HOUSE BILL NO. 2002

Offered January 13, 2021

Prefiled January 11, 2021

A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 20-60.3, 20-108.2, and 63.2-1903 of the Code of Virginia, relating to child support; health care coverage.

Patrons—Samirah, Guzman, Kory and Levine

Referred to Committee for Courts of Justice

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 20-60.3, 20-108.2, and 63.2-1903 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 20-60.3. Contents of support orders.

All orders directing the payment of spousal support where there are minor children whom the parties have a mutual duty to support and all orders directing the payment of child support, including those orders confirming separation agreements, entered on or after October 1, 1985, whether they are original orders or modifications of existing orders, shall contain the following:

1. Notice that support payments may be withheld as they become due pursuant to § 20-79.1 or § 20-79.2, from income as defined in § 63.2-1900, without further amendments of this order or having to file an application for services with the Department of Social Services; however, absence of such notice in an order entered prior to July 1, 1988, shall not bar withholding of support payments pursuant to § 20-79.1;

2. Notice that support payments may be withheld pursuant to Chapter 19 (§ 63.2-1900 et seq.) of Title 63.2 without further amendments to the order upon application for services with the Department of Social Services; however, absence of such notice in an order entered prior to July 1, 1988, shall not bar withholding of support payments pursuant to Chapter 19 (§ 63.2-1900 et seq.) of Title 63.2;

3. The name, date of birth, and last four digits of the social security number of each child to whom a duty of support is then owed by the parent;

4. If known, the name, date of birth, and last four digits of the social security number of each parent of the child and, unless otherwise ordered, each parent's residential and, if different, mailing address, residential and employer telephone number, and number appearing on a driver's license or other document issued under Chapter 3 (§ 46.2-300 et seq.) of Title 46.2 or the comparable law of another jurisdiction, and the name and address of each parent's employer; however, when a protective order has been issued or the court otherwise finds reason to believe that a party is at risk of physical or emotional harm from the other party, information other than the name of the party at risk shall not be included in the order;

5. Notice that, pursuant to § 20-124.2, support will continue to be paid for any child over the age of 18 who is (i) a full-time high school student, (ii) not self-supporting, and (iii) living in the home of the party seeking or receiving child support until such child reaches the age of 19 or graduates from high school, whichever occurs first, and that the court may also order that support be paid or continue to be paid for any child over the age of 18 who is (a) severely and permanently mentally or physically disabled, and such disability existed prior to the child reaching the age of 18 or the age of 19 if the child met the requirements of clauses (i), (ii), and (iii); (b) unable to live independently and support himself; and (c) residing in the home of the parent seeking or receiving child support;

6. On and after July 1, 1994, notice that a petition may be filed for suspension of any license, certificate, registration or other authorization to engage in a profession, trade, business, occupation, or recreational activity issued by the Commonwealth to a parent as provided in § 63.2-1937 upon a delinquency for a period of 90 days or more or in an amount of $5,000 or more. The order shall indicate whether either or both parents currently hold such an authorization and, if so, the type of authorization held;

7. The monthly amount of support and the effective date of the order. In proceedings on initial petitions, the effective date shall be the date of filing of the petition; in modification proceedings, the effective date may be the date of notice to the responding party. The first monthly payment shall be due on the first day of the month following the hearing date and on the first day of each month thereafter. In addition, an amount shall be assessed for any full and partial months between the effective date of the order and the date that the first monthly payment is due. The assessment for the initial partial month shall be prorated from the effective date through the end of that month, based on the current monthly obligation;

INTRODUCED

59 8. a. An order for health care coverage, including the health insurance policy information, for 60 dependent children pursuant to §§ 20-108.1 and 20-108.2 if available at reasonable cost as defined in 61 § 63.2-1900, or a written statement that health care coverage is not available at a reasonable cost as 62 defined in such section; ~~and~~ a. If it appears that the dependent child may meet the eligibility
63 requirements for the state program of medical assistance, Family Access to Medical Insurance Security
64 (FAMIS) plan, or other government-sponsored health care coverage, the court shall require and
65 document in the child support order a determination as to whether the child qualifies for such health 66 care coverage and, if so, whether such coverage is equivalent to any other coverage option that is 67 available at a reasonable cost, as defined in § 63.2-1900, taking into consideration deductible and 68 copayment requirements;

69 b. A statement as to whether there is an order for health care coverage for a spouse or former 70 spouse; and

71 ~~b.~~ c. A statement as to whether cash medical support, as defined in § 63.2-1900, is to be paid by or 72 reimbursed to a party pursuant to subsections D and G of § 20-108.2, and if such expenses are ordered,
73 then the provisions governing how such payment is to be made;

74 9. If support arrearages exist, (i) to whom an arrearage is owed and the amount of the arrearage, (ii)
75 the period of time for which such arrearage is calculated, and (iii) a direction that all payments are to be 76 credited to current support obligations first, with any payment in excess of the current obligation applied
77 to arrearages;

78 10. If child support payments are ordered to be paid through the Department of Social Services or 79 directly to the obligee, and unless the court for good cause shown orders otherwise, the parties shall 80 give each other and the court and, when payments are to be made through the Department, the 81 Department of Social Services at least 30 days' written notice, in advance, of any change of address and 82 any change of telephone number within 30 days after the change;

83 11. If child support payments are ordered to be paid through the Department of Social Services, a
84 provision requiring an obligor to keep the Department of Social Services informed of the name, address 85 and telephone number of his current employer, or if payments are ordered to be paid directly to the 86 obligee, a provision requiring an obligor to keep the court informed of the name, address and telephone 87 number of his current employer;

88 12. If child support payments are ordered to be paid through the Department of Social Services, a
89 provision requiring the party obligated to provide health care coverage to keep the Department of Social 90 Services informed of any changes in the availability of the health care coverage for the minor child or 91 children, or if payments are ordered to be paid directly to the obligee, a provision requiring the party 92 obligated to provide health care coverage to keep the other party informed of any changes in the 93 availability of the health care coverage for the minor child or children;

94 13. The separate amounts due to each person under the order, unless the court specifically orders a 95 unitary award of child and spousal support due or the order affirms a separation agreement containing 96 provision for such unitary award;

97 14. Notice that in determination of a support obligation, the support obligation as it becomes due and 98 unpaid creates a judgment by operation of law. The order shall also provide, pursuant to § 20-78.2, for 99 interest on the arrearage at the judgment rate as established by § 6.2-302 unless the obligee, in a writing
100 submitted to the court, waives the collection of interest;

101 15. Notice that on and after July 1, 1994, the Department of Social Services may, pursuant to 102 Chapter 19 (§ 63.2-1900 et seq.) of Title 63.2 and in accordance with §§ 20-108.2 and 63.2-1921,
103 initiate a review of the amount of support ordered by any court;

104 16. A statement that if any arrearages for child support, including interest or fees, exist at the time
105 the youngest child included in the order emancipates, payments shall continue in the total amount due
106 (current support plus amount applied toward arrearages) at the time of emancipation until all arrearages 107 are paid; and

108 17. Notice that, in cases enforced by the Department of Social Services, the Department of Motor
109 Vehicles may suspend or refuse to renew the driver's license, or other document issued under Chapter 3
110 (§ 46.2-300 et seq.) of Title 46.2 authorizing the operation of a motor vehicle upon the highways, of any 111 person upon receipt of notice from the Department of Social Services that the person (i) is delinquent in 112 the payment of child support by 90 days or in an amount of $5,000 or more or (ii) has failed to comply 113 with a subpoena, summons, or warrant relating to paternity or child support proceedings.

114 The provisions of this section shall not apply to divorce decrees where there are no minor children
115 whom the parties have a mutual duty to support.

116 § 20-108.2. Guideline for determination of child support; quadrennial review by Child Support
117 Guidelines Review Panel; executive summary.

118 A. There shall be a rebuttable presumption in any judicial or administrative proceeding for child
119 support under this title or Title 16.1 or 63.2, including cases involving split custody, shared custody, or 120 multiple custody arrangements pursuant to subdivisions G 4, 5, and 6, that the amount of the award which would result from the application of the guidelines set forth in this section is the correct amount of child support to be awarded. In order to rebut the presumption, the court shall make written findings in the order as set out in § 20-108.1, which findings may be incorporated by reference, that the application of the guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate in a particular case as determined by relevant evidence pertaining to the factors set out in § 20-108.1. The Department of Social Services shall set child support at the amount resulting from computations using the guidelines set out in this section pursuant to the authority granted to it in Chapter 19 (§ 63.2-1900 et seq.) of Title 63.2 and subject to the provisions of § 63.2-1918.

B. For purposes of application of the guideline, a basic child support obligation shall be computed using the schedule set out below. For combined monthly gross income amounts falling between amounts shown in the schedule, basic child support obligation amounts shall be extrapolated. However, unless one of the following exemptions applies where the sole custody child support obligation as computed pursuant to subdivision G 1 is less than the statutory minimum per month, there shall be a presumptive minimum child support obligation of the statutory minimum per month payable by the payor parent. If the gross income of the obligor is equal to or less than 150 percent of the federal poverty level promulgated by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services from time to time, then the court, upon hearing evidence that there is no ability to pay the presumptive statutory minimum, may set an obligation below the presumptive statutory minimum provided doing so does not create or reduce a support obligation to an amount which seriously impairs the custodial parent's ability to maintain minimal adequate housing and provide other basic necessities for the child. Exemptions from this presumptive minimum monthly child support obligation shall include: parents unable to pay child support because they lack sufficient assets from which to pay child support and who, in addition, are institutionalized in a psychiatric facility; are imprisoned for life with no chance of parole; are medically verified to be totally and permanently disabled with no evidence of potential for paying child support, including recipients of Supplemental Security Income (SSI); or are otherwise involuntarily unable to produce income. "Number of children" means the number of children for whom the parents share joint legal responsibility and for whom support is being sought. The guidelines worksheet relied upon by the court or the Department of Social Services to compute a child support obligation for a support order issued by such court or the Department shall be placed in the court's file or the Department's file, and a copy of such guidelines worksheet shall be provided to the parties.

C. For purposes of this section, "gross income" means all income from all sources, and shall include, but not be limited to, income from salaries, wages, commissions, royalties, bonuses, dividends, severance pay, pensions, interest, trust income, annuities, capital gains, social security benefits except as listed below, workers' compensation benefits, unemployment insurance benefits, disability insurance benefits, veterans' benefits, spousal support, rental income, gifts, prizes or awards.

If a parent's gross income includes disability insurance benefits, it shall also include any amounts paid to or for the child who is the subject of the order and derived by the child from the parent's entitlement to disability insurance benefits. To the extent that such derivative benefits are included in a parent's gross income, that parent shall be entitled to a credit against his or her ongoing basic child support obligation for any such amounts, and, if the amount of the credit exceeds the parent's basic child support obligations, the credit may be used to reduce arrearages.

Gross income shall be subject to deduction of reasonable business expenses for persons with income from self-employment, a partnership, or a closely held business. "Gross income" shall not include:

1. Benefits from public assistance and social services programs as defined in § 63.2-100;
2. Federal supplemental security income benefits;
3. Child support received; or

4. Income received by the payor from secondary employment income not previously included in "gross income," where the payor obtained the income to discharge a child support arrearage established by a court or administrative order and the payor is paying the arrearage pursuant to the order. "Secondary employment income" includes but is not limited to income from an additional job, from self-employment, or from overtime employment. The cessation of such secondary income upon the payment of the arrearage shall not be the basis for a material change in circumstances upon which a modification of child support may be based.

For purposes of this subsection: (i) spousal support received shall be included in gross income and spousal support paid shall be deducted from gross income when paid pursuant to an order or written agreement and (ii) one-half of any self-employment tax paid shall be deducted from gross income.

Where there is an existing court or administrative order or written agreement relating to the child or children of a party to the proceeding, who are not the child or children who are the subject of the present proceeding, then there is a presumption that there shall be deducted from the gross income of the party subject to such order or written agreement, the amount that the party is actually paying for the support of a child or children pursuant to such order or agreement.

Where a party to the proceeding has a natural or adopted child or children in the party's household or primary physical custody, and the child or children are not the subject of the present proceeding, there is a presumption that there shall be deducted from the gross income of that party the amount as shown on the Schedule of Monthly Basic Child Support Obligations contained in subsection B that represents that party's support obligation based solely on that party's income as being the total income available for the natural or adopted child or children in the party's household or primary physical custody, who are not the subject of the present proceeding. Provided, however, that the existence of a party's financial responsibility for such a child or children shall not of itself constitute a material change in circumstances for modifying a previous order of child support in any modification proceeding. Any adjustment to gross income under this subsection shall not create or reduce a support obligation to an amount which seriously impairs the custodial parent's ability to maintain minimal adequate housing and provide other basic necessities for the child, as determined by the court.

In cases in which retroactive liability for support is being determined, the court or administrative agency may use the gross monthly income of the parties averaged over the period of retroactivity.

D. Except for good cause shown or the agreement of the parties, in addition to any other child support obligations established pursuant to this section, any child support order shall provide that the parents pay in proportion to their gross incomes, as used for calculating the monthly support obligation, any reasonable and necessary unreimbursed medical or dental expenses. The method of payment of those expenses shall be contained in the support order. Each parent shall pay his respective share of expenses as those expenses are incurred. Any amount paid under this subsection shall not be adjusted by, nor added to, the child support calculated in accordance with subsection G. For the purposes of this section, medical or dental expenses shall include but not be limited to eyeglasses, prescription medication, prosthetics, orthodontics, and mental health or developmental disabilities services, including but not limited to services provided by a social worker, psychologist, psychiatrist, counselor, or therapist.

D1. In any initial child support proceeding commenced within six months of the birth of a child, except for good cause shown or the agreement of the parties, in addition to any other child support obligations established pursuant to this section, the child support order shall provide that the parents pay in proportion to their gross incomes, as used for calculating the monthly support obligation, any reasonable and necessary unpaid expenses of the mother's pregnancy and the delivery of such child. Any amount paid under this subsection shall not be adjusted by, nor added to, the child support calculated in accordance with subsection G.

E. The costs for health care coverage as defined in § 63.2-1900, vision care coverage, and dental care coverage for the child or children who are the subject of the child support order that are being paid by a parent or that parent's spouse shall be added to the basic child support obligation. To determine the cost to be added to the basic child support obligation, the cost per person shall be applied to the child or children who are subject of the child support order. If the per child cost is provided by the insurer, that is the cost per person. Otherwise, to determine the cost per person, the cost of individual coverage for the policy holder shall be subtracted from the total cost of the coverage, and the remaining amount shall be divided by the number of remaining covered persons. If it appears that the child who is the subject of the child support order may meet the eligibility requirements for the state program of medical assistance, Family Access to Medical Insurance Security (FAMIS) plan, or other government-sponsored health care coverage, a determination shall be made as to whether the child qualifies for such health care coverage and, if so, whether such coverage is equivalent to any other coverage option that is available at a reasonable cost, as defined in § 63.2-1900, taking into consideration deductible and copayment requirements. Any change in health care coverage or eligibility for public health care coverage shall constitute a material change in circumstances.

F. Any child-care costs incurred on behalf of the child or children due to employment of the custodial parent shall be added to the basic child support obligation. Child-care costs shall not exceed the amount required to provide quality care from a licensed source. When requested by the noncustodial parent, the court may require the custodial parent to present documentation to verify the costs incurred for child care under this subsection. Where appropriate, the court shall consider the willingness and availability of the noncustodial parent to provide child care personally in determining whether child-care costs are necessary or excessive. Upon the request of either party, and upon a showing of the tax savings a party derives from child-care cost deductions or credits, the court shall factor actual tax consequences into its calculation of the child-care costs to be added to the basic child support obligation.

G. 1. Sole custody support. The sole custody total monthly child support obligation shall be established by adding (i) the monthly basic child support obligation, as determined from the schedule contained in subsection B, (ii) costs for health care coverage to the extent allowable by subsection E, and (iii) work-related child-care costs and taking into consideration all the factors set forth in subsection B of § 20-108.1. The total monthly child support obligation shall be divided between the parents in the same proportion as their monthly gross incomes bear to their monthly combined gross income. The monthly obligation of each parent shall be computed by multiplying each parent's percentage of the parents' monthly combined gross income by the total monthly child support obligation.

However, the monthly obligation of the noncustodial parent shall be reduced by the cost for health care coverage to the extent allowable by subsection E when paid directly by the noncustodial parent or that parent's spouse. Unreimbursed medical and dental expenses shall be calculated and allocated in accordance with subsection D.

2. Split custody support. In cases involving split custody, the amount of child support to be paid shall be the difference between the amounts owed by each parent as a noncustodial parent, computed in accordance with subdivision 1, with the noncustodial parent owing the larger amount paying the difference to the other parent. Unreimbursed medical and dental expenses shall be calculated and allocated in accordance with subsection D.

For the purpose of this section and § 20-108.1, split custody shall be limited to those situations where each parent has physical custody of a child or children born of the parents, born of either parent and adopted by the other parent or adopted by both parents. For the purposes of calculating a child support obligation where split custody exists, a separate family unit exists for each parent, and child support for that family unit shall be calculated upon the number of children in that family unit who are born of the parents, born of either parent and adopted by the other parent or adopted by both parents. Where split custody exists, a parent is a custodial parent to the children in that parent's family unit and is a noncustodial parent to the children in the other parent's family unit.

3. Shared custody support.

(a) Where a party has custody or visitation of a child or children for more than 90 days of the year, as such days are defined in subdivision G 3 (c), a shared custody child support amount based on the ratio in which the parents share the custody and visitation of any child or children shall be calculated in accordance with this subdivision. The presumptive support to be paid shall be the shared custody support amount, unless a party affirmatively shows that the sole custody support amount calculated as provided in subdivision G 1 is less than the shared custody support amount. If so, the lesser amount shall be the support to be paid. For the purposes of this subsection, the following shall apply:

(i) Income share. "Income share" means a parent's percentage of the combined monthly gross income of both parents. The income share of a parent is that parent's gross income divided by the combined gross incomes of the parties.

(ii) Custody share. "Custody share" means the number of days that a parent has physical custody, whether by sole custody, joint legal or joint residential custody, or visitation, of a shared child per year divided by the number of days in the year. The actual or anticipated "custody share" of the parent who has or will have fewer days of physical custody shall be calculated for a one-year period. The "custody share" of the other parent shall be presumed to be the number of days in the year less the number of days calculated as the first parent's "custody share." For purposes of this calculation, the year may begin on such date as is determined in the discretion of the court, and the day may begin at such time as is determined in the discretion of the court. For purposes of this calculation, a day shall be as defined in subdivision G 3 (c).

986 (iii) Shared support need. "Shared support need" means the presumptive guideline amount of needed
987 support for the shared child or children calculated pursuant to subsection B of this section, for the 988 combined gross income of the parties and the number of shared children, multiplied by 1.4.

989 (iv) Sole custody support. "Sole custody support" means the support amount determined in 990 accordance with subdivision G 1.

991 (b) Support to be paid. The shared support need of the shared child or children shall be calculated
992 pursuant to subdivision G 3 (a) (iii). This amount shall then be multiplied by the other parent's custody 993 share. To that sum for each parent shall be added the other parent's or that parent's spouse's cost of 994 health care coverage to the extent allowable by subsection E, plus the other parent's work-related 995 child-care costs to the extent allowable by subsection F. This total for each parent shall be multiplied by 996 that parent's income share. The support amounts thereby calculated that each parent owes the other shall 997 be subtracted one from the other and the difference shall be the shared custody support one parent owes 998 to the other, with the payor parent being the one whose shared support is the larger. Unreimbursed
999 medical and dental expenses shall be calculated and allocated in accordance with subsection D.

1000 (c) Definition of a day. For the purposes of this section, "day" means a period of 24 hours; however,
1001 where the parent who has the fewer number of overnight periods during the year has an overnight
1002 period with a child, but has physical custody of the shared child for less than 24 hours during such 1003 overnight period, there is a presumption that each parent shall be allocated one-half of a day of custody 1004 for that period.

1005 (d) Minimum standards. Any calculation under this subdivision shall not create or reduce a support
1006 obligation to an amount which seriously impairs the custodial parent's ability to maintain minimal
1007 adequate housing and provide other basic necessities for the child. If the gross income of either party is 1008 equal to or less than 150 percent of the federal poverty level promulgated by the U.S. Department of 1009 Health and Human Services from time to time, then the shared custody support calculated pursuant to 1010 this subsection shall not be the presumptively correct support and the court may consider whether the 1011 sole custody support or the shared custody support is more just and appropriate.

1012 (e) Support modification. When there has been an award of child support based on the shared 1013 custody formula and one parent consistently fails to exercise custody or visitation in accordance with the 1014 parent's custody share upon which the award was based, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that the 1015 support award should be modified.

1016 (f) In the event that the shared custody support calculation indicates that the net support is to be paid
1017 to the parent who would not be the parent receiving support pursuant to the sole custody calculation, 1018 then the shared support shall be deemed to be the lesser support.

1019 4. Multiple shared custody support. In cases with different shared custody arrangements for two or 1020 more minor children of the parties, the procedures in subdivision G 3 shall apply, except that one shared 1021 guideline shall be used to determine the total amount of child support owed by one parent to the other 1022 by:

1023 (a) Calculating each parent's custody share by adding the total number of days, as defined in 1024 subdivision G 3 (c), that each parent has with each child and dividing such total number of days by the 1025 number of children of the parties to determine the average number of shared custody days; and

1026 (b) Using each parent's custody share as determined in subdivision G 4 (a) for each parent to 1027 calculate the child support owed, in accordance with the provisions of subdivision G 3.

1028 5. Sole and shared custody support. In cases where one parent has sole custody of one or more 1029 minor children of the parties, and the parties share custody of one or more other minor children of the 1030 parties, the procedures in subdivisions G 1 and 3 shall apply, except that one sole custody support 1031 guideline calculation and one shared custody support guideline calculation shall be used to determine the 1032 total amount of child support owed by one parent to the other by:

1033 (a) Calculating the sole custody support obligation by:

1034 (i) Calculating the per child monthly basic child support obligation by determining, for the number of 1035 children of the parties, the scheduled monthly basic child support obligation and dividing that amount by
1036 the number of children of the parties;

1037 (ii) Calculating the sole custody pro rata monthly basic child support obligation by multiplying the 1038 per child monthly basic child support obligation determined in subdivision G 5 (a) (i) by the number of 1039 children subject to the sole custody support obligation; and

1040 (iii) Applying the sole custody pro rata monthly basic child support obligation determined in 1041 subdivision G 5 (a) (ii) to the procedures in subdivision G 1.

1042 (b) Calculating the shared custody child support obligation by:

1043 (i) Calculating the per child monthly basic child support obligation by determining, for the number of
1044 children of the parties, the scheduled monthly basic child support obligation and dividing that amount by
1045 the number of children of the parties;

1046 (ii) Calculating the shared custody pro rata monthly basic child support obligation by multiplying the 1047 per child monthly basic child support obligation determined in subdivision G 5 (b) (i) by the number of children subject to the shared custody support obligation; and

(iii) Applying the shared custody pro rata monthly basic child support obligation determined in subdivision G 5 (b) (ii) to the procedures in subdivision G 3.

(c) Determining the total amount of child support owed by one parent to the other. Where one parent owes both the sole custody support obligation and the shared custody support obligation to the other parent, the total of both such obligations calculated pursuant to subdivisions G 5 (a) and G 5 (b) shall be added to determine the total amount of child support owed by one parent to the other. Where one parent owes one such obligation to the other parent, and such other parent owes the other such obligation to the other such parent, the parent owing the greater obligation amount to the other parent shall pay the difference between the obligations to such other parent.

6. Split and shared custody support. In cases where the parents have split custody of two or more children, and there is a shared custody arrangement with one or more other minor children of the parties, the procedures set forth in subdivisions G 2 and G 3 shall apply, except that one split custody child support guideline calculation and one shared custody child support guideline calculation shall be used to calculate the total amount of child support owed by one parent to the other by:

(a) Calculating the split custody child support obligation by:

(i) Calculating the per child monthly basic child custody support obligation by determining, for the number of children of the parties, the scheduled monthly basic child support obligation and dividing that amount by the number of children of the parties;

(ii) Calculating the split custody pro rata monthly basic child support obligation by multiplying the per child monthly basic child support obligation determined in subdivision G 6 (a) (i) by the number of children subject to the split custody support obligation; and

(iii) Applying the split custody pro rata monthly basic child support obligation determined in subdivision G 6 (a) (ii) for each parent to the procedures in subdivision G 2.

(b) Calculating the shared custody child support obligation by:

(i) Calculating the per child monthly basic child custody support obligation by determining, for the number of children of the parties, the scheduled monthly basic child support obligation and dividing that amount by the number of children of the parties;

(ii) Calculating the shared custody pro rata monthly basic child custody support obligation by multiplying the per child monthly basic child support obligation determined in subdivision G 6 (b) (i) by the number of children subject to the shared custody support obligation; and

(iii) Applying the shared custody pro rata monthly basic child support obligation determined in subdivision G 6 (b) (ii) to the procedures in subdivision G 3.

(c) Determining the total amount of child support owed by one parent to the other. Where one parent owes both the split custody support obligation and the shared custody support obligation to the other parent, the total of both such obligations calculated pursuant to subdivisions G 6 (a) and G 6 (b) shall be added to determine the total amount of child support owed by one parent to the other. Where one parent owes one such obligation to the other parent, and such other parent owes the other such obligation to the other such parent, the parent owing the greater obligation amount to the other parent shall pay the difference between the obligations to such other parent.

H. The Secretary of Health and Human Resources shall ensure that the guideline set out in this section is reviewed by October 31, 2001, and every four years thereafter, by the Child Support Guidelines Review Panel, consisting of 15 members comprised of four legislative members and 11 nonlegislative citizen members. Members shall be appointed as follows: three members of the House Committee for Courts of Justice, upon the recommendation of the chairman of such committee, to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Delegates in accordance with the principles of proportional representation contained in the Rules of the House of Delegates; one member of the Senate Committee for Courts of Justice, upon the recommendation of the chairman of such committee, to be appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules; and one representative of a juvenile and domestic relations district court, one representative of a circuit court, one representative of the Department of Social Services' Division of Child Support Enforcement, three members of the Virginia State Bar, two custodial parents, two noncustodial parents, and one child advocate, upon the recommendation of the Secretary of Health and Human Resources, to be appointed by the Governor. The Panel shall determine the adequacy of the guideline for the determination of appropriate awards for the support of children by considering current research and data on the cost of and expenditures necessary for rearing children, and any other resources it deems relevant to such review. The Panel shall report its findings to the General Assembly as provided in the procedures of the Division of Legislative Automated Systems for the processing of legislative documents and reports before the General Assembly next convenes following such review.

Legislative members shall serve terms coincident with their terms of office. Nonlegislative citizen members shall serve at the pleasure of the Governor. All members may be reappointed. Appointments to fill vacancies, other than by expiration of a term, shall be made for the unexpired terms. Vacancies shall 1109 be filled in the same manner as the original appointments.

1110 Legislative members shall receive such compensation as provided in § 30-19.12, and nonlegislative
1111 citizen members shall receive such compensation for the performance of their duties as provided in 1112 § 2.2-2813. All members shall be reimbursed for all reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in the 1113 performance of their duties as provided in §§ 2.2-2813 and 2.2-2825. Funding for the costs of 1114 compensation and expenses of the members shall be provided by the Department of Social Services.

1115 The Department of Social Services shall provide staff support to the Panel. All agencies of the 1116 Commonwealth shall provide assistance to the Panel, upon request.

1117 The chairman of the Panel shall submit to the Governor and the General Assembly a quadrennial
1118 executive summary of the interim activity and work of the Panel no later than the first day of 2006
1119 regular session of the General Assembly and every four years thereafter. The executive summary shall 1120 be submitted as provided in the procedures of the Division of Legislative Automated Systems for the 1121 processing of legislative documents and reports and shall be posted on the General Assembly's website.

1122 § 63.2-1903. Authority to issue certain orders; civil penalty.

1123 A. In the absence of a court order, the Department shall have the authority to issue orders directing 1124 the payment of child and child and spousal support and, if available at reasonable cost as defined in 1125 § 63.2-1900, to require a provision for health care coverage, including Department-sponsored health care
1126 coverage, or cash medical support, or both, for dependent children of the parents, which shall include 1127 the requirements specified for employers pursuant to subdivision B 5 of § 20-79.3. If it appears that the 1128 dependent child may meet the eligibility requirements for the state program of medical assistance,
1129 Family Access to Medical Insurance Security (FAMIS) plan, or other government-sponsored health care
1130 coverage, the Department shall determine whether the child qualifies for such health care coverage and,
1131 if so, whether such coverage is equivalent to any other coverage option that is available at a reasonable
1132 cost, taking into consideration deductible and copayment requirements. The Department shall have the 1133 authority to make available Department-sponsored health care coverage for children receiving child
1134 support services from the Department.

1135 If health care coverage is unavailable at a reasonable cost, as defined in § 63.2-1900, or inaccessible
1136 to either parent, the Department shall refer the dependent children to the Family Access to Medical 1137 Insurance Security plan pursuant to § 32.1-351. However, prior to referring the dependent children to the 1138 Family Access to Medical Insurance Security plan, the Department shall confirm that neither parent has 1139 access to health care coverage at a reasonable cost for the dependent children. If a child is enrolled in 1140 Department-sponsored health care coverage, the Department shall collect the cost of the coverage
1141 pursuant to subsection E of § 20-108.2.

1142 In ordering the payment of child support, the Department shall set such support at the amount 1143 resulting from computation pursuant to the guideline set out in § 20-108.2, subject to the provisions of 1144 § 63.2-1918.

1145 B. When a payee no longer has physical custody of a child, the Department shall have the authority 1146 to redirect child support payments to a custodial parent who has physical custody of the child when an 1147 assignment of rights has been made to the Department or an application for services has been made by 1148 such custodial parent with the Division of Child Support Enforcement.

1149 C. The Department shall have the authority, upon notice from the Department of Medical Assistance
1150 Services, to use any existing enforcement mechanisms provided by this chapter to collect the wages, 1151 salary, or other employment income or to withhold amounts from state tax refunds of any obligor who 1152 has not used payments received from a third party to reimburse, as appropriate, either the other parent of 1153 such child or the provider of such services, to the extent necessary to reimburse the Department of 1154 Medical Assistance Services.

1155 D. The Department may order the obligor and payee to notify each other or the Department upon 1156 request of current gross income as defined in § 20-108.2 and any other pertinent information that may 1157 affect child support amounts. For good cause shown, the Department may order that such information be 1158 provided to the Department and made available to the parties for inspection in lieu of the parties'
1159 providing such information directly to each other. The Department shall record the social security
1160 number of each party or control number issued to a party by the Department of Motor Vehicles pursuant 1161 to § 46.2-342 in the Department's file of the case.

1162 E. The Department shall develop procedures governing the method and timing of periodic review and 1163 adjustment of child support orders established or enforced or both pursuant to Title IV-D of the Social 1164 Security Act, as amended. If there is an assignment under Title IV-A of the Social Security Act or at 1165 the request of either parent subject to the order, the Department shall initiate a review of such order 1166 every three years without requiring proof or showing of a change in circumstances and shall initiate 1167 appropriate action to adjust such order in accordance with the provisions of § 20-108.2 and subject to 1168 the provisions of § 63.2-1918.

1169 F. In order to provide essential information for whatever establishment or enforcement actions are 1170 necessary for the collection of child support, the Commissioner, the Director of the Division of Child

Support Enforcement, and district managers of Division of Child Support Enforcement offices shall have the right to (i) subpoena financial records of, or other information relating to, the noncustodial parent and obligee from any person, firm, corporation, association, or political subdivision or department of the Commonwealth and (ii) summons the noncustodial parent and obligee to appear in the Division's offices. The Commissioner, Director, and district managers may also subpoena copies of state and federal income tax returns. The district managers shall be trained in the correct use of the subpoena process prior to exercising subpoena authority. A civil penalty not to exceed $1,000 may be assessed by the Commissioner for a failure to respond to a subpoena issued pursuant to this subsection.

G. In the absence of a court order, the Department may establish an administrative support order on an out-of-state obligor pursuant to subdivision A 8 or 9 of § 8.01-328.1 or § 20-88.35. The Department may also take action to enforce an administrative or court order on an out-of-state obligor. Service of such actions shall be in accordance with the provisions of § 8.01-296, 8.01-327 or 8.01-329 or by certified mail, return receipt requested, or electronic means in accordance with § 63.2-1917.

H. If a support order has been issued in another state but the obligor, the obligee, and the child now live in the Commonwealth, the Department may (i) enforce the order without registration, using all enforcement remedies available under this chapter, and (ii) register the order in the appropriate tribunal of the Commonwealth for enforcement or modification.
