Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 56-231.28 and 56-231.29 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 56-231.28. Board of directors of cooperatives.

A. Each cooperative shall have a board of directors of five or more members, which board shall constitute the governing body of the cooperative. Only members and the officers, directors or employees of any member shall be eligible for election to the board of directors. The directors, other than those named in the articles of incorporation, shall be elected annually by the members entitled to vote, unless the bylaws provide that, in lieu of electing the whole number of directors annually, the directors shall be divided into two, three or four classes at the first or any subsequent annual meeting. If the bylaws so provide, each class shall be as nearly equal in number as possible, with the term of office of one class to expire every year. If the number of classes changes, then the board of directors shall have authority to determine how directors will be allocated among the new number of classes, provided that no director's term will exceed, without reelection, a number of years equal to the number of classes of directors. ~~The board of directors shall have authority to fix the compensation of directors.~~ Each cooperative shall elect its board of directors directly, with one vote per member entitled to vote, either in person or by mail, and shall not permit voting by proxy. If expressly provided in its articles of incorporation or bylaws, a cooperative may authorize vote by telephone or other electronic communication means, but it may not authorize voting by proxy.

B. The directors shall elect annually from their own number a president of the board or a chairman of the board; and one or more vice-presidents of the board, vice-chairmen of the board or both. They may also elect or appoint annually (i) a president of the cooperative, (ii) one or more vice-presidents of the cooperative, (iii) a secretary, (iv) a treasurer, and (v) such other officers as the board deems necessary. No person shall hold any office unless that person is a director or employee of the cooperative. The offices of secretary and treasurer may be held by the same person.

C. The board of directors shall have the authority to fix the compensation of directors.

D. Meetings conducted by the board of directors of a cooperative shall be open for attendance and observation by members of the cooperative, viewable both in person and through online streaming, and made available for viewing by members of the cooperative through posting recordings of meetings on an official website. A cooperative may limit the number of members able to attend meetings of the board of directors in-person based on space and safety limitations, as set forth in a board policy. If online streaming of a meeting of the board of directors is not possible, the cooperative may proceed with that meeting so long as it is recorded and made available for online viewing by cooperative members in a timely fashion. Portions of a board meeting held in executive session to address legal, employee, and other appropriately confidential matters shall be exempt from the requirements of this subsection.

§ 56-231.29. Powers and duties of board of directors.

A. The board of directors of a cooperative shall have power to do all things necessary or incidental in conducting the business of the cooperative, including, but not limited to the power:

1. If authorized by the articles of incorporation, or by resolution of its members having voting power, to adopt and amend bylaws for the management and regulation of the affairs of the cooperative, subject, however, to the right of the members to alter or repeal such bylaws.
