establishments shall be served at each such establishment on the tour. The tour~~
97 ~~company shall ensure that (a) each tour includes no more than 20 guests per tour guide and (b) a tour~~
98 ~~guide is present with the guests throughout the duration of the tour.~~

99 B. Nothing in subdivision 9, 10, or 11 shall authorize any brewery, winery or affiliate or a subsidiary
100 thereof which has supplied financing to a wholesale licensee to manage and operate the wholesale
101 licensee in the event of a default, except to the extent authorized by subdivision B 3 a of § 4.1-216.
