§ 24.2-302.2. Congressional districts.

A. There shall be 11 Virginia members of the United States House of Representatives elected from 11 congressional districts and each district is entitled to one representative.

B. All references in this section to boundaries of counties and cities shall be interpreted to refer to those in existence on April 1, 2011, and as reported by the United States Bureau of the Census in the 2010 Census reports provided pursuant to United States Public Law 94-171, notwithstanding subsequent boundary changes by law, annexation, merger, consolidation, or the voiding of boundary changes theretofore made final, and except as provided in subsection D.

C. Parts of counties and cities listed in subsection ~~D~~ E are defined by reference to the 2010 Census reports for the precincts, parts of precincts, and blocks listed for each congressional district in the Statistical Report for this enrolled House bill on file with the Clerk of the House of Delegates. Precincts shall be interpreted to refer to those in existence on April 1, 2011, and as reported by the United States Bureau of the Census in the 2010 Census reports provided pursuant to United States Public Law 94-171, notwithstanding subsequent changes made by localities.

D. In the event the boundary of a congressional district virtually coincides with the boundary between two or more localities, the boundary of the congressional district shall conform to the boundary between the localities that has been (i) agreed upon by those localities, (ii) adopted in ordinances by those localities, (iii) reported by those localities to the United States Bureau of the Census, and (iv) the population of the district as a result of the boundary adjustment is within the allowable deviation for a congressional district.

The clerk of each locality shall send notice of the change to the boundary of a congressional district, including a description of the boundary and a map showing the boundary, to the local electoral boards, the Commission on Local Government, the Secretary of the Commonwealth, the State Board of Elections, and the Division of Legislative Services. Upon receipt of the notice of the change, the State Board shall review the change to determine whether there is evidence that the change was made with fraudulent intent. If it appears after the review that there was fraudulent intent, the Board shall refer the matter to the circuit court for one of the affected localities to approve or deny the change of the boundary.

In the event two or more localities sharing a boundary cannot agree upon the true boundary line between them, the boundary between the localities shall be as defined in subsection B for purposes of determining the boundaries of the congressional districts.

C.
