§ 64.2-2009. Court order of appointment; limited guardianships and conservatorships.

A. B. The court may appoint a limited guardian for an incapacitated person who is capable of addressing some of the essential requirements for his care for the limited purpose of medical decision making, decisions about place of residency, or other specific decisions regarding his personal affairs. The court may appoint a limited conservator for an incapacitated person who is capable of managing some of his property and financial affairs for limited purposes that are specified in the order.

C. Unless the guardian has a professional relationship with the incapacitated person or is employed by or affiliated with a facility where the person resides, the court's order may authorize the guardian to consent to the admission of the person to a facility pursuant to § 37.2-805.1, upon finding by clear and convincing evidence that (i) the person has severe and persistent mental illness that significantly impairs the person's capacity to exercise judgment or self-control, as confirmed by the evaluation of a licensed psychiatrist; (ii) such condition is unlikely to improve in the foreseeable future; and (iii) the guardian has formulated a plan for providing ongoing treatment of the person's illness in the least restrictive setting suitable for the person's condition.

D. A guardian need not be appointed for a person who has appointed an agent under an advance directive executed in accordance with the provisions of Article 8 (§ 54.1-2981 et seq.) of Chapter 29 of Title 54.1, unless the court determines that the agent is not acting in accordance with the wishes of the principal or there is a need for decision making outside the purview of the advance directive.

A conservator need not be appointed for a person (i) who has appointed an agent under a durable power of attorney, unless the court determines pursuant to the Uniform Power of Attorney Act (§ 64.2-1600 et seq.) that the agent is not acting in the best interests of the principal or there is a need for decision making outside the purview of the durable power of attorney or (ii) whose only or major source of income is from the Social Security Administration or other government program and who has a representative payee.

75 the incapacitated person.

76 B. A guardian's duties and authority shall not extend to decisions addressed in a valid advance

78 seek court authorization to revoke, suspend, or otherwise modify a durable power of attorney, as

80 the Health Care Decisions Act (§ 54.1-2981 et seq.) and in accordance with the procedures of 81 § 64.2-2012, a guardian may seek court authorization to modify the designation of an agent under an

91 decisions, to act on his own behalf, and to develop or regain the capacity to manage personal affairs. A
92 guardian, in making decisions, shall consider the expressed desires and personal values of the
93 incapacitated person to the extent known and shall otherwise act in the incapacitated person's best
94 interest and exercise reasonable care, diligence, and prudence. A guardian shall not ~~unreasonably~~ restrict
95 an incapacitated person's ability to communicate with, visit, or interact with other persons with whom

103 make arrangements for the funeral and disposition of remains after the death of an incapacitated person
104 if, after the guardian has made a good faith effort to locate the next of kin of the incapacitated person to 105 determine if the next of kin wishes to make such arrangements, the next of kin does not wish to make 106 the arrangements or the next of kin cannot be located. Good faith effort shall include contacting the next

111 decisions, or omissions resulted from bad faith or malicious intent.

112 § 64.2-2019.1. Procedures to restrict communication, visitation, or interaction.

113 A. A guardian may restrict an incapacitated person's ability to communicate with, visit, or interact 114 with other persons with whom the incapacitated person has an established relationship only when such 115 restriction is reasonable to prevent physical, mental, or emotional harm to or financial exploitation of 116 such person. Any such restrictions imposed shall be the least restrictive means possible to prevent any 117 such harm or exploitation.

118 B. The guardian shall provide written notice to the restricted person, on a form developed by the 119 Office of the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia, stating (i) the nature and terms of 120 the restriction, (ii) the reasons why the guardian believes the restriction is necessary, and (iii) how the restricted person may challenge such restriction in court. The guardian shall inform the incapacitated person of such restriction, unless the guardian has a good faith belief that such information would be detrimental to the health or safety of such incapacitated person and shall forward a copy of such written notice to the local department of social services of the jurisdiction where the incapacitated person resides.

C. Any restricted person, by means of the form described in subsection B or by separate motion, may move to terminate or modify any such restriction. A hearing held pursuant to this subsection shall be held within 45 days of return of such form to the court or filing of such motion with the court.

D. If the court finds that a restriction is reasonable to prevent physical, mental, or emotional harm to or financial exploitation of such incapacitated person, the court may continue or modify such restriction in its discretion.

E. If the court does not find that a restriction is reasonable to prevent, physical, mental, or emotional harm to or financial exploitation of such incapacitated person, the court may issue an order terminating, continuing, or modifying any restriction the guardian imposed on the person challenging such restriction.

F. If the court finds that a guardian imposed restrictions or filed a motion under this section in bad faith, primarily for the purposes of harassment, or clearly frivolous or vexatious, the court may require the guardian to pay or reimburse the restricted person all or some of the costs and fees, including attorney fees, incurred by the restricted person in connection with such motion.

G. If the court finds that the claim of a restricted person who filed a motion pursuant to this section was brought in bad faith, primarily for the purposes of harassment, or clearly frivolous or vexatious, the court may require such restricted person to pay or reimburse the guardian all of some of the costs and fees, including attorney fees, incurred by the guardian in connection with such motion.

H. Any order issued pursuant to subsections D, E, or F shall be forwarded to the incapacitated person subject to the guardianship and the local department of social services of the jurisdiction where the incapacitated person resides.
