Offered January 8, 2020

Prefiled December 27, 2019

A BILL to amend and reenact § 18.2-308.2:2 of the Code of Virginia, relating to firearm purchases; proof of demonstration of competence with a firearm.

Patron—Orrock

Referred to Committee on Public Safety

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:1. That § 18.2-308.2:2 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:§ 18.2-308.2:2. Criminal history record information check required for the transfer of certain firearms.

A. Any person purchasing from a dealer a firearm as herein defined shall demonstrate competence with a firearm as provided by subsection B of § 18.2-308.02 and shall consent in writing, on a form to be provided by the Department of State Police, to have the dealer obtain criminal history record information. Such form shall include only the written consent; the name, birth date, gender, race, citizenship, and social security number and/or any other identification number; the number of firearms by category intended to be sold, rented, traded, or transferred; and answers by the applicant to the following questions: (i) has the applicant been convicted of a felony offense or found guilty or adjudicated delinquent as a juvenile 14 years of age or older at the time of the offense of a delinquent act that would be a felony if committed by an adult; (ii) is the applicant subject to a court order restraining the applicant from harassing, stalking, or threatening the applicant's child or intimate partner, or a child of such partner, or is the applicant subject to a protective order; and (iii) has the applicant ever been acquitted by reason of insanity and prohibited from purchasing, possessing or transporting a firearm pursuant to § 18.2-308.1:1 or any substantially similar law of any other jurisdiction, been adjudicated legally incompetent, mentally incapacitated or adjudicated an incapacitated person and prohibited from purchasing a firearm pursuant to § 18.2-308.1:2 or any substantially similar law of any other jurisdiction, or been involuntarily admitted to an inpatient facility or involuntarily ordered to outpatient mental health treatment and prohibited from purchasing a firearm pursuant to § 18.2-308.1:3 or any substantially similar law of any other jurisdiction.

B. 1. No dealer shall sell, rent, trade or transfer from his inventory any such firearm to any other person who is a resident of Virginia until he has (i) obtained written consent and the other information on the consent form specified in subsection A, and provided the Department of State Police with the name, birth date, gender, race, citizenship, and social security and/or any other identification number and the number of firearms by category intended to be sold, rented, traded or transferred ~~and~~; (ii) requested criminal history record information by a telephone call to or other communication authorized by the State Police and is authorized by subdivision 2 to complete the sale or other such transfer; and (iii) been furnished with proof that the prospective purchaser has demonstrated competence with a firearm as provided by subsection B of § 18.2-308.02. To establish personal identification and residence in Virginia for purposes of this section, a dealer must require any prospective purchaser to present one photo-identification form issued by a governmental agency of the Commonwealth or by the United States Department of Defense that demonstrates that the prospective purchaser resides in Virginia. For the purposes of this section and establishment of residency for firearm purchase, residency of a member of the armed forces shall include both the state in which the member's permanent duty post is located and any nearby state in which the member resides and from which he commutes to the permanent duty post. A member of the armed forces whose photo identification issued by the Department of Defense does not have a Virginia address may establish his Virginia residency with such photo identification and either permanent orders assigning the purchaser to a duty post, including the Pentagon, in Virginia or the purchaser's Leave and Earnings Statement. When the photo identification presented to a dealer by the prospective purchaser is a driver's license or other photo identification issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles, and such identification form contains a date of issue, the dealer shall not, except for a renewed driver's license or other photo identification issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles, sell or otherwise transfer a firearm to the prospective purchaser until 30 days after the date of issue of an original or duplicate driver's license unless the prospective purchaser also presents a copy of his Virginia Department of Motor Vehicles driver's record showing that the original date of issue of the driver's license was more than 30 days prior to the attempted purchase.

In addition, no dealer shall sell, rent, trade, or transfer from his inventory any assault firearm to any

HB192

59 person who is not a citizen of the United States or who is not a person lawfully admitted for permanent 60 residence.

61 Upon receipt of the request for a criminal history record information check, the State Police shall (a)
62 review its criminal history record information to determine if the buyer or transferee is prohibited from 63 possessing or transporting a firearm by state or federal law, (b) inform the dealer if its record indicates 64 that the buyer or transferee is so prohibited, and (c) provide the dealer with a unique reference number 65 for that inquiry.

66 2. The State Police shall provide its response to the requesting dealer during the dealer's request, or 67 by return call without delay. If the criminal history record information check indicates the prospective
68 purchaser or transferee has a disqualifying criminal record or has been acquitted by reason of insanity
69 and committed to the custody of the Commissioner of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services,
70 the State Police shall have until the end of the dealer's next business day to advise the dealer if its 71 records indicate the buyer or transferee is prohibited from possessing or transporting a firearm by state
72 or federal law. If not so advised by the end of the dealer's next business day, a dealer who has fulfilled
73 the requirements of subdivision 1 may immediately complete the sale or transfer and shall not be 74 deemed in violation of this section with respect to such sale or transfer. In case of electronic failure or 75 other circumstances beyond the control of the State Police, the dealer shall be advised immediately of 76 the reason for such delay and be given an estimate of the length of such delay. After such notification,
77 the State Police shall, as soon as possible but in no event later than the end of the dealer's next business
78 day, inform the requesting dealer if its records indicate the buyer or transferee is prohibited from 79 possessing or transporting a firearm by state or federal law. A dealer who fulfills the requirements of 80 subdivision 1 and is told by the State Police that a response will not be available by the end of the 81 dealer's next business day may immediately complete the sale or transfer and shall not be deemed in 82 violation of this section with respect to such sale or transfer.

83 3. Except as required by subsection D of § 9.1-132, the State Police shall not maintain records longer
84 than 30 days, except for multiple handgun transactions for which records shall be maintained for 12
85 months, from any dealer's request for a criminal history record information check pertaining to a buyer
86 or transferee who is not found to be prohibited from possessing and transporting a firearm under state or 87 federal law. However, the log on requests made may be maintained for a period of 12 months, and such 88 log shall consist of the name of the purchaser, the dealer identification number, the unique approval
89 number and the transaction date.

90 4. On the last day of the week following the sale or transfer of any firearm, the dealer shall mail or 91 deliver the written consent form required by subsection A to the Department of State Police. The State
92 Police shall immediately initiate a search of all available criminal history record information to 93 determine if the purchaser is prohibited from possessing or transporting a firearm under state or federal 94 law. If the search discloses information indicating that the buyer or transferee is so prohibited from 95 possessing or transporting a firearm, the State Police shall inform the chief law-enforcement officer in 96 the jurisdiction where the sale or transfer occurred and the dealer without delay.

97 5. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, rifles and shotguns may be purchased by 98 persons who are citizens of the United States or persons lawfully admitted for permanent residence but 99 residents of other states under the terms of subsections A and B upon furnishing the dealer with one
100 photo-identification form issued by a governmental agency of the person's state of residence and one
101 other form of identification determined to be acceptable by the Department of Criminal Justice Services.

102 6. For the purposes of this subsection, the phrase "dealer's next business day" shall not include 103 December 25.

104 C. No dealer shall sell, rent, trade or transfer from his inventory any firearm, except when the 105 transaction involves a rifle or a shotgun and can be accomplished pursuant to the provisions of 106 subdivision B 5 to any person who is not a resident of Virginia unless he has first obtained from the 107 Department of State Police a report indicating that a search of all available criminal history record
108 information has not disclosed that the person is prohibited from possessing or transporting a firearm
109 under state or federal law and been furnished proof that the prospective purchaser has demonstrated
110 competence with a firearm as provided by subsection B of § 18.2-308.06. The dealer shall obtain the 111 required report by mailing or delivering the written consent form required under subsection A to the 112 State Police within 24 hours of its execution. If the dealer has complied with the provisions of this
113 subsection and has not received the required report from the State Police within 10 days from the date
114 the written consent form was mailed to the Department of State Police, he shall not be deemed in 115 violation of this section for thereafter completing the sale or transfer.

116 D. Nothing herein shall prevent a resident of the Commonwealth, at his option, from buying, renting
117 or receiving a firearm from a dealer in Virginia by obtaining a criminal history record information check
118 through the dealer as provided in subsection C.

119 E. If any buyer or transferee is denied the right to purchase a firearm under this section, he may 120 exercise his right of access to and review and correction of criminal history record information under

§ 9.1-132 or institute a civil action as provided in § 9.1-135, provided any such action is initiated within 30 days of such denial.

F. Any dealer who willfully and intentionally requests, obtains, or seeks to obtain criminal history record information under false pretenses, or who willfully and intentionally disseminates or seeks to disseminate criminal history record information except as authorized in this section shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor.

G. For purposes of this section:

"Actual buyer" means a person who executes the consent form required in subsection B or C, or other such firearm transaction records as may be required by federal law.

"Antique firearm" means:

1. Any firearm (including any firearm with a matchlock, flintlock, percussion cap, or similar type of ignition system) manufactured in or before 1898;

2. Any replica of any firearm described in subdivision 1 of this definition if such replica (i) is not designed or redesigned for using rimfire or conventional centerfire fixed ammunition or (ii) uses rimfire or conventional centerfire fixed ammunition that is no longer manufactured in the United States and that is not readily available in the ordinary channels of commercial trade;

3. Any muzzle-loading rifle, muzzle-loading shotgun, or muzzle-loading pistol that is designed to use black powder, or a black powder substitute, and that cannot use fixed ammunition. For purposes of this subdivision, the term "antique firearm" shall not include any weapon that incorporates a firearm frame or receiver, any firearm that is converted into a muzzle-loading weapon, or any muzzle-loading weapon that can be readily converted to fire fixed ammunition by replacing the barrel, bolt, breech-block, or any combination thereof; or

4. Any curio or relic as defined in this subsection.

"Assault firearm" means any semi-automatic center-fire rifle or pistol which expels single or multiple projectiles by action of an explosion of a combustible material and is equipped at the time of the offense with a magazine which will hold more than 20 rounds of ammunition or designed by the manufacturer to accommodate a silencer or equipped with a folding stock.

"Curios or relics" means firearms that are of special interest to collectors by reason of some quality other than is associated with firearms intended for sporting use or as offensive or defensive weapons. To be recognized as curios or relics, firearms must fall within one of the following categories:

1. Firearms that were manufactured at least 50 years prior to the current date, which use rimfire or conventional centerfire fixed ammunition that is no longer manufactured in the United States and that is not readily available in the ordinary channels of commercial trade, but not including replicas thereof;

2. Firearms that are certified by the curator of a municipal, state, or federal museum that exhibits firearms to be curios or relics of museum interest; and

3. Any other firearms that derive a substantial part of their monetary value from the fact that they are novel, rare, bizarre, or because of their association with some historical figure, period, or event. Proof of qualification of a particular firearm under this category may be established by evidence of present value and evidence that like firearms are not available except as collectors' items, or that the value of like firearms available in ordinary commercial channels is substantially less.

"Dealer" means any person licensed as a dealer pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 921 et seq.

"Firearm" means any handgun, shotgun, or rifle that will or is designed to or may readily be converted to expel single or multiple projectiles by action of an explosion of a combustible material.

"Handgun" means any pistol or revolver or other firearm originally designed, made and intended to fire single or multiple projectiles by means of an explosion of a combustible material from one or more barrels when held in one hand.

"Lawfully admitted for permanent residence" means the status of having been lawfully accorded the privilege of residing permanently in the United States as an immigrant in accordance with the immigration laws, such status not having changed.

H. The Department of Criminal Justice Services shall promulgate regulations to ensure the identity, confidentiality and security of all records and data provided by the Department of State Police pursuant to this section.

I. The provisions of this section shall not apply to (i) transactions between persons who are licensed as firearms importers or collectors, manufacturers or dealers pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 921 et seq.; (ii) purchases by or sales to any law-enforcement officer or agent of the United States, the Commonwealth or any local government, or any campus police officer appointed under Article 3 (§ 23.1-809 et seq.) of Chapter 8 of Title 23.1; or (iii) antique firearms, curios or relics.

J. The provisions of this section shall not apply to restrict purchase, trade or transfer of firearms by a resident of Virginia when the resident of Virginia makes such purchase, trade or transfer in another state, in which case the laws and regulations of that state and the United States governing the purchase, trade or transfer of firearms shall apply. A National Instant Criminal Background Check System (NICS)

182 check shall be performed prior to such purchase, trade or transfer of firearms.

183 J1. All licensed firearms dealers shall collect a fee of $2 for every transaction for which a criminal 184 history record information check is required pursuant to this section, except that a fee of $5 shall be 185 collected for every transaction involving an out-of-state resident. Such fee shall be transmitted to the 186 Department of State Police by the last day of the month following the sale for deposit in a special fund
187 for use by the State Police to offset the cost of conducting criminal history record information checks
188 under the provisions of this section.

189 K. Any person willfully and intentionally making a materially false statement on the consent form
190 required in subsection B or C or on such firearm transaction records as may be required by federal law,
191 shall be guilty of a Class 5 felony.

192 L. Except as provided in § 18.2-308.2:1, any dealer who willfully and intentionally sells, rents, trades
193 or transfers a firearm in violation of this section shall be guilty of a Class 6 felony.

194 L1. Any person who attempts to solicit, persuade, encourage, or entice any dealer to transfer or 195 otherwise convey a firearm other than to the actual buyer, as well as any other person who willfully and 196 intentionally aids or abets such person, shall be guilty of a Class 6 felony. This subsection shall not 197 apply to a federal law-enforcement officer or a law-enforcement officer as defined in § 9.1-101, in the 198 performance of his official duties, or other person under his direct supervision.

199 M. Any person who purchases a firearm with the intent to (i) resell or otherwise provide such 200 firearm to any person who he knows or has reason to believe is ineligible to purchase or otherwise 201 receive from a dealer a firearm for whatever reason or (ii) transport such firearm out of the 202 Commonwealth to be resold or otherwise provided to another person who the transferor knows is 203 ineligible to purchase or otherwise receive a firearm, shall be guilty of a Class 4 felony and sentenced to 204 a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of one year. However, if the violation of this subsection
205 involves such a transfer of more than one firearm, the person shall be sentenced to a mandatory
206 minimum term of imprisonment of five years. The prohibitions of this subsection shall not apply to the 207 purchase of a firearm by a person for the lawful use, possession, or transport thereof, pursuant to § 208 18.2-308.7, by his child, grandchild, or individual for whom he is the legal guardian if such child, 209 grandchild, or individual is ineligible, solely because of his age, to purchase a firearm.

210 N. Any person who is ineligible to purchase or otherwise receive or possess a firearm in the 211 Commonwealth who solicits, employs or assists any person in violating subsection M shall be guilty of 212 a Class 4 felony and shall be sentenced to a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of five years.

213 O. Any mandatory minimum sentence imposed under this section shall be served consecutively with 214 any other sentence.

215 P. All driver's licenses issued on or after July 1, 1994, shall carry a letter designation indicating 216 whether the driver's license is an original, duplicate or renewed driver's license.

217 Q. Prior to selling, renting, trading, or transferring any firearm owned by the dealer but not in his 218 inventory to any other person, a dealer may require such other person to consent to have the dealer
219 obtain criminal history record information to determine if such other person is prohibited from 220 possessing or transporting a firearm by state or federal law. The Department of State Police shall 221 establish policies and procedures in accordance with 28 C.F.R. § 25.6 to permit such determinations to 222 be made by the Department of State Police, and the processes established for making such 223 determinations shall conform to the provisions of this section.
