

Department of Planning and Budget 2020 Fiscal Impact Statement

1. Bill Number: SB307

House of Origin     Introduced     Substitute     Engrossed
Second House     In Committee     Substitute     Enrolled

2. Patron: Stanley

3. Committee: Committee on the Judiciary

4. Title: Adults sentenced for juvenile offenses; good conduct credit.

5. Summary: Currently, unless it is a mandatory minimum sentence of confinement, each prisoner sentenced to 12 months or less for a misdemeanor or any combination of misdemeanors earns good conduct credit at the rate of one day for each one day served, including all days served while confined in jail prior to conviction and sentencing, in which the prisoner has not violated the written rules and regulations of the jail. However, prisoners sentenced of a felony and sentenced to the Department of Corrections (DOC) and eligible for parole, prisoners convicted of a felony and also of a misdemeanor and eligible for parole, and prisoners convicted of felonies or misdemeanors but who are sentenced to jail and not eligible for parole can earn good conduct credit at a rate of 15 days for each day for each 30 days served with satisfactory conduct.

This bill provides that an adult sentenced for a juvenile offense can earn good conduct credit at the rate of one day for each day served, including all days served while confined in jail or secured detention prior to conviction and sentencing, in which the adult has not violated the written rules and regulations of the jail.

6. Budget Amendment Necessary: No

7. Fiscal Impact Estimates: Preliminary. See Item 8.

8. Fiscal Implications: This bill may affect the time calculations for adults sentenced for juvenile offenses; however, the number of offenders affected by this bill is not currently known.

The Department of Correction is currently reviewing this bill for potential impacts.

9. Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected: Department of Corrections, local and regional jails

10. Technical Amendment Necessary: None

11. Other Comments: This bill is identical to HB61.
