HOUSE BILL NO. 1333

House Amendments in [] — February 10, 2022

A BILL to amend and reenact § 23.1-506, as it is currently effective and as it shall become effective, of the Code of Virginia, relating to public institutions of higher education; in-state tuition; children of active duty service members or veterans.

Patron Prior to Engrossment—Delegate Cordoza

Referred to Committee on Education

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 23.1-506, as it is currently effective and as it shall become effective, of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 23.1-506. (Effective until August 1, 2022) Eligibility for in-state tuition; exception; certain out-of-state and high school students.

A. Notwithstanding § 23.1-502 or any other provision of law to the contrary, the following students are eligible for in-state tuition charges regardless of domicile:

1. Any non-Virginia student who resides outside the Commonwealth and has been employed full time in the Commonwealth for at least one year immediately prior to the date of the alleged entitlement if such student has paid Virginia income taxes on all taxable income earned in the Commonwealth for the tax year prior to the date of the alleged entitlement. Such student shall continue to be eligible for in-state tuition charges for so long as the student is employed full time in the Commonwealth and the student pays Virginia income taxes on all taxable income earned in the Commonwealth.

2. Any non-Virginia student who resides outside the Commonwealth and is claimed as a dependent for federal and Virginia income tax purposes if the nonresident parent claiming the student as a dependent has been employed full time in the Commonwealth for at least one year immediately prior to the date of the alleged entitlement and paid Virginia income taxes on all taxable income earned in the Commonwealth for the tax year prior to the date of the alleged entitlement. Such student shall continue to be eligible for in-state tuition charges for so long as his qualifying parent is employed full time in the Commonwealth, pays Virginia income taxes on all taxable income earned in the Commonwealth, and claims the student as a dependent for Virginia and federal income tax purposes.

3. Any active duty member, activated guard or reserve member, or guard or reserve member mobilized or on temporary active orders for 180 days or more who resides in the Commonwealth.

4. Any veteran who resides in the Commonwealth.

5. Any surviving spouse who resides in the Commonwealth.

6. Following completion of active duty service, any non-Virginia student who established domicile before being called to active duty in the National Guard of another state if during such active duty he maintained at least one of the following in the Commonwealth: a driver's license, motor vehicle registration, voter registration, employment, property ownership, or sources of financial support.

7. Any member of the foreign service office who resided in the Commonwealth for at least 90 days immediately prior to receiving a foreign service assignment and who continues to be assigned overseas, and any dependents of such member.

8. Any child of an active duty member or veteran who claims Virginia as his home state and filed Virginia tax returns for at least ~~10~~ [~~four~~ four] years during active duty service.

9. Any individual who (i) was admitted to the United States as a refugee under 8 U.S.C. § 1157 within the previous two calendar years or (ii) received a Special Immigrant Visa that has been granted a status under P.L. 110-181 § 1244, P.L. 109-163 § 1059, or P.L. 11-8 § 602 within the previous two calendar years and, upon entering the United States, resided in the Commonwealth and continues to reside in the Commonwealth as a refugee or pursuant to such Special Immigrant Visa.

10. Any student who (i) attended high school for at least two years in the Commonwealth and either (a) graduated on or after July 1, 2008, from a public or private high school or program of home instruction in the Commonwealth or (b) passed on or after July 1, 2008, a high school equivalency examination approved by the Secretary of Education; (ii) has submitted evidence that he or, in the case of a dependent student, at least one parent, guardian, or person standing in loco parentis has filed, unless exempted by state law, Virginia income tax returns for at least two years prior to the date of registration or enrollment; and (iii) registers as an entering student or is enrolled in a public institution of higher education in the Commonwealth. Students who meet these criteria shall be eligible for in-state tuition regardless of their citizenship or immigration status, except that students with currently valid visas issued under 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(F), 1101(a)(15)(H)(iii), 1101(a)(15)(J)(including only students or trainees),

59 or 1101(a)(15)(M) are not eligible. Information obtained in the implementation of this subdivision shall 60 only be used or disclosed to individuals other than the student for purposes of determining in-state
61 tuition eligibility.

62 Any non-Virginia student granted in-state tuition pursuant to this subsection shall be counted as a
63 Virginia student for the purposes of determining college admissions, enrollment, and tuition and fee
64 revenue policies.

65 B. Notwithstanding the provisions of § 23.1-502 or any other provision of law to the contrary, the
66 governing board of any public institution of higher education may charge in-state tuition to the
67 following students regardless of domicile:

68 1. Any non-Virginia student enrolled in one of the institution's programs designated by the Council
69 who (i) is entitled to reduced tuition charges at the institutions of higher education in any other state
70 that is a party to the Southern Regional Education Compact and that has similar reciprocal provisions
71 for Virginia students and (ii) is domiciled in such other state;

72 2. Any non-Virginia student from a foreign country who is enrolled in a foreign exchange program
73 approved by the institution of higher education during the same period in which a Virginia student from
74 such institution is attending such foreign institution as an exchange student; and

75 3. Any high school or magnet school student, not otherwise qualified for in-state tuition, who is
76 enrolled in courses specifically designed as part of the high school or magnet school curriculum in a
77 comprehensive community college for which he may, upon successful completion, receive high school
78 and college credit pursuant to a dual enrollment agreement between the high school or magnet school
79 and the comprehensive community college.

80 Any non-Virginia student granted in-state tuition pursuant to this subsection shall be counted as a
81 non-Virginia student for the purposes of determining college admissions, enrollment, and tuition and fee
82 revenue policies.

83 C. The State Board shall charge in-state tuition to any non-Virginia student enrolled at a
84 comprehensive community college who resides in another state within a 30-mile radius of a public
85 institution of higher education in the Commonwealth, is domiciled in such other state, and is entitled to
86 in-state tuition charges at the institutions of higher education in any state that is contiguous to the
87 Commonwealth and that has similar reciprocal provisions for Virginia students.

88 Any non-Virginia student granted in-state tuition pursuant to this subsection shall be counted as a
89 Virginia student for the purposes of determining college admissions, enrollment, and tuition and fee
90 revenue policies.

91 § 23.1-506. (Effective August 1, 2022) Eligibility for in-state tuition; exception; certain
92 out-of-state and high school students.

93 A. Notwithstanding § 23.1-502 or any other provision of law to the contrary, the following students
94 are eligible for in-state tuition charges regardless of domicile:

95 1. Any non-Virginia student who resides outside the Commonwealth and has been employed full
96 time in the Commonwealth for at least one year immediately prior to the date of the alleged entitlement
97 if such student has paid Virginia income taxes on all taxable income earned in the Commonwealth for
98 the tax year prior to the date of the alleged entitlement. Such student shall continue to be eligible for 99 in-state tuition charges for so long as the student is employed full time in the Commonwealth and the 100 student pays Virginia income taxes on all taxable income earned in the Commonwealth.

101 2. Any non-Virginia student who resides outside the Commonwealth and is claimed as a dependent
102 for federal and Virginia income tax purposes if the nonresident parent claiming the student as a
103 dependent has been employed full time in the Commonwealth for at least one year immediately prior to 104 the date of the alleged entitlement and paid Virginia income taxes on all taxable income earned in the 105 Commonwealth for the tax year prior to the date of the alleged entitlement. Such student shall continue 106 to be eligible for in-state tuition charges for so long as his qualifying parent is employed full time in the 107 Commonwealth, pays Virginia income taxes on all taxable income earned in the Commonwealth, and 108 claims the student as a dependent for Virginia and federal income tax purposes.

109 3. Any active duty member, activated guard or reserve member, or guard or reserve member
110 mobilized or on temporary active orders for 180 days or more who resides in the Commonwealth.

111 4. Any veteran who resides in the Commonwealth.

112 5. Any surviving spouse who resides in the Commonwealth.

113 6. Following completion of active duty service, any non-Virginia student who established domicile
114 before being called to active duty in the National Guard of another state if during such active duty he 115 maintained at least one of the following in the Commonwealth: a driver's license, motor vehicle
116 registration, voter registration, employment, property ownership, or sources of financial support.

117 7. Any member of the foreign service office who resided in the Commonwealth for at least 90 days
118 immediately prior to receiving a foreign service assignment and who continues to be assigned overseas,
119 and any dependents of such member.

120 8. Any child of an active duty member or veteran who claims Virginia as his home state and filed

121 Virginia tax returns for at least 40 [~~two~~ four] years during active duty service.

122 9. Any individual who (i) was admitted to the United States as a refugee under 8 U.S.C. § 1157
123 within the previous two calendar years or (ii) received a Special Immigrant Visa that has been granted a
124 status under P.L. 110-181 § 1244, P.L. 109-163 § 1059, or P.L. 111-8 § 602 within the previous two 125 calendar years and, upon entering the United States, resided in the Commonwealth and continues to 126 reside in the Commonwealth as a refugee or pursuant to such Special Immigrant Visa.

127 Any non-Virginia student granted in-state tuition pursuant to this subsection shall be counted as a
128 Virginia student for the purposes of determining college admissions, enrollment, and tuition and fee
129 revenue policies.

130 B. Notwithstanding the provisions of § 23.1-502 or any other provision of law to the contrary, the
131 governing board of any public institution of higher education may charge in-state tuition to the
132 following students regardless of domicile:

133 1. Any non-Virginia student enrolled in one of the institution's programs designated by the Council
134 who (i) is entitled to reduced tuition charges at the institutions of higher education in any other state
135 that is a party to the Southern Regional Education Compact and that has similar reciprocal provisions
136 for Virginia students and (ii) is domiciled in such other state;

137 2. Any non-Virginia student from a foreign country who is enrolled in a foreign exchange program
138 approved by the institution of higher education during the same period in which a Virginia student from
139 such institution is attending such foreign institution as an exchange student; and

140 3. Any high school or magnet school student, not otherwise qualified for in-state tuition, who is
141 enrolled in courses specifically designed as part of the high school or magnet school curriculum in a
142 comprehensive community college for which he may, upon successful completion, receive high school
143 and college credit pursuant to a dual enrollment agreement between the high school or magnet school
144 and the comprehensive community college.

145 Any non-Virginia student granted in-state tuition pursuant to this subsection shall be counted as a
146 non-Virginia student for the purposes of determining college admissions, enrollment, and tuition and fee
147 revenue policies.

148 C. The State Board shall charge in-state tuition to any non-Virginia student enrolled at a
149 comprehensive community college who resides in another state within a 30-mile radius of a public
150 institution of higher education in the Commonwealth, is domiciled in such other state, and is entitled to
151 in-state tuition charges at the institutions of higher education in any state that is contiguous to the
152 Commonwealth and that has similar reciprocal provisions for Virginia students.

153 Any non-Virginia student granted in-state tuition pursuant to this subsection shall be counted as a
154 Virginia student for the purposes of determining college admissions, enrollment, and tuition and fee
155 revenue policies.
