SENATE BILL NO. 143

Senate Amendments in [] - January 24, 2022

Prefiled January 8, 2022

A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 8.01-626, 8.01-671, 8.01-675.3, 8.01-675.6, 8.01-676.1, 17.1-403, 17.1-405, 17.1-408, 19.2-321.1, and 19.2-321.2 of the Code of Virginia, relating to the Court of Appeals of Virginia; emergency.

Patron Prior to Engrossment—Senator Edwards

Referred to Committee on the Judiciary

10 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 11

1. That §§ 8.01-626, 8.01-671, 8.01-675.3, 8.01-675.6, 8.01-676.1, 17.1-403, 17.1-405, 17.1-408, 12 19.2-321.1, and 19.2-321.2 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows: 13 14

§ 8.01-626. Review of injunction; petitions for review.

15 Wherein When a circuit court (i) grants an a preliminary or permanent injunction Θ , (ii) refuses such 16 an injunction Θ , (iii) having granted such an injunction, dissolves or refuses to enlarge it, or (iv) enters an order reviewable pursuant to [subsection B of] § 8.01-675.5, an aggrieved party may file a petition 17 for review with the clerk of the Court of Appeals within 15 days of the circuit court's order. The clerk 18 shall assign the petition to a three-judge panel of the Court of Appeals. The aggrieved party shall serve 19 a copy of the petition for review on the counsel for the opposing party, which may file a response 20 21 within seven days from the date of service unless the court determines a shorter time frame. The petition 22 for review shall be accompanied by a copy of the proceedings, including the original papers and the court's order respecting the injunction. The court may take such action thereon as it considers 23 24 appropriate under the circumstances of the case.

25 When the Court of Appeals has initially acted upon a petition for review of an order of a circuit court respecting an injunction, a party aggrieved by such action of the Court of Appeals may, within 15 26 27 days of the order of the Court of Appeals, present a petition for review of such order to the clerk of the 28 Supreme Court. The clerk shall assign the petition to a three-justice panel of the Supreme Court. The 29 aggrieved party shall serve a copy of the petition for review on the counsel for the opposing party, 30 which may file a response within seven days from the date of service unless the court determines a 31 shorter time frame. The petition for review shall be accompanied by a copy of the proceedings before the circuit court, including the original papers and the circuit court's order respecting the injunction, and 32 33 a copy of the order of the Court of Appeals from which review is sought. The Supreme Court may take 34 such action thereon as it considers appropriate under the circumstances of the case.

35 Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the Court of Appeals or the Supreme Court from resolving a petition for review by an order joined by more than one judge three judges or justice 36 37 justices. An order issued by a justice of the Supreme Court does not become a judgment of the court 38 except on the concurrence of at least three justices, as provided in § 17.1-308. 39

§ 8.01-671. Time within which petition must be presented.

40 A. In cases where an appeal is permitted from the trial court to the Supreme Court, no petition shall 41 be presented for an appeal to the Supreme Court from any final judgment, whether the Commonwealth be a party or not, that was rendered more than 90 days before the petition is presented, provided that an 42 extension may be granted, in the discretion of the Supreme Court, in order to attain the ends of justice 43 44 on motion for good cause shown.

B. No appeal to the Supreme Court from a decision of the Court of Appeals shall be granted unless 45 46 a petition for appeal is filed within 30 days after the date of the decision appealed from. However, an 47 extension may be granted, in the discretion of the court, in order to attain the ends of justice on motion 48 for good cause shown. 49

§ 8.01-675.3. Time within which appeal must be taken; notice.

Except as provided in § 19.2-400 for pretrial appeals by the Commonwealth in criminal cases and in 50 51 § 19.2-401 for cross appeals by the defendant in such pretrial appeals, a notice of appeal to the Court of 52 Appeals in any case within the jurisdiction of the court shall be filed within 30 days from the date of 53 any final judgment order, decree, or conviction. When an appeal from an interlocutory decree or order is permitted, the notice of appeal shall be filed within 30 days from the date of such decree or order, 54 55 except for pretrial appeals pursuant to § 19.2-398. However, an extension may be granted, in the discretion of the Court of Appeals, in order to attain the ends of justice on motion for good cause 56 57 shown.

58 For purposes of this section, § 17.1-408, and an appeal pursuant to § 19.2-398, a petition for appeal 62

59 in a criminal case or a notice of appeal to the Court of Appeals, shall be deemed to be timely filed if (i) 60 it is mailed postage prepaid by registered or certified mail and (ii) the official postal receipt, showing 61 mailing within the prescribed time limits, is exhibited upon demand of the clerk or any party.

§ 8.01-675.6. Jurisdictional amount.

63 No petition appeal shall be presented for an appeal taken from any judgment of a circuit court 64 except in cases in which when the controversy is for a matter of $500 or more in value or amount, and 65 except in cases in which it is otherwise expressly provided; nor to a judgment of any circuit court in a civil case when the controversy is for a matter less in value or amount than $500, exclusive of costs, 66 unless there be drawn in question a freehold or franchise or the title or bounds of land, or some other 67 68 matter not merely pecuniary.

§ 8.01-676.1. Security for appeal.

70 A. Security for costs of appeal of right to Court of Appeals in civil cases. — A party filing a notice 71 of an appeal of right to the Court of Appeals in a civil case shall simultaneously file an appeal bond or irrevocable letter of credit in the penalty of $500, or such sum as the trial court may require, subject to 72 73 subsection E, conditioned upon paying all costs and fees incurred in the Court of Appeals and the 74 Supreme Court if it takes cognizance of the claim. If the appellant wishes suspension of execution in a 75 civil appeal, the security shall also be conditioned and shall be in such sum as the trial court may 76 require as provided in subsection C.

77 A1. Security for costs or suspension in criminal cases. — An appeal bond or letter of credit is not 78 required in criminal appeals as security for costs. [Pursuant to $\frac{9}{10.2-322.1}$, a] [A] suspension bond 79 is not required in criminal appeals.

80 B. Security for costs on petition for appeal to Court of Appeals or Supreme Court. — An appellant 81 whose petition for appeal is granted by the Court of Appeals or the Supreme Court shall (if he has not done so) within 15 days from the date of the Certificate of Appeal file an appeal bond or irrevocable 82 83 letter of credit in the same penalty as provided in subsection A, conditioned on the payment of all damages, costs, and fees incurred in the Court of Appeals and in the Supreme Court. 84

85 C. Security for suspension of execution. — An appellant who wishes execution of the judgment or award from which an appeal is sought to be suspended during the appeal shall, subject to the provisions 86 87 of subsection J, file a suspending bond or irrevocable letter of credit conditioned upon the performance 88 or satisfaction of the judgment and payment of all damages incurred in consequence of such suspension, 89 and except as provided in subsection D, execution shall be suspended upon the filing of such security 90 and the timely prosecution of such appeal. Such security shall be continuing and additional security shall not be necessary except as to any additional amount that may be added or to any additional requirement 91 92 that may be imposed by the courts.

93 D. Suspension of execution in decrees for support and custody; injunctions. — The court from which 94 an appeal is sought may refuse to suspend the execution of decrees for support and custody, and may 95 also refuse suspension when a judgment refuses, grants, modifies, or dissolves an injunction. 96

E. Increase or decrease in penalty or other modification of security.

97 1. The trial court or commission may, upon the motion of any party (i) for good cause shown, 98 modify the terms of the security for the appeal or of the security for the suspension of execution of a 99 judgment and (ii) resolve any objection to the form or issuer of a bond or letter of credit at any time until the Court of Appeals or the Supreme Court acts upon any similar motion. Any party aggrieved by 100 101 the decision of the trial court or commission may request a review of such decision by the appellate 102 court before which the case is pending.

2. The Court of Appeals or the Supreme Court may order that the penalty or any other terms or 103 requirements of the security for the appeal or of the security for the suspension of execution of a 104 judgment be modified for good cause shown (i) upon the motion of any party or (ii) if such request is 105 made in the brief of any party filed in the Court of Appeals, or in the Petition for Appeal or the 106 107 appellee's Brief in Opposition filed in the Supreme Court or the Court of Appeals.

108 3. Affidavits and counter-affidavits may be filed by the parties containing facts pertinent to such request. Any increase or decrease in the amount of or other modification of the security so ordered shall 109 110 be effected in the clerk's office of the trial court within 15 days of the order of the trial court, the Court 111 of Appeals, or the Supreme Court.

4. If an increase so ordered is not effected within 15 days, the appeal shall be dismissed, in the case 112 113 of the security required under subsection A or B, or the suspension of execution of a judgment shall be discontinued, in the case of the security required under subsection C. 114

115 F. By whom executed. — Each bond filed shall be executed by a party or another on his behalf, and by surety approved by the clerk of the court from which appeal is sought, or by the clerk of the 116 Supreme Court or the clerk of the Court of Appeals if the bond is ordered by such Court. Any letter of 117 credit posted as security for an appeal shall be in a form acceptable to the clerk of the court from which 118 appeal is sought, or by the clerk of the Supreme Court or the Court of Appeals if the security is ordered 119 by such court. The letter of credit shall be from a bank incorporated or authorized to conduct banking 120

121 business under the laws of this Commonwealth or authorized to do business in this Commonwealth122 under the banking laws of the United States, or a federally insured savings institution located in this123 Commonwealth.

G. Appeal from State Corporation Commission; security for costs. — When an appeal of right is entered from the State Corporation Commission to the Supreme Court, and no suspension of the order, judgment, or decree appealed from is requested, such appeal bond or letter of credit shall be filed when and in the amount required by the clerk of the Supreme Court, whose action shall be subject to review by the Supreme Court.

129 H. Appeal from State Corporation Commission; suspension. — Any judgment, order, or decree of the 130 State Corporation Commission subject to appeal to the Supreme Court may be suspended by the 131 Commission or by the Supreme Court pending decision of the appeal if the Commission or the Supreme 132 Court deems such suspension necessary for the proper administration of justice but only upon the 133 written application of an appellant after reasonable notice to all other parties in interest and the filing of 134 a suspending bond or irrevocable letter of credit with such conditions, in such penalty, and with such 135 surety thereon as the Commission or the Supreme Court may deem sufficient. But no surety shall be 136 required if the appellant is any county, city or town of this Commonwealth, or the Commonwealth.

137 I. Forms of bonds; letters of credit; where filed. — The Clerk of the Supreme Court shall prescribe 138 separate forms for bonds, one for costs alone, one for suspension of execution, and one for both and a 139 form for irrevocable letters of credit, to which the bond or bonds or irrevocable letters of credit given 140 shall substantially conform. The forms for each bond and the letter of credit shall be published in the 141 Rules of Court. It shall be sufficient if the bond or letter of credit, when executed as required, is filed 142 with the trial court, clerk of the Virginia Workers' Compensation Commission, or the clerk of the State 143 Corporation Commission, whichever is applicable, and no personal appearance in the trial court, Virginia 144 Workers' Compensation Commission, or State Corporation Commission by the principal, the surety on 145 the bond or the bank issuing the letter of credit shall be required as a condition precedent to its filing.

146 J. In any civil litigation under any legal theory, the amount of the suspending bond or irrevocable 147 letter of credit to be furnished during the pendency of all appeals or discretionary reviews of any 148 judgment granting legal, equitable, or any other form of relief in order to stay the execution thereon 149 during the entire course of appellate review by any courts shall be set in accordance with applicable 150 laws or court rules, and the amount of the suspending bond or irrevocable letter of credit shall include 151 an amount equivalent to one year's interest calculated from the date of the notice of appeal in 152 accordance with § 8.01-682. However, the total suspending bond or irrevocable letter of credit that is 153 required of an appellant and all of its affiliates shall not exceed $25 million, regardless of the value of 154 the judgment.

155 K. Dissipation of assets. — If the appellee proves by a preponderance of the evidence that a party 156 bringing an appeal, for whom the suspending bond or irrevocable letter of credit requirement has been 157 limited or waived, is purposefully dissipating its assets or diverting assets outside the jurisdiction of the 158 United States courts for the purpose of evading the judgment, the limitation or waiver shall be rescinded 159 and a court may require the appellant to post a suspending bond or irrevocable letter of credit in an 160 amount up to the full amount of the judgment. Dissipation of assets shall not include those ongoing 161 expenditures made from assets of the kind that the appellant made in the regular course of business prior 162 to the judgment being appealed, such as the payment of stock dividends and other financial incentives to 163 the shareholders of publicly owned companies, continued participation in charitable and civic activities, 164 and other expenditures consistent with the exercise of good business judgment.

L. For good cause shown, a court may otherwise waive the filing of a suspending bond or irrevocable letter of credit as to the damages in excess of, or other than, the compensatory damages. Subject to the provisions of subsection K, the parties may agree to waive the requirement of a suspending bond or irrevocable letter of credit or agree to a suspending bond or irrevocable letter of credit in an amount less than the compensatory damages.

M. Exemption. — When an appeal is proper to protect the estate of a decedent or person under disability, or to protect the interest of the Commonwealth or any county, city, or town of this Commonwealth, no security for appeal shall be required.

173 N. Indigents. — No person who is an indigent shall be required to post security for an appeal bond.

0. Virginia Workers' Compensation Commission. — No claimant who files an appeal from a final decision of the Virginia Workers' Compensation Commission with the Court of Appeals shall be required to post security for costs as provided in subsection A if such claimant has not returned to his employment or by reason of his disability is unemployed. Such claimant shall file an affidavit describing his disability and employment status with the Court of Appeals together with a motion to waive the filing of the security under subsection A.

P. Time for filing security for appeal. — The appeal bond or letter of credit prescribed in subsectionsA and B is not jurisdictional and the time for filing such security in cases before the Court of Appeals

182 or the Supreme Court may be extended by a judge or justice of the court before which the case is 183 pending on motion for good cause shown and to attain the ends of justice. The effect of failing to 184 perfect an appeal bond shall be governed by the Rules of Supreme Court of Virginia.

185 Q. Consideration of appeal bond, suspending bond, or letter of credit by Court of Appeals or 186 Supreme Court. — A determination on an issue affecting an appeal bond, suspending bond, or letter of 187 credit in a case before the Court of Appeals or the Supreme Court may be considered by an individual 188 judge of such court rather than by a panel of judges. 189

R. This section applies to injunction bonds required pursuant to § 8.01-631.

190 S. In accordance with § 1-205, if the party required to post an appeal or suspending bond tenders 191 such bond together with cash in the full amount required by this section to the clerk specified in this 192 section, no surety shall be required.

§ 17.1-403. Rules of practice, procedure, and internal processes; promulgation by Supreme 193 194 Court; amendments; summary disposition of appeals.

195 The Supreme Court shall prescribe and publish the initial rules governing practice, procedure, and 196 internal processes for the Court of Appeals designed to achieve the just, speedy, and inexpensive 197 disposition of all litigation in that court consistent with the ends of justice and to maintain uniformity in 198 the law of the Commonwealth. Before amending the rules thereafter, the Supreme Court shall receive 199 and consider recommendations from the Court of Appeals. The rules shall prescribe procedures (i) 200 authorizing the Court of Appeals to prescribe truncated record or appendix preparation and (ii) 201 permitting the Court of Appeals to dispense with oral argument if the parties agree that oral argument 202 is not necessary or if the panel has examined the briefs and record and unanimously agrees that oral 203 argument is unnecessary because (a) the appeal is wholly without merit or (b) the dispositive issue or issues have been authoritatively decided, and the appellant has not argued that the case law should be 204 205 overturned, extended, modified, or reversed.

§ 17.1-405. Appellate jurisdiction — Administrative agency, Virginia Workers' Compensation 206 207 Commission, and civil matter appeals. 208

Unless otherwise provided by law, any aggrieved party may appeal to the Court of Appeals from:

209 1. Any final decision of a circuit court on appeal from (i) a decision of an administrative agency, or 210 (ii) a grievance hearing decision issued pursuant to \S 2.2-3005;

2. Any final decision of the Virginia Workers' Compensation Commission:

212 3. Except as provided in subsection B of § 17.1-406, any final judgment, order, or decree of a circuit 213 court in a civil matter;

4. Any interlocutory decree or order pursuant to § 8.01-267.8, 8.01-626, or 8.01-675.5; or

215 5. Any interlocutory decree or order involving an equitable claim in which the decree or order (i)216 requires money to be paid or the possession or title of property to be changed or (ii) adjudicates the 217 principles of a cause; or 218 6. Any final judgment, order, or decree of a circuit court (i) involving an application for a concealed 219 weapons permit pursuant to Article 6.1 (§ 18.2-307.1 et seq.) of Chapter 7 of Title 18.2, (ii) involving 220 involuntary treatment of prisoners pursuant to § 53.1-40.1 or 53.1-133.04, or (iii) for declaratory or 221 injunctive relief under § 57-2.02.

§ 17.1-408. Time for filing; notice; opening brief; petition.

223 The notice of appeal to the Court of Appeals shall be filed in every case within the court's appellate 224 jurisdiction as provided in § 8.01-675.3. The opening brief in a criminal case shall be filed not more 225 than 40 days after the filing of the record with the Court of Appeals. However, an extension may be 226 granted in the discretion of the Court of Appeals in order to attain the ends of justice on motion for 227 good cause shown. In an appeal pursuant to subsection B or C of § 19.2-398, the petition for appeal 228 shall be presented within the 40-day time limitation provided in this section.

229 Upon receiving a notice of appeal in a criminal case or, if notice of the appeal is received by the 230 clerk prior to the entry of final judgment, upon entry of final judgment, the clerk of the circuit court 231 shall cause a transcript to be prepared of the trial and any other circuit court proceedings, as requested 232 by the appellant in the notice of appeal or by order of the circuit court, at the expense of the 233 Commonwealth. 234

§ 19.2-321.1. Motion in the Court of Appeals for delayed appeal in criminal cases.

235 A. Filing and content of motion. When, due to the error, neglect, or fault of counsel representing the 236 appellant, or of the court reporter, or of the circuit court or an officer or employee thereof, an appeal, in 237 whole or in part, in a criminal case has (i) never been initiated; (ii) been dismissed for failure to adhere 238 to proper form, procedures, or time limits in the perfection of the appeal; or, (iii) been dismissed in part because at least one assignment of error did not adhere to proper form of procedures, or (iv) [been 239 240 denied or] the conviction has been affirmed the conviction, for failure to file or timely file the indispensable transcript or written statement of facts as required by law or by the Rules of Supreme 241 242 Court;, then a motion for leave to pursue a delayed appeal may be filed in the Court of Appeals within six months after the appeal has been dismissed [$\frac{\partial r}{\partial r}$ denied], the conviction has been affirmed, or the 243

244 circuit court judgment sought to be appealed has become final, whichever is later. Such motion shall 245 identify the circuit court and the style, date, and circuit court record number of the judgment sought to 246 be appealed, and, if one was assigned in a prior attempt to appeal the judgment, shall give the Court of 247 Appeals record number in that proceeding, and shall set forth the specific facts establishing the said 248 error, neglect, or fault. If the error, neglect, or fault is alleged to be that of an attorney representing the 249 appellant, the motion shall be accompanied by the affidavit of the attorney whose error, neglect, or fault 250 is alleged, verifying the specific facts alleged in the motion, and certifying that the appellant is not 251 personally responsible, in whole or in part, for the error, neglect, or fault causing loss of the original 252 opportunity for appeal.

B. Service, response, and disposition. Such motion shall be served on the attorney for the Commonwealth and the Attorney General, in accordance with the Rules of Supreme Court. If the Commonwealth disputes the facts alleged in the motion, or contends that those facts do not entitle the appellant to a delayed appeal under this section, the motion shall be denied without prejudice to the appellant's right to seek a delayed appeal by means of petition for a writ of habeas corpus. Otherwise, the Court of Appeals shall, if the motion meets the requirements of this section, grant appellant leave to initiate or re-initiate pursuit of the appeal.

C. Time limits when motion granted. If the motion is granted, all computations of time under the Rules of Supreme Court shall run from the date of the order of the Court of Appeals granting the motion, or if the appellant has been determined to be indigent, from the date of the order by the circuit court appointing counsel to represent the appellant in the delayed appeal, whichever is later.

D. Applicability. The provisions of this section shall not apply to cases in which the appellant is responsible, in whole or in part, for the error, neglect, or fault causing loss of the original opportunity for appeal, nor shall it apply in cases where the claim of error, neglect, or fault has already been alleged and rejected in a prior judicial proceeding.

§ 19.2-321.2. Motion in the Supreme Court for delayed appeal in criminal cases.

269 A. Filing and content of motion. When, due to the error, neglect, or fault of counsel representing the 270 appellant, or of the court reporter, or of the Court of Appeals or the circuit court or an officer or 271 employee of either, an appeal from the Court of Appeals to the Supreme Court in a criminal case has (i) 272 never been initiated;, (ii) been dismissed for failure to adhere to proper form, procedures, or time limits 273 in the perfection of the appeal;, (iii) been dismissed in part because at least one assignment of error 274 contained in the petition for appeal did not adhere to proper form or procedures;, or (iv) been denied or 275 the conviction has been affirmed, for failure to file or timely file the indispensable transcript or written 276 statement of facts as required by law or by the Rules of Supreme Court, then a motion for leave to 277 pursue a delayed appeal may be filed in the Supreme Court within six months after the appeal has been 278 dismissed or denied, the conviction has been affirmed, or the Court of Appeals judgment sought to be 279 appealed has become final, whichever is later. Such motion shall identify by the style, date, and Court 280 of Appeals record number of the judgment sought to be appealed, and, if one was assigned in a prior attempt to appeal the judgment to the Supreme Court, shall give the record number assigned in the 281 282 Supreme Court in that proceeding, and shall set forth the specific facts establishing the said error, 283 neglect, or fault. If the error, neglect, or fault is alleged to be that of an attorney representing the 284 appellant, the motion shall be accompanied by the affidavit of the attorney whose error, neglect, or fault 285 is alleged, verifying the specific facts alleged in the motion, and certifying that the appellant is not 286 personally responsible, in whole or in part, for the error, neglect, or fault causing loss of the original 287 opportunity for appeal.

B. Service, response, and disposition. Such motion shall be served on the attorney for the Commonwealth and the Attorney General, in accordance with Rule 5:4 of the Supreme Court. If the Commonwealth disputes the facts alleged in the motion, or contends that those facts do not entitle the appellant to a delayed appeal under this section, the motion shall be denied without prejudice to the appellant's right to seek a delayed appeal by means of petition for a writ of habeas corpus. Otherwise, the Supreme Court shall, if the motion meets the requirements of this section, grant appellant leave to initiate or re-initiate pursuit of the appeal from the Court of Appeals to the Supreme Court.

C. Time limits when motion granted. If the motion is granted, all computations of time under the Rules of Supreme Court shall run from the date of the order of the Supreme Court granting the motion, or if the appellant has been determined to be indigent, from the date of the order by the circuit court appointing counsel to represent the appellant in the delayed appeal, whichever is later.

299 D. Applicability. The provisions of this section shall not apply to cases in which the appellant is 300 responsible, in whole or in part, for the error, neglect, or fault causing loss of the original opportunity
301 for appeal, nor shall it apply in cases where the claim of error, neglect, or fault has already been alleged 302 and rejected in a prior judicial proceeding.

303 2. That an emergency exists and the provisions of this act amending § 17.1-405 of the Code of 304 Virginia are in force from its passage.
