2. Patron: Leftwich

3. Committee: Courts of Justice

4. Title: Domestic relations; contents of support orders; unemployment benefits.

5. Summary: Requires support orders to contain a provision requiring an obligor to keep the Department of Social Services or a court informed of, in addition to the name, address, and telephone number of his current employer, any change to his employment status and if he has filed a claim for or is receiving unemployment benefits within 30 days of such change.

6. Budget Amendment Necessary: No.

7. Fiscal Impact Estimates: See Item 8.

8. Fiscal Implications: This legislation, as amended, adds language to § 63.2-1916 requiring that administrative support orders contain a provision requiring an obligor to keep the Department of Social Services or a court informed of, in addition to the name, address, and telephone number of his current employer, any change to his employment status and if he has filed a claim for or is receiving unemployment benefits. The amended legislation will require system changes to modify the administrative support orders. The agency indicates that costs are estimated at $10,000 one-time funding in FY 2022 ($3,400 special funds and $6,600 federal funds). If the agency cannot absorb this cost within its current appropriation, this amount can be appropriated administratively.

9. Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected: Department of Social Services, Courts

10. Technical Amendment Necessary: No.

11. Other Comments: None.
