HOUSE BILL NO. 277

Offered January 12, 2022 Prefiled January 11, 2022

A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 15.2-2291, 37.2-431.1, and 55.1-1201 of the Code of Virginia, relating to certified recovery residences.

Patrons-Coyner and Adams, D.M.: Senator: Morrissey

Referred to Committee on Counties, Cities and Towns

10 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 15.2-2291, 37.2-431.1, and 55.1-1201 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted 11 12 as follows:

13 § 15.2-2291. Assisted living facilities and group homes of eight or fewer; single-family residence. A. Zoning ordinances for all purposes shall consider a residential facility in which no more than 14 15 eight individuals with mental illness, intellectual disability, or developmental disabilities reside, with one 16 or more resident or nonresident staff persons, as residential occupancy by a single family. For the purposes of this subsection, mental illness and developmental disability shall not include current illegal 17 use of or addiction to a controlled substance as defined in § 54.1-3401. No conditions more restrictive 18 19 than those imposed on residences occupied by persons related by blood, marriage, or adoption shall be imposed on such facility. For purposes of this subsection, "residential facility" means any group home or other residential facility for which the Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services is 20 21 22 the licensing authority pursuant to this Code.

B. Zoning ordinances for all purposes shall consider a residential facility in which no more than 23 eight aged, infirm or disabled persons reside, with one or more resident counselors or other staff 24 25 persons, as residential occupancy by a single family. No conditions more restrictive than those imposed on residences occupied by persons related by blood, marriage, or adoption shall be imposed on such 26 facility. For purposes of this subsection, "residential facility" means any assisted living facility or 27 28 residential facility in which aged, infirm or disabled persons reside with one or more resident counselors 29 or other staff persons and for which the Department of Social Services is the licensing authority 30 pursuant to this Code.

31 C. Zoning ordinances for all purposes shall consider a certified recovery residence, as defined in § 37.2-431.1, in which individuals with substance abuse disorder reside, either with or without one or 32 33 more resident or nonresident staff persons, as residential occupancy by a single family. No conditions 34 more restrictive than those imposed on residences occupied by persons related by blood, marriage, or 35 adoption shall be imposed on such certified recovery residence. 36

§ 37.2-431.1. Certified recovery residences.

A. As used in this section:

"Certified recovery residence" means a recovery residence that has been certified by the Department. "Credentialing entity" means a nonprofit organization that develops and administers professional 39 40 certification programs according to nationally recognized recovery housing standards of the National 41 Alliance for Recovery Residences.

"Level of support" means the level of support and structure that a certified recovery residence 42 43 provides to residents, as specified in the standards of the National Alliance for Recovery Residences.

44 "Recovery residence" means a housing facility that provides alcohol-free and illicit-drug-free housing to individuals with substance abuse disorders and individuals with co-occurring mental illnesses and 45 46 substance abuse disorders that does not include clinical treatment services.

47 B. Every recovery residence shall disclose to each prospective resident whether the recovery 48 residence is a certified recovery residence.

49 C. No person shall advertise, represent, or otherwise imply to the public that a recovery residence or 50 other housing facility is a certified recovery residence unless such recovery residence or other housing 51 facility has been certified by the Department in accordance with regulations adopted by the Board. Such 52 regulations may require accreditation by or membership in a credentialing agency as a condition of 53 certification, and shall require each certified recovery residence include one or more resident or nonresident staff persons who is employed by the provider for compensation and who is responsible for 54 55 oversight or management of the recovery residence.

57 C. No health care provider or provider licensed pursuant to this article who receives public funds 58 and no state agency shall refer a person with substance use disorder to a recovery residence unless the HB277

59 recovery residence has been certified by the Department in accordance with regulations adopted by the 60 oard.

61 D. The Department shall maintain a list of certified recovery residences on its website and shall 62 provide, for each certified recovery residence included on such list, the level of support provided by the 63 recovery residence.

64 D. E. The Department may institute civil proceedings in the name of the Commonwealth to enjoin 65 any person from violating the provisions of this section and to recover a civil penalty of at least $200 but no more than $1,000 for each violation. Such proceedings shall be brought in the general district or 66 circuit court for the county or city in which the violation occurred or where the defendant resides. Civil 67 penalties assessed under this section shall be paid into the Behavioral Health and Developmental 68 Services Trust Fund established in § 37.2-318. 69 70

§ 55.1-1201. Applicability of chapter; local authority.

71 A. This chapter shall apply to all jurisdictions in the Commonwealth and may not be waived or otherwise modified, in whole or in part, by the governing body of any locality or its boards or 72 commissions or other instrumentalities or by the courts of the Commonwealth. Occupancy in a public 73 74 housing unit or other housing unit that is a dwelling unit is subject to this chapter, however, if the 75 provisions of this chapter are inconsistent with the regulations of the U.S. Department of Housing and 76 Urban Development, such regulations shall control.

77 B. The provisions of this chapter shall apply to occupancy in all single-family and multifamily 78 dwelling units and multifamily dwelling units located in the Commonwealth. 79

C. The following tenancies and occupancies are not residential tenancies under this chapter:

80 1. Residence at a public or private institution, if incidental to detention or the provision of medical, geriatric, educational, counseling, religious, or similar services; 81

2. Occupancy by a member of a fraternal or social organization in the portion of a structure operated 82 83 for the benefit of the organization; 84

3. Occupancy by an owner of a condominium unit or a holder of a proprietary lease in a cooperative;

4. Occupancy in a campground as defined in § 35.1-1;

5. Occupancy by a tenant who pays no rent pursuant to a rental agreement;

87 6. Occupancy by an employee of a landlord whose right to occupancy in a multifamily dwelling unit 88 is conditioned upon employment in and about the premises or a former employee whose occupancy 89 continues less than 60 days; or

90 7. Occupancy under a contract of sale of a dwelling unit or the property of which it is a part, if the 91 occupant is the purchaser or a person who succeeds to his interest; or 92

8. Occupancy in a certified recovery residence as defined in § 37.2-431.1.

D. The following provisions apply to occupancy in a hotel, motel, extended stay facility, etc.:

1. A guest who is an occupant of a hotel, motel, extended stay facility, vacation residential facility, including those governed by the Virginia Real Estate Time-Share Act (§ 55.1-2200 et seq.), 94 95 boardinghouse, or similar transient lodging shall not be construed to be a tenant living in a dwelling unit 96 if such person does not reside in such lodging as his primary residence. Such guest shall be exempt 97 98 from this chapter, and the innkeeper or property owner, or his agent, shall have the right to use self-help 99 eviction under Virginia law, without the necessity of the filing of an unlawful detainer action in a court 100 of competent jurisdiction and the execution of a writ of eviction issued pursuant to such action, which 101 would otherwise be required under this chapter.

2. A hotel, motel, extended stay facility, vacation residential facility, including those governed by the 102 Virginia Real Estate Time-Share Act (§ 55.1-2200 et seq.), boardinghouse, or similar transient lodging 103 shall be exempt from the provisions of this chapter if overnight sleeping accommodations are furnished 104 105 to a person for consideration if such person does not reside in such lodging as his primary residence.

3. If a person resides in a hotel, motel, extended stay facility, vacation residential facility, including those governed by the Virginia Real Estate Time-Share Act (§ 55.1-2200 et seq.), boardinghouse, or 106 107 similar transient lodging as his primary residence for 90 consecutive days or less, such lodging shall not 108 be subject to the provisions of this chapter. However, the owner of such lodging establishment shall give 109 a five-day written notice of nonpayment to a person residing in such lodging and, upon the expiration of 110 111 the five-day period specified in the notice, may exercise self-help eviction if payment in full has not 112 been received.

113 4. If a person resides in a hotel, motel, extended stay facility, vacation residential facility, including those governed by the Virginia Real Estate Time-Share Act (§ 55.1-2200 et seq.), boardinghouse, or 114 similar transient lodging as his primary residence for more than 90 consecutive days or is subject to a 115 written lease for more than 90 days, such lodging shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter. 116

5. Nothing herein shall be construed to preclude the owner of a lodging establishment that uses 117 self-help eviction pursuant to this section from pursuing any civil or criminal remedies under the laws of 118 119 the Commonwealth.

E. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit a locality from establishing a commission, reconciliatory in

- nature only, or designating an existing agency, which upon mutual agreement of the parties may mediate conflicts that may arise out of the application of this chapter, nor shall anything in this chapter be 121
- 122 123 deemed to prohibit an ordinance designed to effect compliance with local property maintenance codes.

124 This chapter shall supersede all other local ordinances or regulations concerning landlord and tenant

125 relations and the leasing of residential property.
