Patron—McGuire

Referred to Committee for Courts of Justice

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 18.2-23, 18.2-80, 18.2-81, 18.2-95 through 18.2-97, 18.2-102, 18.2-103, 18.2-108.01, 18.2-145.1, 18.2-146, 18.2-150, 18.2-152.3, 18.2-162, 18.2-181, 18.2-181.1, 18.2-182, 18.2-186, 18.2-186.3, 18.2-187.1, 18.2-188, 18.2-195, 18.2-195.2, 18.2-197, 18.2-340.37, 19.2-289, 19.2-290, 19.2-386.16, and 29.1-553 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted and that the Code of Virginia is amended by adding a section numbered 18.2-97.2 as follows:

§ 18.2-23. Conspiring to trespass or commit larceny.

A. If any person shall conspire, confederate or combine with another or others in the Commonwealth to go upon or remain upon the lands, buildings or premises of another, or any part, portion or area thereof, having knowledge that any of them have been forbidden, either orally or in writing, to do so by the owner, lessee, custodian or other person lawfully in charge thereof, or having knowledge that any of them have been forbidden to do so by a sign or signs posted on such lands, buildings, premises or part, portion or area thereof at a place or places where it or they may reasonably be seen, he shall be deemed guilty of a Class 3 misdemeanor.

B. If any person shall conspire, confederate or combine with another or others in the Commonwealth to commit larceny or counsel, assist, aid or abet another in the performance of a larceny, where the aggregate value of the goods or merchandise involved is $1,000 $500 or more, he is guilty of a felony punishable by confinement in a state correctional facility for not less than one year nor more than 20 years. The willful concealment of goods or merchandise of any store or other mercantile establishment, while still on the premises thereof, shall be prima facie evidence of an intent to convert and defraud the owner thereof out of the value of the goods or merchandise. A violation of this subsection constitutes a separate and distinct felony.

C. Jurisdiction for the trial of any person charged under this section shall be in the county or city wherein any part of such conspiracy is planned, or in the county or city wherein any act is done toward the consummation of such plan or conspiracy.

§ 18.2-80. Burning or destroying any other building or structure.

If any person maliciously, or with intent to defraud an insurance company or other person, burn, or by the use of any explosive device or substance, maliciously destroy, in whole or in part, or cause to be burned or destroyed, or aid, counsel or procure the burning or destruction of any building, bridge, lock, dam or other structure, whether the property of himself or of another, at a time when any person is therein or thereon, the burning or destruction whereof is not punishable under any other section of this chapter, he shall be guilty of a Class 3 felony. If he commits such offense at a time when no person is in such building, or other structure, and such building, or other structure, with the property therein, be of the value of $1,000 $500 or more, he shall be guilty of a Class 4 felony, and if it and the property therein be of less value, he shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

§ 18.2-81. Burning or destroying personal property, standing grain, etc.

If any person maliciously, or with intent to defraud an insurance company or other person, set fire to or burn or destroy by any explosive device or substance, or cause to be burned, or destroyed by any explosive device or substance, or aid, counsel, or procure the burning or destroying by any explosive device or substance, of any personal property, standing grain or other crop, he shall, if the thing burnt or destroyed be of the value of $1,000 $500 or more, be guilty of a Class 4 felony; and if the thing burnt or destroyed be of less value, he shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

§ 18.2-95. Grand larceny defined; how punished.

Any person who (i) commits larceny from the person of another of money or other thing of value of $5 or more, (ii) commits simple larceny not from the person of another of goods and chattels of the

INTRODUCED

HB107

59 value of ~~$1,000~~ $500 or more, or (iii) commits simple larceny not from the person of another of any 60 firearm, regardless of the firearm's value, shall be guilty of grand larceny, punishable by imprisonment
61 in a state correctional facility for not less than one nor more than 20 years or, in the discretion of the 62 jury or court trying the case without a jury, be confined in jail for a period not exceeding 12 months or 63 fined not more than $2,500, either or both.

64 § 18.2-96. Petit larceny defined; how punished.

65 Any person who:

- 66 1. Commits larceny from the person of another of money or other thing of value of less than $5, or
- 67 2. Commits simple larceny not from the person of another of goods and chattels of the value of less 68 than ~~$1,000~~ $500, except as provided in clause (iii) of § 18.2-95, shall be deemed guilty of petit larceny,
69 which shall be punishable as a Class 1 misdemeanor.

70 The punishment for the petit larceny of a package delivered to a residence shall include a mandatory 71 minimum term of confinement of 10 days.

72 § 18.2-96.1. Identification of certain personalty.

73 A. The owner of personal property may permanently mark such property, including any part thereof,
74 for the purpose of identification with the social security number of the owner, preceded by the letters
75 "VA."

76 B. [Repealed.]

77 C. It shall be unlawful for any person to remove, alter, deface, destroy, conceal, or otherwise obscure
78 the manufacturer's serial number or marks, including personalty marked with a social security number
79 preceded by the letters "VA," from such personal property or any part thereof, without the consent of 80 the owner, with intent to render it or other property unidentifiable.

81 D. It shall be unlawful for any person to possess such personal property or any part thereof, without 82 the consent of the owner, knowing that the manufacturer's serial number or any other distinguishing 83 identification number or mark, including personalty marked with a social security number preceded by 84 the letters "VA," has been removed, altered, defaced, destroyed, concealed, or otherwise obscured with 85 the intent to violate the provisions of this section.

86 E. A person in possession of such property which is otherwise in violation of this section may apply
87 in writing to the Bureau of Criminal Investigation, Virginia State Police, for assignment of a number for 88 the personal property providing he can show that he is the lawful owner of the property. If a number is 89 issued in conformity with the provisions of this section, then the person to whom it was issued and any 90 person to whom the property is lawfully disposed of shall not be in violation of this section. This 91 subsection shall apply only when the application has been filed by a person prior to arrest or 92 authorization of a warrant of arrest for that person by a court.

93 F. Any person convicted of an offense under this section, when the value of the personalty is less
94 than ~~$1,000~~ $500, shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor and, when the value of the personalty is 95 ~~$1,000~~ $500 or more, shall be guilty of a Class 5 felony.

96 § 18.2-97. Larceny of certain animals and poultry.

97 Any person who shall be guilty of the larceny of a dog, horse, pony, mule, cow, steer, bull, or calf
98 shall be guilty of a Class 5 felony, and any person who shall be guilty of the larceny of any poultry of 99 the value of $5 or more, but of the value of less than ~~$1,000~~ $500, or of a sheep, lamb, swine, or goat,
100 of the value of less than ~~$1,000~~ $500, shall be guilty of a Class 6 felony.

101 § 18.2-97.2. Larceny of a catalytic converter from a motor vehicle; penalty.

102 Any person who commits larceny of a catalytic converter from a motor vehicle, regardless of the 103 catalytic converter's value, is guilty of a Class 6 felony.

104 § 18.2-102. Unauthorized use of animal, aircraft, vehicle or boat; consent; accessories or 105 accomplices.

106 Any person who shall take, drive or use any animal, aircraft, vehicle, boat or vessel, not his own,
107 without the consent of the owner thereof and in the absence of the owner, and with intent temporarily to 108 deprive the owner thereof of his possession thereof, without intent to steal the same, shall be guilty of a
109 Class 6 felony, provided, however, that if the value of such animal, aircraft, vehicle, boat or vessel shall 110 be less than ~~$1,000~~ $500, such person shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor. The consent of the 111 owner of an animal, aircraft, vehicle, boat or vessel to its taking, driving or using shall not in any case
112 be presumed or implied because of such owner's consent on a previous occasion to the taking, driving or 113 using of such animal, aircraft, vehicle, boat or vessel by the same or a different person. Any person who 114 assists in, or is a party or accessory to, or an accomplice in, any such unauthorized taking, driving or 115 using shall be subject to the same punishment as if he were the principal offender.

116 § 18.2-103. Concealing or taking possession of merchandise; altering price tags; transferring
117 goods from one container to another; counseling, etc., another in performance of such acts.

118 Whoever, without authority, with the intention of converting goods or merchandise to his own or 119 another's use without having paid the full purchase price thereof, or of defrauding the owner of the 120 value of the goods or merchandise, (i) willfully conceals or takes possession of the goods or merchandise of any store or other mercantile establishment, or (ii) alters the price tag or other price marking on such goods or merchandise, or transfers the goods from one container to another, or (iii) counsels, assists, aids or abets another in the performance of any of the above acts, when the value of the goods or merchandise involved in the offense is less than $1,000 $500, shall be guilty of petit larceny and, when the value of the goods or merchandise involved in the offense is $1,000 $500 or more, shall be guilty of grand larceny. The willful concealment of goods or merchandise of any store or other mercantile establishment, while still on the premises thereof, shall be prima facie evidence of an intent to convert and defraud the owner thereof out of the value of the goods or merchandise.

§ 18.2-108.01. Larceny with intent to sell or distribute; sale of stolen property; penalty.

A. Any person who commits larceny of property with a value of $1,000 $500 or more with the intent to sell or distribute such property is guilty of a felony punishable by confinement in a state correctional facility for not less than two years nor more than 20 years. The larceny of more than one item of the same product is prima facie evidence of intent to sell or intent to distribute for sale.

B. Any person who sells, attempts to sell or possesses with intent to sell or distribute any stolen property with an aggregate value of $1,000 $500 or more where he knew or should have known that the property was stolen is guilty of a Class 5 felony.

C. A violation of this section constitutes a separate and distinct offense.

§ 18.2-145.1. Damaging or destroying research farm product; penalty; restitution.

A. Any person or entity that (i) maliciously damages or destroys any farm product, as defined in § 3.2-4709, and (ii) knows the product is grown for testing or research purposes in the context of product development in conjunction or coordination with a private research facility or a baccalaureate institution of higher education or any federal, state, or local government agency is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor if the value of the farm product was less than $1,000 $500, or a Class 6 felony if the value of the farm product was $1,000 $500 or more.

B. The court shall order the defendant to make restitution in accordance with § 19.2-305.1 for the damage or destruction caused. For the purpose of awarding restitution under this section, the court shall determine the market value of the farm product prior to its damage or destruction and, in so doing, shall include the cost of: (i) production, (ii) research, (iii) testing, (iv) replacement, and (v) product development directly related to the product damaged or destroyed.

§ 18.2-146. Breaking, injuring, defacing, destroying or preventing the operation of vehicle, aircraft or boat.

Any person who shall individually or in association with one or more others willfully break, injure, tamper with or remove any part or parts of any vehicle, aircraft, boat or vessel for the purpose of injuring, defacing or destroying said vehicle, aircraft, boat or vessel, or temporarily or permanently preventing its useful operation, or for any purpose against the will or without the consent of the owner of such vehicle, aircraft, boat or vessel, or who shall in any other manner willfully or maliciously interfere with or prevent the running or operation of such vehicle, aircraft, boat or vessel, ~~shall be~~ is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor, unless such violation of this section caused damage to such vehicle, aircraft, boat, or vessel of $500 or more, then he is guilty of a Class 6 felony.

§ 18.2-150. Willfully destroying vessel, etc.

If any person willfully scuttle, cast away or otherwise dispose of, or in any manner destroy, except as otherwise provided, a ship, vessel or other watercraft, with intent to injure or defraud any owner thereof or of any property on board the same, or any insurer of such ship, vessel or other watercraft, or any part thereof, or of any such property on board the same, if the same be of the value of $1,000 $500 or more, he shall be guilty of a Class 4 felony, but if it be of less value than $1,000 $500, he shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

§ 18.2-152.3. Computer fraud; penalty.

Any person who uses a computer or computer network, without authority and:

1. Obtains property or services by false pretenses;
2. Embezzles or commits larceny; or
3. Converts the property of another;

is guilty of the crime of computer fraud.

If the value of the property or services obtained is $1,000 $500 or more, the crime of computer fraud shall be punishable as a Class 5 felony. Where the value of the property or services obtained is less than $1,000 $500, the crime of computer fraud shall be punishable as a Class 1 misdemeanor.

§ 18.2-162. Damage or trespass to public services or utilities.

Any person who shall intentionally destroy or damage any facility which is used to furnish oil, telegraph, telephone, electric, gas, sewer, wastewater or water service to the public, shall be guilty of a Class 4 felony, provided that in the event that the destruction or damage may be remedied or repaired for less than $1,000 $500 such act shall constitute a Class 3 misdemeanor. On electric generating property marked with no trespassing signs, the security personnel of a utility may detain a trespasser for 182 a period not to exceed one hour pending arrival of a law-enforcement officer.

183 Notwithstanding any other provisions of this title, any person who shall intentionally destroy or 184 damage, or attempt to destroy or damage, any such facility, equipment or material connected therewith,
185 the destruction or damage of which might, in any manner, threaten the release of radioactive materials
186 or ionizing radiation beyond the areas in which they are normally used or contained, shall be guilty of a
187 Class 4 felony, provided that in the event the destruction or damage results in the death of another due
188 to exposure to radioactive materials or ionizing radiation, such person shall be guilty of a Class 2
189 felony; provided further, that in the event the destruction or damage results in injury to another, such 190 person shall be guilty of a Class 3 felony.

191 § 18.2-181. Issuing bad checks, etc., larceny.

192 Any person who, with intent to defraud, shall make or draw or utter or deliver any check, draft, or 193 order for the payment of money, upon any bank, banking institution, trust company, or other depository,
194 knowing, at the time of such making, drawing, uttering or delivering, that the maker or drawer has not 195 sufficient funds in, or credit with, such bank, banking institution, trust company, or other depository, for 196 the payment of such check, draft or order, although no express representation is made in reference
197 thereto, shall be guilty of larceny; and, if this check, draft, or order has a represented value of $1,000
198 $500 or more, such person shall be guilty of a Class 6 felony. In cases in which such value is less than 199 $1,000 $500, the person shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

200 The word "credit" as used herein, shall be construed to mean any arrangement or understanding with 201 the bank, trust company, or other depository for the payment of such check, draft or order.

202 Any person making, drawing, uttering or delivering any such check, draft or order in payment as a 203 present consideration for goods or services for the purposes set out in this section shall be guilty as 204 provided herein.

205 § 18.2-181.1. Issuance of bad checks.

206 It shall be a Class 6 felony for any person, within a period of 90 days, to issue two or more checks,
207 drafts or orders for the payment of money in violation of § 18.2-181 that have an aggregate represented
208 value of $1,000 $500 or more and that (i) are drawn upon the same account of any bank, banking 209 institution, trust company or other depository and (ii) are made payable to the same person, firm or 210 corporation.

211 § 18.2-182. Issuing bad checks on behalf of business firm or corporation in payment of wages;
212 penalty.

213 Any person who shall make, draw, or utter, or deliver any check, draft, or order for the payment of 214 money, upon any bank, banking institution, trust company or other depository on behalf of any business 215 firm or corporation, for the purpose of paying wages to any employee of such firm or corporation, or 216 for the purpose of paying for any labor performed by any person for such firm or corporation, knowing,
217 at the time of such making, drawing, uttering or delivering, that the account upon which such check,
218 draft or order is drawn has not sufficient funds, or credit with, such bank, banking institution, trust
219 company or other depository, for the payment of such check, draft or order, although no express
220 representation is made in reference thereto, shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor; except that if this 221 check, draft, or order has a represented value of $1,000 $500 or more, such person shall be guilty of a
222 Class 6 felony.

223 The word "credit," as used herein, shall be construed to mean any arrangement or understanding with 224 the bank, banking institution, trust company, or other depository for the payment of such check, draft or 225 order.

226 In addition to the criminal penalty set forth herein, such person shall be personally liable in any civil 227 action brought upon such check, draft or order.

228 § 18.2-186. False statements to obtain property or credit.

229 A. A person shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor if he makes, causes to be made or conspires to 230 make directly, indirectly or through an agency, any materially false statement in writing, knowing it to 231 be false and intending that it be relied upon, concerning the financial condition or means or ability to 232 pay of himself, or of any other person for whom he is acting, or any firm or corporation in which he is 233 interested or for which he is acting, for the purpose of procuring, for his own benefit or for the benefit
234 of such person, firm or corporation, the delivery of personal property, the payment of cash, the making 235 of a loan or credit, the extension of a credit, the discount of an account receivable, or the making,
236 acceptance, discount, sale or endorsement of a bill of exchange or promissory note.

237 B. Any person who knows that a false statement has been made in writing concerning the financial 238 condition or ability to pay of himself or of any person for whom he is acting, or any firm or corporation
239 in which he is interested or for which he is acting and who, with intent to defraud, procures, upon the 240 faith thereof, for his own benefit, or for the benefit of the person, firm or corporation in which he is 241 interested or for which he is acting, any such delivery, payment, loan, credit, extension, discount
242 making, acceptance, sale or endorsement, shall, if the value of the thing or the amount of the loan,
243 credit or benefit obtained is $1,000 $500 or more, be guilty of grand larceny or, if the value is less than

$1,000 $500, be guilty of petit larceny.

C. Venue for the trial of any person charged with an offense under this section may be in the county or city in which (i) any act was performed in furtherance of the offense, or (ii) the person charged with the offense resided at the time of the offense.

D. As used in this section, "in writing" shall include information transmitted by computer, facsimile, e-mail, Internet, or any other electronic medium, and shall not include information transmitted by any such medium by voice transmission.

§ 18.2-186.3. Identity theft; penalty; restitution; victim assistance.

A. It shall be unlawful for any person, without the authorization or permission of the person or persons who are the subjects of the identifying information, with the intent to defraud, for his own use or the use of a third person, to:

1. Obtain, record, or access identifying information which is not available to the general public that would assist in accessing financial resources, obtaining identification documents, or obtaining benefits of such other person;

2. Obtain money, credit, loans, goods, or services through the use of identifying information of such other person;

3. Obtain identification documents in such other person's name; or

4. Obtain, record, or access identifying information while impersonating a law-enforcement officer or an official of the government of the Commonwealth.

B. It shall be unlawful for any person without the authorization or permission of the person who is the subject of the identifying information, with the intent to sell or distribute the information to another to:

1. Fraudulently obtain, record, or access identifying information that is not available to the general public that would assist in accessing financial resources, obtaining identification documents, or obtaining benefits of such other person;

2. Obtain money, credit, loans, goods, or services through the use of identifying information of such other person;

3. Obtain identification documents in such other person's name; or

4. Obtain, record, or access identifying information while impersonating a law-enforcement officer or an official of the Commonwealth.

B1. It shall be unlawful for any person to use identification documents or identifying information of another person, whether that person is dead or alive, or of a false or fictitious person, to avoid summons, arrest, prosecution, or to impede a criminal investigation.

C. As used in this section, "identifying information" shall include but not be limited to: (i) name; (ii) date of birth; (iii) social security number; (iv) driver's license number; (v) bank account numbers; (vi) credit or debit card numbers; (vii) personal identification numbers (PIN); (viii) electronic identification codes; (ix) automated or electronic signatures; (x) biometric data; (xi) fingerprints; (xii) passwords; or (xiii) any other numbers or information that can be used to access a person's financial resources, obtain identification, act as identification, or obtain money, credit, loans, goods, or services.

D. Violations of this section shall be punishable as a Class 1 misdemeanor. Any violation resulting in financial loss of $1,000 $500 or more shall be punishable as a Class 6 felony. Any second or subsequent conviction shall be punishable as a Class 6 felony. Any violation of subsection B where five or more persons' identifying information has been obtained, recorded, or accessed in the same transaction or occurrence shall be punishable as a Class 5 felony. Any violation of subsection B where 50 or more persons' identifying information has been obtained, recorded, or accessed in the same transaction or occurrence shall be punishable as a Class 4 felony. Any violation resulting in the arrest and detention of the person whose identification documents or identifying information were used to avoid summons, arrest, prosecution, or to impede a criminal investigation shall be punishable as a Class 5 felony. In any proceeding brought pursuant to this section, the crime shall be considered to have been committed in any locality where the person whose identifying information was appropriated resides, or in which any part of the offense took place, regardless of whether the defendant was ever actually in such locality.

E. Upon conviction, in addition to any other punishment, a person found guilty of this offense shall be ordered by the court to make restitution as the court deems appropriate to any person whose identifying information was appropriated or to the estate of such person. Such restitution may include the person's or his estate's actual expenses associated with correcting inaccuracies or errors in his credit report or other identifying information.

F. Upon the request of a person whose identifying information was appropriated, the Attorney General may provide assistance to the victim in obtaining information necessary to correct inaccuracies or errors in his credit report or other identifying information; however, no legal representation shall be afforded such person.

§ 18.2-187.1. Obtaining or attempting to obtain oil, electric, gas, water, telephone, telegraph, cable television or electronic communication service without payment; penalty; civil liability.

A. It shall be unlawful for any person knowingly, with the intent to defraud, to obtain or attempt to obtain, for himself or for another, oil, electric, gas, water, telephone, telegraph, cable television or electronic communication service by the use of any false information, or in any case where such service has been disconnected by the supplier and notice of disconnection has been given.

B. It shall be unlawful for any person to obtain or attempt to obtain oil, electric, gas, water, telephone, telegraph, cable television or electronic communication service by the use of any scheme, device, means or method, or by a false application for service with intent to avoid payment of lawful charges therefor.

B1. It shall be unlawful for any person to obtain, or attempt to obtain, electronic communication service as defined in § 18.2-190.1 by the use of an unlawful electronic communication device as defined in § 18.2-190.1.

C. The word "notice" as used in subsection A shall be notice given in writing to the person to whom the service was assigned. The sending of a notice in writing by registered or certified mail in the United States mail, duly stamped and addressed to such person at his last known address, requiring delivery to the addressee only with return receipt requested, and the actual signing of the receipt for such mail by the addressee, shall be prima facie evidence that such notice was duly received.

D. Any person who violates any provisions of this section, if the value of service, credit or benefit procured is ~~$1,000~~ $500 or more, shall be guilty of a Class 6 felony; or if the value is less than ~~$1,000~~ $500, shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor. In addition, the court may order restitution for the value of the services unlawfully used and for all costs. Such costs shall be limited to actual expenses, including the base wages of employees acting as witnesses for the Commonwealth, and suit costs. However, the total amount of allowable costs granted hereunder shall not exceed $250, excluding the value of the service.

E. Any party providing oil, electric, gas, water, telephone, telegraph, cable television or electronic communication service who is aggrieved by a violation of this section may, in a civil proceeding in any court of competent jurisdiction, seek both injunctive and equitable relief, and an award of damages, including attorney fees and costs. In addition to any other remedy provided by law, the party aggrieved may recover an award of actual damages or $500, whichever is greater, for each action.

§ 18.2-188. Defrauding hotels, motels, campgrounds, boardinghouses, etc.

It shall be unlawful for any person, without paying therefor, and with the intent to cheat or defraud the owner or keeper to:

1. Put up at a hotel, motel, campground or boardinghouse;
2. Obtain food from a restaurant or other eating house;
3. Gain entrance to an amusement park; or
4. Without having an express agreement for credit, procure food, entertainment or accommodation from any hotel, motel, campground, boardinghouse, restaurant, eating house or amusement park.

It shall be unlawful for any person, with intent to cheat or defraud the owner or keeper out of the pay therefor to obtain credit at a hotel, motel, campground, boardinghouse, restaurant or eating house for food, entertainment or accommodation by means of any false show of baggage or effects brought thereto.

It shall be unlawful for any person, with intent to cheat or defraud, to obtain credit at a hotel, motel, campground, boardinghouse, restaurant, eating house or amusement park for food, entertainment or accommodation through any misrepresentation or false statement.

It shall be unlawful for any person, with intent to cheat or defraud, to remove or cause to be removed any baggage or effects from a hotel, motel, campground, boardinghouse, restaurant or eating house while there is a lien existing thereon for the proper charges due from him for fare and board furnished.

Any person who violates any provision of this section is, if the value of service, credit or benefit procured or obtained is ~~$1,000~~ $500 or more, guilty of a Class 5 felony or is, if the value is less than ~~$1,000~~ $500, guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

§ 18.2-195. Credit card fraud; conspiracy; penalties.

(1) A person is guilty of credit card fraud when, with intent to defraud any person, he:

(a) Uses for the purpose of obtaining money, goods, services or anything else of value a credit card or credit card number obtained or retained in violation of § 18.2-192 or a credit card or credit card number which he knows is expired or revoked;

(b) Obtains money, goods, services or anything else of value by representing (i) without the consent of the cardholder that he is the holder of a specified card or credit card number or (ii) that he is the holder of a card or credit card number and such card or credit card number has not in fact been issued;

(c) Obtains control over a credit card or credit card number as security for debt; or

(d) Obtains money from an issuer by use of an unmanned device of the issuer or through a person other than the issuer when he knows that such advance will exceed his available credit with the issuer and any available balances held by the issuer.

(2) A person who is authorized by an issuer to furnish money, goods, services or anything else of value upon presentation of a credit card or credit card number by the cardholder, or any agent or employee of such person, is guilty of a credit card fraud when, with intent to defraud the issuer or the cardholder, he:

(a) Furnishes money, goods, services or anything else of value upon presentation of a credit card or credit card number obtained or retained in violation of § 18.2-192, or a credit card or credit card number which he knows is expired or revoked;

(b) Fails to furnish money, goods, services or anything else of value which he represents or causes to be represented in writing or by any other means to the issuer that he has furnished; or

(c) Remits to an issuer or acquirer a record of a credit card or credit card number transaction which is in excess of the monetary amount authorized by the cardholder.

(3) Conviction of credit card fraud is punishable as a Class 1 misdemeanor if the value of all money, goods, services and other things of value furnished in violation of this section, or if the difference between the value of all money, goods, services and anything else of value actually furnished and the value represented to the issuer to have been furnished in violation of this section, is less than $1,000 $500 in any six-month period; conviction of credit card fraud is punishable as a Class 6 felony if such value is $1,000 $500 or more in any six-month period.

(4) Any person who conspires, confederates or combines with another, (i) either within or without the Commonwealth to commit credit card fraud within the Commonwealth or (ii) within the Commonwealth to commit credit card fraud within or without the Commonwealth, is guilty of a Class 6 felony.

§ 18.2-195.2. Fraudulent application for credit card; penalties.

A. A person shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor if he makes, causes to be made or conspires to make, directly, indirectly or through an agency, any materially false statement in writing concerning the financial condition or means or ability to pay of himself or of any other person for whom he is acting or any firm or corporation in which he is interested or for which he is acting, knowing the statement to be false and intending that it be relied upon for the purpose of procuring a credit card. However, if the statement is made in response to an unrequested written solicitation from the issuer or an agent of the issuer to apply for a credit card, he shall be guilty of a Class 4 misdemeanor.

B. A person who knows that a false statement has been made in writing concerning the financial condition or ability to pay of himself or of any person for whom he is acting or any firm or corporation in which he is interested or for which he is acting and who with intent to defraud, procures a credit card, upon the faith of such false statement, for his own benefit, or for the benefit of the person, firm or corporation in which he is interested or for which he is acting, and obtains by use of the credit card, money, property, services or any thing of value, is guilty of grand larceny if the value of whatever is obtained is $1,000 $500 or more or petit larceny if the value is less than $1,000 $500.

C. As used in this section, "in writing" shall include information transmitted by computer, facsimile, e-mail, Internet, or any other electronic medium, and shall not include information transmitted by any such medium by voice transmission.

§ 18.2-197. Criminally receiving goods and services fraudulently obtained.

A person is guilty of criminally receiving goods and services fraudulently obtained when he receives money, goods, services or anything else of value obtained in violation of subsection (1) of § 18.2-195 with the knowledge or belief that the same were obtained in violation of subsection (1) of § 18.2-195. Conviction of criminal receipt of goods and services fraudulently obtained is punishable as a Class 1 misdemeanor if the value of all money, goods, services and anything else of value, obtained in violation of this section, is less than $1,000 $500 in any six-month period; conviction of criminal receipt of goods and services fraudulently obtained is punishable as a Class 6 felony if such value is $1,000 $500 or more in any six-month period.

§ 18.2-340.37. Criminal penalties.

A. Any person who violates the provisions of this article or who willfully and knowingly files, or causes to be filed, a false application, report or other document or who willfully and knowingly makes a false statement, or causes a false statement to be made, on any application, report or other document required to be filed with or made to the Department shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

B. Each day in violation shall constitute a separate offense.

C. Any person who converts funds derived from any charitable gaming to his own or another's use, when the amount of funds is less than $1,000 $500, shall be guilty of petit larceny and, when the amount of funds is $1,000 $500 or more, shall be guilty of grand larceny. The provisions of this section shall not preclude the applicability of any other provision of the criminal law of the Commonwealth that may apply to any course of conduct that violates this section.

§ 19.2-289. Conviction of petit larceny.

In a prosecution for grand larceny, if it be found that the thing stolen is of less value than $1,000 $500, the jury may find the accused guilty of petit larceny.

§ 19.2-290. Conviction of petit larceny though thing stolen worth $1,000 or more.

In a prosecution for petit larceny, though the thing stolen be of the value of $1,000 $500 or more, the jury may find the accused guilty, and upon a conviction under this section or § 19.2-289 the accused shall be sentenced for petit larceny.

§ 19.2-386.16. Forfeiture of motor vehicles used in commission of certain crimes.

A. Any vehicle knowingly used by the owner thereof or used by another with his knowledge of and during the commission of, or in an attempt to commit, a second or subsequent offense of § 18.2-346, 18.2-346.01, 18.2-347, 18.2-348, 18.2-348.1, 18.2-349, 18.2-355, 18.2-356 or 18.2-357 or of a similar ordinance of any county, city or town or knowingly used for the transportation of any stolen goods, chattels or other property, when the value of such stolen goods, chattels or other property is $1,000 $500 or more, or any stolen property obtained as a result of a robbery, without regard to the value of the property, shall be forfeited to the Commonwealth. The vehicle shall be seized by any law-enforcement officer arresting the operator of such vehicle for the criminal offense, and delivered to the sheriff of the county or city in which the offense occurred. The officer shall take a receipt therefor.

B. Any vehicle knowingly used by the owner thereof or used by another with his knowledge of and during the commission of, or in an attempt to commit, a misdemeanor violation of subsection D of § 18.2-47 or a felony violation of (i) Article 3 (§ 18.2-47 et seq.) of Chapter 4 of Title 18.2 or (ii) § 18.2-357 where the prostitute is a minor, shall be forfeited to the Commonwealth. The vehicle shall be seized by any law-enforcement officer arresting the operator of such vehicle for the criminal offense, and delivered to the sheriff of the county or city in which the offense occurred. The officer shall take a receipt therefor.

C. Forfeiture of such vehicle shall be enforced as is provided in Chapter 22.1 (§ 19.2-386.1 et seq.).

§ 29.1-553. Selling or offering for sale; penalty.

A. Any person who offers for sale, sells, offers to purchase, or purchases any wild bird or wild animal, or any part thereof, or any freshwater fish, except as provided by law, shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor. However, when the aggregate of such sales or purchases, or any combination thereof, by any person totals $1,000 $500 or more during any 90-day period, that person shall be guilty of a Class 6 felony.

B. Whether or not criminal charges have been placed, when any property is taken possession of by a conservation police officer for the purpose of being used as evidence of a violation of this section or for confiscation, the conservation police officer making such seizure shall immediately report the seizure to the Attorney for the Commonwealth.

C. In any prosecution for a violation of this section, photographs of the wild bird, wild animal, or any freshwater fish, or any part thereof shall be deemed competent evidence of such wild bird, wild animal, or freshwater fish, or part thereof and shall be admissible in any proceeding, hearing, or trial of the case to the same extent as if such wild bird, wild animal, or any freshwater fish, or part thereof had been introduced as evidence. Such photographs shall bear a written description of the wild bird, wild animal, or freshwater fish, or parts thereof, the name of the place where the alleged offense occurred, the date on which the alleged offense occurred, the name of the accused, the name of the arresting officer or investigating officer, the date of the photograph, and the name of the photographer. The photographs shall be identified by the signature of the photographer.

D. Any licensed Virginia auctioneer or licensed auction firm that sells, as a legitimate item of an auction sale, wildlife mounts that have undergone the taxidermy process, shall be exempt from the provisions of this section and subdivision A 11 of § 29.1-521.

2. That the provisions of this act may result in a net increase in periods of imprisonment or commitment. Pursuant to § 30-19.1:4 of the Code of Virginia, the estimated amount of the necessary appropriation is at least $3,829,684 for periods of imprisonment in state adult correctional facilities and cannot be determined for periods of commitment to the custody of the Department of Juvenile Justice.
