Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 11

1. That § 51.5-41 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted and that the Code of Virginia 12 is amended by adding a section numbered 2.2-2903.01 as follows: 13 14

§ 2.2-2903.01. Preference for persons with disabilities.

15 In a manner consistent with federal and state law, if any person with a disability applies for employment with the Commonwealth, such person shall be given preference during the selection process, 16 provided that such person meets all of the knowledge, skill, and ability requirements for the available 17 position. For purposes of this section, the term "preference" requires that a person with a disability be 18 19 hired over a person without a disability when the two individuals are substantially equal in 20 qualifications for an eligible position.

21 § 51.5-41. Discrimination against otherwise qualified persons with disabilities by employers 22 prohibited.

23 A. No employer shall discriminate in employment or promotion practices against an otherwise 24 qualified person with a disability solely because of such disability. For the purposes of this section, an 25 "otherwise qualified person with a disability" means a person qualified to perform the duties of a particular job or position and whose disability is unrelated to the person's ability to perform such duties 26 27 or position or is unrelated to the person's qualifications for employment or promotion.

B. It Except as otherwise provided by § 2.2-2903.01, it is the policy of the Commonwealth that 28 persons with disabilities shall be employed in the state service, the service of the political subdivisions 29 30 of the Commonwealth, in the public schools, and in all other employment supported in whole or in part 31 by public funds on the same terms and conditions as other persons unless it is shown that the particular 32 disability prevents the performance of the work involved.

33 C. An employer shall make reasonable accommodation to the known physical and mental 34 impairments of an otherwise qualified person with a disability, if necessary to assist such person in 35 performing a particular job, unless the employer can demonstrate that the accommodation would impose 36 an undue burden on the employer. For the purposes of this section, "mental impairment" does not 37 include active alcoholism or current drug addiction and does not include any mental impairment, disease, 38 or defect that has been successfully asserted by an individual as a defense to any criminal charge.

39 1. In determining whether an accommodation would constitute an undue burden upon the employer, 40 the following shall be considered:

a. Hardship on the conduct of the employer's business, considering the nature of the employer's 41 operation, including composition and structure of the employer's work force; 42 43

b. Size of the facility where employment occurs;

c. The nature and cost of the accommodations needed, taking into account alternate sources of 44 funding or technical assistance included under § 51.5-173; 45 46

d. The possibility that the same accommodations may be used by other prospective employees;

e. Safety and health considerations of the person with a disability, other employees, and the public.

2. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any accommodation that would exceed $500 in cost shall be 48 49 rebuttably presumed to impose an undue burden upon any employer with fewer than 50 employees. 3. The employer has the right to choose among equally effective accommodations. 50

51 4. Nothing in this section shall require accommodations when the authority to make such 52 accommodations is precluded under the terms of a lease or otherwise prohibited by statute, ordinance, or 53 other regulation.

54 5. Building modifications made for the purposes of such reasonable accommodation may be made 55 without requiring the remainder of the existing building to comply with the requirements of the Uniform Statewide Building Code. 56

57 D. Nothing in this section shall prohibit an employer from refusing to hire or promote, from 58 disciplining, transferring, or discharging or taking any other personnel action pertaining to an applicant or an employee who, because of his disability, is unable to adequately perform his duties, or cannot perform such duties in a manner which would not endanger his health or safety or the health or safety of others. Nothing in this section shall subject an employer to any legal liability resulting from the refusal to employ or promote or from the discharge, transfer, discipline of, or the taking of any other personnel action pertaining to a person with a disability who, because of his disability, is unable to adequately perform his duties, or cannot perform such duties in a manner that would not endanger his health or safety or the health or safety of others.

E. Nothing in this section shall be construed as altering the provisions of the Virginia MinimumWage Act (§ 40.1-28.8 et seq.).

68 F. This section shall not apply to employers covered by the federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

69 G. No employer who has hired any person because of the requirements of this section shall be liable 70 for any alleged negligence in such hiring.
