2. Patron: Keam

3. Committee: Education

4. Title: Family life education; Standards of Learning and curriculum guidelines; contemporary community.

5. Summary: Requires the Board of Education, in conducting its regular review and revision of the Standards of Learning and curriculum guidelines for family life education, to consult relevant stakeholders representing the interests of students, parents, health care providers, faith communities, and other public interest groups to ascertain and ensure that such standards and guidelines reflect contemporary community standards. The bill requires the next such review and revision to be completed no later than June 30, 2021. The bill requires each school board to conduct a review of its family life education curricula at least once every seven years.

6. Budget Amendment Necessary: Yes, Item 137.

7. Fiscal Impact Estimates: Preliminary. See Item 8.

8. Fiscal Implications: The Department of Education (DOE) estimates an annual cost of $65,150 to meet the provisions of this bill. DOE does not have staffing resources linked to the Family Life Education standard, so additional staff will be necessary to support these requirements. DOE estimates $60,150 for salary and benefits for a part-time pay band five position and $5,000 to support technology, travel, and professional development costs for this employee.

Any fiscal impact to local school divisions is indeterminate.

9. Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected: Department of Education, local school divisions

10. Technical Amendment Necessary: No

11. Other Comments: None
