Patrons—Gooditis, Clark, Hope, Maldonado and Rasoul

Referred to Committee on Rules

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That the Code of Virginia is amended by adding in Title 30 a chapter numbered 64, consisting of sections numbered 30-409 through 30-416, as follows:

CHAPTER 64.COMMISSION ON SOCIAL MEDIA.*§ 30-409. Commission on Social Media; purpose.

The Commission on Social Media (the Commission) is established in the legislative branch of state government. The purpose of the Commission is to (i) examine impacts and harms to citizens caused by social media platforms hosting or amplifying content that includes threats or suggestions of physical violence or danger toward citizens, institutions, groups, associations, or physical structures of the Commonwealth, especially content that pertains to homicide, suicide, sexual assault, insurrection, or mass violence; threats to the advancement of public health; threats to the safety and integrity of elections; or threats to the safety of elected officials, by (a) studying the impact of dangerous and violent rhetoric, threats, harassment, doxing, intimidation, misinformation, disinformation, defamation, and deceptive practices and (b) studying the impact of certain practices by social media companies such as algorithmic amplification and targeted advertising; (ii) facilitate cooperation between researchers and social media companies, including sharing data and other resources especially to examine violent rhetoric online; and (iii) make legislative and policy recommendations to better protect citizens and institutions, groups, associations, and physical structures of the Commonwealth from harms, especially physical danger, caused by content on social media platforms or social media company practices identified by the Commission.

§ 30-410. Membership; terms; vacancies; chairman and vice-chairman.

The Commission shall consist of 20 members that include eight legislative members, six nonlegislative citizen members, and six ex officio members. Members shall be appointed as follows: five members of the House of Delegates to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Delegates in accordance with the principles of proportional representation contained in the Rules of the House of Delegates; three members of the Senate to be appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules; three nonlegislative citizen members, one of whom shall have expertise in the impacts of social media on government and governance from an academic perspective, one of whom shall have significant background in social media policy from a civil society or journalist perspective, and one of whom may be a current or former member of law enforcement who has expertise in social media and criminal threats and violence, to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Delegates; three nonlegislative citizen members, one of whom shall have expertise in how violent rhetoric online may influence violent actions offline, one of whom shall be a representative of a large social media company, and one of whom may have legal expertise on social media and the First Amendment to the United States Constitution, to be appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules; and Virginia's Chief Data Officer, the Chairman of the Board of Elections, the Secretary of Public Safety and Homeland Security, the Secretary of Health and Human Services, the Secretary of Commerce and Trade, and the Director of the Department of Criminal Justice Services, or their designees, who shall serve ex officio with nonvoting privileges. Nonlegislative citizen members of the Commission shall be citizens of the Commonwealth of Virginia. Unless otherwise approved in writing by the chairman of the Commission and the respective Clerk, nonlegislative citizen members shall only be reimbursed for travel originating and ending within the Commonwealth of Virginia for the purpose of attending meetings.

Legislative members and ex officio members of the Commission shall serve terms coincident with their terms of office. Nonlegislative citizen members shall be appointed for a term of two years. Appointments to fill vacancies, other than by expiration of a term, shall be for the unexpired terms. Legislative members and nonlegislative citizen members may be reappointed. However, no nonlegislative citizen member shall serve more than four consecutive two-year terms. The remainder of any term to which a member is appointed to fill a vacancy shall not constitute a term in determining the member's eligibility for reappointment. Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointments.
