B. Subject to subdivision C 3 and subsection C of § 6.2-1524, the prohibition in subsection A shall not be construed to prevent any person, other than a licensee, from:

188 the financial responsibility, background, experience, and activities of the applicant, its directors, senior
189 officers, principals, and members, and any proposed new directors, senior officers, principals, or 190 members of the licensee; and

191 3. Pays such application fee as the Commission may prescribe.

192 B. Upon the filing and investigation of an application, the Commission shall permit the applicant to

204 acquisition by merger or consolidation, by or with a person affiliated through common ownership with 205 the licensee; or (iii) the acquisition of an interest in a licensee by a person by bequest, descent,
206 survivorship or operation of law. The person acquiring an interest in a licensee in a transaction that is 207 exempt from filing an application by this subsection shall send written notice to the Commissioner of 208 such acquisition within 30 days of its closing.

209 D. The provisions of this section shall not apply to the acquisition, sale, or transfer of shares in a
210 publicly traded company.

211 § 6.2-2237. Retention of books, accounts, and records.

212 Each licensee shall maintain in its approved offices such books, accounts, and records as the
213 Commission may reasonably require to determine whether the licensee is complying with the provisions
214 of this chapter and with regulations adopted in furtherance thereof. Such records relating to small loans
215 shall be retained, at a location within or outside the Commonwealth, for at least three years after final
216 payment is made on any small loan. Such books, accounts, and records shall be maintained apart and 217 separate from any other business in which the licensee is involved.

218 § 6.2-2238. Annual reports.

219 Each licensee shall annually, on or before March 25, file a report with the Commissioner containing 220 such information as the Commissioner may require concerning its business and operations during the 221 preceding calendar year as to each approved small loan company office. Reports shall be made under 222 oath and shall be in the form prescribed by the Commissioner.

223 § 6.2-2239. Other reporting requirements.

225 any of the following:

226 1. The filing of bankruptcy, reorganization, or receivership proceedings by or against the licensee;

227 2. The institution of administrative or regulatory proceedings against the licensee by any 228 governmental authority, except to the extent that such proceedings are deemed confidential by order of

231 principals;

232 4. Any felony conviction of the licensee or any of its members, partners, directors, officers, or 233 principals; and

234 5. Such other event as the Commission may prescribe by regulation.

235 B. The report required by subsection A shall be in writing and shall describe the event and its 236 expected impact on the business of the licensee.

237 § 6.2-2240. Investigations and examinations.

238 The Commission may, by its designated officers and employees, as often as it deems necessary,
239 investigate and examine the affairs, business, premises, and records of any person licensed or required
240 to be licensed under this chapter insofar as they pertain to any business for which a license is required
241 by this chapter. Examinations of licensees shall be conducted at least once in each three-year period. In 242 the course of such investigations and examinations, the owners, members, officers, directors, partners,
243 trustees, beneficiaries, and employees of such person being investigated or examined shall, upon demand of the person making such investigation or examination, afford full access to all premises, books, records, and information that the person making such investigation or examination deems necessary. For the foregoing purposes, the person making such investigation or examination shall have authority to administer oaths, examine under oath all the aforementioned persons, and compel the production of papers and objects of all kinds.

In order to defray the costs of their examination, supervision, and regulation, every licensee under this chapter shall pay an annual fee calculated in accordance with a schedule set by the Commission. The schedule shall bear a reasonable relationship to the business volume of such licensees, the actual costs of their examinations, and other factors relating to their supervision and regulation. All such fees shall be assessed on or before September 15 for every calendar year. All such fees shall be paid by the licensee to the State Treasurer on or before October 15 following each assessment. Additionally, when it becomes necessary to examine or investigate the books and records of a licensee under this chapter at a location outside the Commonwealth, the licensee shall be liable for and shall pay to the Commission within 30 days of the presentation of an itemized statement, the actual travel and reasonable living expenses incurred on account of its examination, supervision, and regulation, or shall pay at a reasonable per diem rate approved by the Commission.

§ 6.2-2241. Regulations.

The Commission shall adopt such regulations as it deems appropriate to effect the purposes of this chapter. Before adopting any such regulation, the Commission shall give reasonable notice of its content and shall afford interested parties an opportunity to be heard, in accordance with the rules of the Commission. A copy of each regulation and the order adopting it shall be sent to all licensees at least 30 days before the effective date thereof.

§ 6.2-2242. Small loan amount, interest, fees, and charges.

A. A licensee authorized to make small loans under this chapter may charge and collect interest, fees, and charges in a manner consistent with this section.

B. A licensee may charge and collect periodic interest at any rate, not to exceed 36 percent, agreed to by the parties.

C. In addition to the periodic interest authorized under subsection B, a licensee may also charge and collect a customary daily fee, not to exceed 0.88 percent of the average daily principal balance in any billing cycle, to defray the ordinary costs of opening, administering, and terminating a small loan plan, including costs associated with:

1. Underwriting and documenting the account;
2. Securing and maintaining account information;
3. Validating borrower information;
4. Offering electronic and phone access to accounts;
5. Processing account transactions;
6. Responding to borrower inquiries;
7. Providing periodic billing statements; and
8. All other services or activities conducted by the licensee under the small loan plan.

The customary daily fee shall not be deemed interest for any purpose of law.

D. No small loan plan under this chapter shall have a maximum line of credit or outstanding principal balance in excess of $5,000 at any time.

E. Any small loan plan under this chapter shall require payment on or before the due date of each billing cycle in an amount sufficient to reduce any outstanding principal balance by at least three percent per calendar month. No regularly scheduled payment for a small loan that is in good standing shall require a reduction in principal of more than ten percent.

F. If a check is returned to a licensee from a payer financial institution due to insufficient funds, no licensee shall have the authority to assess a handling charge against the maker or drawer of the returned check.

G. In the event that a borrower defaults under the terms of the small loan plan, the licensee may:

1. If the small loan plan so provides, refer the borrower's account to an attorney for collection and charge and collect from the borrower any court costs and attorney fees, including those incurred on appeal; or

2. Charge and collect interest and the customary daily fee following default of the borrower or judgment in favor of the licensee at the periodic rate permitted by this section.

H. A small loan shall be unsecured, without fixed maturity or limitation as to the length of the term, and shall be subject to prepayment in whole or in part at any time without penalty.

§ 6.2-2243. Required and prohibited business methods.

A licensee shall provide each prospective borrower, before consummation of a small loan plan, a written explanation, in clear, understandable language, of the interest, fees, and charges to be charged by the licensee. The style, content, and method of executing the required written explanation shall

305 comply with federal truth-in-lending laws and shall contain a statement that the borrower may prepay
306 the unpaid balance in whole or in part at any time without penalty. The Commissioner may promulgate 307 rules establishing additional requirements in order to assure complete and accurate disclosure of the 308 interest, fees, and charges to be charged by a licensee under a small loan plan.

309 B. The account-opening statement for any small loan plan shall include, along with other state or 310 federal law requirements:

311 1. A next-business-day borrower right of rescission for any requested draw under the small loan
312 plan; and

313 2. A notice informing the borrower that complaints may be made to the Commission, including the 314 Commission's telephone number and address.

315 C. The account-opening statement for any small loan plan shall not require or provide the licensee
316 the authority to require the borrower to draw the full amount of credit available under a small loan
317 plan at any time.

318 D. A licensee shall provide borrowers with a periodic billing statement in compliance with federal 319 truth-in-lending laws.

320 E. If two or more borrowers having the same residence are each authorized to obtain extensions of 321 credit under the small loan plan, the statement of provisions of the plan shall be provided to one of the 322 borrowers as may be designated in the plan, and the billing statements required by law shall be
323 rendered to such borrower.

324 F. Assignment or order for the payment of future salary, wages, commissions, or other compensation
325 for services shall not be given as an enforceable security interest for a loan made by any licensee,
326 notwithstanding the provisions of any other law to the contrary. A licensee shall not take a lien upon 327 real estate or personal property as security for any loan made under the provisions of this chapter.

328 G. A licensee shall administer small loans in compliance with the Equal Credit Opportunity Act, 15
329 U.S.C. § 1691 et seq.; Truth in Lending Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1601 et seq.; Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15

336 Commission's Privacy Rule, Safeguards Rule, and Disposal of Consumer Report Information and 337 Records Rule; and all other applicable federal rules and regulations.

338 H. A licensee shall provide a clearly displayed notice to the borrower as part of the small loan
339 agreement that states:

340 "YOU MAY REPAY THIS LOAN, IN WHOLE OR IN PART, AT ANY TIME. PAYING MORE THAN 341 THE MINIMUM PAYMENT WILL REDUCE YOUR COST OF BORROWING."

342 § 6.2-2244. Additional charges prohibited.

343 No further interest, charges, or fees in addition to those permitted under § 6.2-2242 shall be directly
344 or indirectly charged, contracted for, collected, or received, including for insurance premiums,
345 recordation fees, or check handling fees.

346 § 6.2-2245. Noncompliant loan agreement.

347 A. If any provision of a written small loan plan violates this chapter, such provision shall be
348 unenforceable against the borrower.

349 B. Any person who suffers loss by reason of a violation of any provision of this chapter may bring a
350 civil action to enforce such provision. Any person who is successful in such action shall recover
351 reasonable attorney fees, expert witness fees, and court costs incurred by bringing such action.

352 § 6.2-2246. Duty to refund unauthorized or excess charges; liability to borrower for penalty.

353 A. If any amount not authorized by this chapter or in excess of the charges permitted by this chapter
354 is charged and received by a licensee, such unauthorized or excess charge actually received by a
355 licensee shall be refunded to the borrower or credited to the borrower's account.

356 B. Except for excess charges charged and received as the result of a bona fide error, the licensee
357 shall be liable to the borrower for a penalty of twice the amount of any unauthorized or excess charge
358 actually received by the licensee and for any court costs and reasonable attorney fees incurred by the 359 borrower.

360 § 6.2-2247. Other business.

361 A. Except as permitted by Commission regulation or upon Commission approval of a written 362 application filed in accordance with this section, a licensee that conducts the business of making small
363 loans pursuant to this chapter solely over the internet shall not offer, sell, or make available any other
364 products or services to Virginia residents without a license to do so if one is required.

365 B. This section shall not apply to any other business that is transacted solely with persons residing 366 outside of the Commonwealth.

§ 6.2-2248. Suspension, revocation, or surrender of license.

A. The Commission may suspend or revoke any license issued under this chapter upon any of the following grounds:

1. Failure to pay any fee, assessment, or expense imposed by this chapter;

8. Refusal to permit an investigation or examination by the Commission; or
9. Any ground for denial of a license under this chapter.

B. For the purposes of this section, acts of any officer, director, member, partner, trustee, beneficiary, or principal shall be deemed acts of the licensee.

C. Any licensee may surrender any license by delivering it to the Commission with written notice of its surrender. The surrender shall not affect the licensee's civil or criminal liability for acts previously committed.

D. The revocation, suspension, or surrender of any license shall not impair or affect the obligation of any preexisting lawful contract between the licensee and any borrower.

§ 6.2-2249. Cease and desist orders.

If the Commission determines that any person has violated any provision of this chapter or any regulation adopted by the Commission pursuant thereto, or violated any other law or regulation applicable to the conduct of a licensee's business, the Commission may, upon 21 days' notice in writing, order such person to cease and desist from such practices and to comply with the provisions of this chapter. The notice shall be sent by certified mail to the principal place of business of such person or other address authorized under § 12.1-19.1 and shall state the grounds for the contemplated action. Within 14 days of mailing the notice, the person or persons named therein may file with the Clerk of the Commission a written request for a hearing. If a hearing is requested, the Commission shall not issue a cease and desist order except based upon findings made at such hearing. Such hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of the Commission.
