1	SENATE BILL NO. 80
2	Offered January 8, 2020
3	Prefiled November 26, 2019
4	A BILL to amend the Code of Virginia by adding sections numbered 22.1-203.4 and 23.1-401.2, relating
5	to student journalists; freedom of speech and the press.
6
	Patrons—Marsden; Delegate: Kory
8	Referred to Committee on Education and Health
9
10	Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:
11	1. That the Code of Virginia is amended by adding sections numbered 22.1-203.4 and 23.1-401.2 as
12	follows:
13	§ 22.1-203.4. Student journalists; freedom of speech and the press.
14	A. As used in this section:
15	"School-sponsored media" means any material that is prepared, substantially written, published, or
16 17	broadcast by a student journalist at a public middle school or high school under the direction of a student media adviser and distributed or generally made available to members of the student body.
18	"School-sponsored media" does not include any media intended for distribution or transmission solely in
19	the classroom in which the media is produced.
20	"Student journalist" means a public middle school or high school student who gathers, compiles,
21	writes, edits, photographs, records, or prepares information for inclusion in school-sponsored media.
22	"Student media adviser" means a school board employee who is appointed, designated, or employed
23	to supervise or provide instruction relating to school-sponsored media.
24	B. Except as provided in subsection C, a student journalist has the right to exercise freedom of
25	speech and the press in school-sponsored media, including determining the news, opinion, feature, and
26	advertising content of school-sponsored media, regardless of whether the media is supported financially
27	by the school board, supported through the use of school facilities in the school division, or produced in
28	conjunction with a course or class in which the student is enrolled. Nothing in this subsection shall be
29	construed to prevent a student media adviser from teaching professional standards of English language
30	usage and journalism to student journalists.
31	C. No student journalist has the right to exercise freedom of speech or the press in school-sponsored media when such media:
32 33	1. Is libelous or slanderous;
33 34	2. Constitutes an unwarranted invasion of privacy;
35	3. Violates federal or state law; or
36	4. So incites students as to create a clear and present danger of the commission of an unlawful act,
37	the violation of school board policy, or the material and substantial disruption of the orderly operation
38	of the school.
39	D. No school board shall authorize any prior restraint of any school-sponsored media except when
40	such media:
41	1. Is libelous or slanderous;
42	2. Constitutes an unwarranted invasion of privacy;
43	3. Violates federal or state law; or
44	4. So incites students as to create a clear and present danger of the commission of an unlawful act,
45	the violation of school board policies, or the material and substantial disruption of the orderly
46	operation of the school.
47 48	E. No school board shall sanction a student who operates as a journalist in a manner that is independent from any school-sponsored media or student media adviser.
4 9	F. Each school board shall adopt a written policy for the exercise of the right of student journalists
50	to freedom of speech and the press in school-sponsored media in accordance with this section. Each
50 51	such policy shall include reasonable provisions relating to the time, place, and manner of the exercise
52	of such rights. Any such policy may include limitations on school-sponsored media that is profane,
53	harassing, threatening, or intimidating.
54	G. No student media adviser shall be dismissed, suspended, disciplined, reassigned, or transferred
55	for (i) taking reasonable and appropriate action to protect a student journalist who engages in conduct
56	that is protected by subsection B or (ii) refusing to infringe on conduct by a student journalist that is
57	protected by subsection B, the First Amendment to the United States Constitution, or the Constitution of
58	Virginia.

59 § 23.1-401.2. Student journalists; freedom of speech and the press.

60 A. As used in this section:

61 "School-sponsored media" means any material that is prepared, substantially written, published, or
62 broadcast by a student journalist at a public institution of higher education under the direction of a
63 student media adviser and distributed or generally made available to members of the student body.
64 "School sponsored media"

64 "School-sponsored media" does not include any media intended for distribution or transmission solely in65 the course in which the media is produced.

"Student journalist" means a student enrolled at a public institution of higher education who gathers, compiles, writes, edits, photographs, records, or prepares information for inclusion in school-sponsored media.

69 "Student media adviser" means an employee of a public institution of higher education who is 70 appointed, designated, or employed to supervise or provide instruction relating to school-sponsored 71 media.

B. Except as provided in subsection C, a student journalist has the right to exercise freedom of speech and the press in school-sponsored media, including determining the news, opinion, feature, and
advertising content of school-sponsored media, regardless of whether the media is supported financially
by the governing board of the institution, supported through the use of campus facilities, or produced in conjunction with a course in which the student is enrolled. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to prevent a student media adviser from teaching professional standards of English language usage and journalism to student journalists.

79 C. No student journalist has the right to exercise freedom of speech or the press in school-sponsored 80 media when such media:

81 1. Is libelous or slanderous;

82 2. Constitutes an unwarranted invasion of privacy;

83 3. Violates federal or state law; or

84 4. So incites students as to create a clear and present danger of the commission of an unlawful act,
85 the violation of institution policy, or the material and substantial disruption of the orderly operation of 86 the institution.

D. No student media adviser shall be dismissed, suspended, disciplined, reassigned, or transferred for (i) taking reasonable and appropriate action to protect a student journalist who engages in conduct
that is protected by subsection B or (ii) refusing to infringe on conduct by a student journalist that is

90 protected by subsection B, the First Amendment to the United States Constitution, or the Constitution of 91 Virginia.
