22102429D HOUSE BILL NO. 757 1 2 Offered January 12, 2022 3 Prefiled January 11, 2022 4 A BILL to amend the Code of Virginia by adding in Article 1 of Chapter 3 of Title 40.1 a section 5 numbered 40.1-28.7:10, relating to employment; anti-harassment training requirement. 6 Patron—Krizek (By Request) 7 8 Referred to Committee on Commerce and Energy 9 10 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 1. That the Code of Virginia is amended by adding in Article 1 of Chapter 3 of Title 40.1 a 11 section numbered 40.1-28.7:10 as follows: 12 13 § 40.1-28.7:10. Employers to provide anti-harassment training. 14 A. For the purposes of this section: 15 "Employer" means any employer as defined in § 40.1-2 that employs five or more employees. Notwithstanding 40.1-2.1, "employer" includes the Commonwealth and its agencies, institutions, and 16 17 political subdivisions. B. By January 1, 2023, each employer subject to this section shall provide (i) at least two hours of 18 19 classroom or other effective interactive training and education regarding sexual harassment and 20 workplace discrimination to all supervisory employees and (ii) at least one hour of classroom or other 21 effective interactive training and education regarding sexual harassment and workplace discrimination to all nonsupervisory employees. Thereafter, each employer shall provide sexual harassment training 22 23 and education to its employees once every two years. New nonsupervisory employees shall be provided 24 training within six months of hire. New supervisory employees shall be provided with training within six 25 months of the assumption of a supervisory position. An employer who has already provided this training 26 to an employee in 2021 shall not be required to provide refresher training again until two years after 27 the date of training in 2021. 28 C. An employer may provide this training in conjunction with other training provided to employees. 29 An employer may develop its own training module to comply with the employer's obligations set forth in 30 this section. The training may be completed (i) by employees individually or as part of a group presentation, (ii) remotely or through on online platform, or (iii) in shorter segments, provided that the applicable hourly total requirement is met. The training required by this section shall include 31 32 33 information and practical guidance regarding relevant federal and state laws concerning prohibitions 34 against and the prevention and correction of sexual harassment and the remedies available to victims of 35 sexual harassment in employment. The training for supervisory employees shall include practical 36 examples for methods of preventing harassment, discrimination, and retaliation in the workplace. The 37 training and education required by this section shall be presented by an educator or human resources 38 professional with knowledge and expertise in the prevention of harassment, discrimination, and 39 retaliation. The employer, online platform, educator, or human resources professional shall provide a 40 method for employees who have completed the training to electronically save a certificate of completion. 41 An employer shall provide training inclusive of harassment based on gender identity, gender expression, 42 and sexual orientation as a component of the training and education required by this section. D. Beginning January 1, 2023, for seasonal, temporary, or other employees who are hired to work 43 for less than six months, an employer shall provide at least one hour of training regarding sexual 44 45 harassment and workplace discrimination within 30 calendar days after the date of hire. In the case of 46 a temporary employee employed by a temporary services employer, the training shall be provided by the 47 temporary services employer, not the client employer. E. Beginning January 1, 2023, sexual harassment and workplace discrimination prevention training 48 49 for migrant and seasonal agricultural workers shall be consistent with training for nonsupervisory 50 employees as described in subsection B. F. Subject to any other provision of law, a claim that the training required by this section did not 51 52 reach a particular employee or employees shall not in itself result in the liability of any employer to any 53 present or former employee or applicant for employment in any action alleging sexual harassment. 54 Subject to any other provision of law, an employer's compliance with this section shall not insulate the employer from liability for sexual harassment of any current or former employee or applicant for 55 56 employment. 57 G. If an employer fails to provide the training required by this section, the Department may seek an 58 order requiring the employer to comply with these requirements.

HB757

H. The training required by this section shall not be construed to discourage or relieve any employer 59

60 from providing for longer, more frequent, or more detailed training and education regarding workplace 61 harassment or other forms of unlawful discrimination. I. Beginning January 1, 2023, the Department shall make online training courses available on its public website. The online training courses shall contain an interactive feature that requires the viewer 62 63 to respond to a question periodically in order for the online training course to continue playing. J. The Department shall promulgate certain rules and regulations as necessary to achieve the 64

65 66 objectives of this section.
