22100240D 1 SENATE BILL NO. 17 2 Offered January 12, 2022 3 Prefiled December 21, 2021 4 A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 9.1-116 and 51.1-155 of the Code of Virginia, relating to Virginia 5 Retirement System; employment of retired law-enforcement officers. 6 Patron—Hackworth 7 8 Referred to Committee on Finance and Appropriations 9 10 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 1. That §§ 9.1-116 and 51.1-155 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows: 11 § 9.1-116. Exemptions of certain persons from certain training requirements. 12 13 The Director of the Department, with the approval of the Board, may exempt a chief of police or any 14 law-enforcement officer or any courthouse and courtroom security officer, jail officer, dispatcher, process 15 server, or custodial officer or corrections officer of the Commonwealth or any political subdivision who 16 has demonstrated sensitivity to cultural diversity issues and had previous experience and training as a law-enforcement officer, courthouse and courtroom security officer, jail officer, dispatcher, process 17 server or custodial officer or corrections officer with any law-enforcement or custodial agency, from the 18 19 mandatory attendance of any or all courses which are required for the successful completion of the 20 compulsory minimum training standards established by the Board. 21 The Director and Board shall exempt a law-enforcement officer who has demonstrated sensitivity to 22 cultural diversity issues, had previous experience and training as a law-enforcement officer, is currently 23 receiving or is eligible to receive a service retirement allowance in accordance with subdivision B 5 of 24 § 51.1-155, and has a break in service of no longer than 60 calendar months between retirement and 25 such new employment as a law-enforcement officer from the mandatory attendance of all courses that 26 are required for the successful completion of the compulsory minimum training standards established by 27 the Board. 28 The exemption authorized by this section shall be available to all law-enforcement officers, 29 courthouse and courtroom security officers, jail officer, dispatchers, process servers and custodial 30 officers, and corrections officers, regardless of any officer's date of initial employment, and shall entitle 31 the officer when exempted from mandatory attendance to be deemed in compliance with the compulsory minimum training standards and eligible for the minimum salary established pursuant to Article 3 32 33 (§ 15.2-1609 et seq.) of Chapter 16 of Title 15.2, provided that the officer is otherwise qualified. 34 § 51.1-155. Service retirement allowance. 35 A. Retirement allowance. — A member shall receive an annual retirement allowance, payable for 36 life. as follows: 37 1. Normal retirement. — The allowance shall equal 1.70 percent of his average final compensation 38 multiplied by the amount of his creditable service. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for a member who (i) 39 is a person who becomes a member on or after July 1, 2010, or (ii) does not have at least 60 months of 40 creditable service as of January 1, 2013, the allowance shall equal the sum of (a) 1.65 percent of his 41 average final compensation multiplied by the amount of his creditable service performed or purchased on or after January 1, 2013, and (b) 1.70 percent of his average final compensation multiplied by the 42 43 amount of all other creditable service. 44 2. Early retirement; applicable to teachers, state employees, and certain others. — The allowance 45 shall be determined in the same manner as for normal retirement with creditable service and average 46 final compensation being determined as of the date of actual retirement. If the member has less than 30 47 years of service at retirement, the amount of the retirement allowance shall be reduced on an actuarial 48 equivalent basis for the period by which the actual retirement date precedes the earlier of (i) his normal 49 retirement date or (ii) the first date on which he would have completed a total of 30 years of creditable 50 service. The provisions of this subdivision shall apply to teachers and state employees. These provisions 51 shall also apply to employees of any political subdivision that participates in the retirement system if the 52 political subdivision makes the election provided in subdivision 3. 3. Early retirement; applicable to employees of certain political subdivisions, any person who 53 becomes a member on or after July 1, 2010, and any member who does not have at least 60 months of 54 creditable service as of January 1, 2013. — The allowance shall be determined in the same manner as 55 for normal retirement with creditable service and average final compensation being determined as of the 56 57

57 date of actual retirement. If the creditable service of the member equals 30 or more years but the sum of 58 his age at retirement plus his creditable service at retirement is less than 90, the amount of the INTRODUCED

59 retirement allowance shall be reduced on an actuarial equivalent basis for the period by which the actual 60 retirement date precedes the earlier of (i) his normal retirement date or (ii) the first date on which the sum of his then attained age plus his then creditable service would have been equal to 90 or more had 61 he remained in service until such date. If the member has less than 30 years of creditable service, the 62 retirement allowance shall be reduced for the period by which the actual retirement date precedes the 63 64 earlier of (i) his normal retirement date or (ii) the first date on which he would have completed a total 65 of at least 30 years of creditable service and his then creditable service plus his then attained age would 66 have been equal to 90 or more.

The provisions of this subdivision shall apply to the employees of any political subdivision that 67 participates in the retirement system and any other employees as provided by law. The participating 68 political subdivision may, however, elect to provide its employees with the early retirement allowance set forth in subdivision 2. No such election shall be made for a person who becomes a member on or 69 70 after July 1, 2010, or a member who does not have at least 60 months of creditable service as of 71 72 January 1, 2013. Any election pursuant to this subdivision shall be set forth in a legally adopted 73 resolution.

74 Notwithstanding the foregoing, a political subdivision by legally adopted resolution may declare to the Board that, for purposes of this subdivision, subdivisions B 1 and B 3 and subsection D of 75 51.1-153, any person who meets the definition of "emergency medical services personnel" in 76 § 77 § 32.1-111.1 or is employed as a firefighter or law-enforcement officer as those terms are defined in 78 § 15.2-1512.2 (i) shall not be considered a person who becomes a member on or after July 1, 2010, and 79 (ii) shall be deemed to have at least 60 months of creditable service as of January 1, 2013. Such 80 resolution shall be irrevocable.

4. Additional allowance. — In addition to the allowance payable under subdivisions 1, 2, and 3, a 81 member shall receive an additional allowance which shall be the actuarial equivalent, for his attained 82 83 age at the time of retirement, of the excess of his accumulated contributions transferred from the abolished system to the retirement system, including interest credited at the rate of two percent 84 85 compounded annually since the transfer to the date of retirement, over the annual amounts equal to four 86 percent of his annual creditable compensation at the date of abolishment for a period equal to his period 87 of membership in the abolished system.

88 5. 50/10 retirement. — The allowance shall be payable in a monthly stream of payments equal to the 89 greater of (i) the actuarial equivalent of the benefit the member would have received had he terminated 90 service and deferred retirement to age 55 or (ii) the actuarially calculated present value of the member's 91 accumulated contributions, including accrued interest. 92

B. Beneficiary serving in position covered by this title.

1. Except as provided in subdivisions 2, 3, and 4, and 5 if a beneficiary of a service retirement 93 allowance under this chapter or the provisions of Chapters 2 (§ 51.1-200 et seq.), 2.1 (§ 51.1-211 et 94 95 seq.), or 3 (§ 51.1-300 et seq.) is at any time in service as an employee in a position covered for retirement purposes under the provisions of this or any chapter other than Chapter 6 (§ 51.1-600 et seq.), 96 6.1 (§ 51.1-607 et seq.), or 7 (§ 51.1-700 et seq.), his retirement allowance shall cease while so 97 98 employed. Any member who retires and later returns to covered employment shall not be entitled to 99 select a different retirement option for a subsequent retirement.

2. Active members of the General Assembly who are eligible to receive a retirement allowance under 100 101 this title, excluding their service as a member of the General Assembly, shall be eligible to receive a 102 retirement allowance based on their creditable service and average final compensation for service other 103 than as a member of the General Assembly. Such members of the General Assembly shall continue to be reported as any other members of the retirement system. Upon ceasing to serve in the General 104 Assembly, members of the General Assembly receiving a retirement allowance based on their creditable 105 service and average final compensation for service other than as a member of the General Assembly 106 107 shall have their retirement allowance recomputed prospectively to include their service as a member of the General Assembly. Active members of the General Assembly shall be prohibited from receiving a 108 109 service retirement allowance under this title based solely on their service as a member of the General 110 Assembly.

111 3. (Expires July 1, 2025) Any person receiving a service retirement allowance under this chapter, 112 who is hired by a local school board as an instructional or administrative employee required to be 113 licensed by the Board of Education or as a school bus driver, may elect to continue to receive the 114 retirement allowance during such employment, under the following conditions:

115 (a) The person has been receiving such retirement allowance for at least 12 calendar months 116 preceding his employment;

117 (b) The person is not receiving a retirement benefit pursuant to an early retirement incentive program 118 from any local school division within the Commonwealth; and

119 (c) At the time the person is employed, the position to which he is assigned is among those identified by the Superintendent of Public Instruction pursuant to subdivision 4 of § 22.1-23, by the 120 relevant division superintendent, pursuant to § 22.1-70.3, or by the relevant local school board, pursuant to subdivision 9 of § 22.1-79.

123 If the person elects to continue to receive the retirement allowance during the period of such 124 employment, then his service performed and compensation received during such period of time will not
125 increase, decrease, or affect in any way his retirement benefits before, during, or after such employment.

126 4. Any person receiving a service retirement allowance under this title for service as a sworn 127 law-enforcement officer and who is employed in a local school division as a school security officer, as 128 defined in § 9.1-101, may elect to continue to receive the retirement allowance during such employment 129 under the following conditions: (i) the person has a break in service of at least 12 calendar months 130 between retirement for service as a sworn law-enforcement officer and employment as a school security 131 officer; (ii) the person is not receiving a retirement benefit pursuant to an early retirement incentive 132 program from any local school division within the Commonwealth; (iii) the person is not receiving a 133 retirement benefit pursuant to an early retirement incentive program from any employer, as defined in § 134 51.1-124.3; and (iv) the person did not participate in any incentive program established under the second 135 or third enactment of Chapters 152 and 811 of the Acts of Assembly of 1995. If the person elects to 136 continue to receive the retirement allowance during the period of such employment, then his service 137 performed and compensation received during such period of time will not increase, decrease, or affect in 138 any way his retirement benefits before, during, or after such employment, nor shall such person be 139 eligible to receive any retirement benefits available to him pursuant to Chapter 6.1 (§ 51.1-607 et seq.). 140 In addition, the employer shall include the person's compensation in membership payroll subject to 141 employer contributions under § 51.1-145.

142 5. Any person receiving a service retirement allowance under this title for service as a sworn 143 law-enforcement officer, who is subsequently hired by a state or local law-enforcement agency as a 144 law-enforcement officer, as defined in § 9.1-101, may elect to continue to receive the retirement 145 allowance during such employment under the following conditions: (i) the person has a break in service 146 of at least 12 calendar months between retirement for service as a sworn law-enforcement officer and 147 such new employment as a law-enforcement officer; (ii) the person is not receiving a retirement benefit 148 pursuant to an early retirement incentive program from any law-enforcement agency within the 149 Commonwealth; (iii) the person is not receiving a retirement benefit pursuant to an early retirement 150 incentive program from any employer, as defined in § 51.1-124.3; and (iv) the person did not participate 151 in any incentive program established under the second or third enactment of Chapters 152 and 811 of 152 the Acts of Assembly of 1995. If the person elects to continue to receive the retirement allowance during 153 the period of such employment, then his service performed and compensation received during such 154 period of time will not increase, decrease, or affect in any way his retirement benefits before, during, or 155 after such employment, nor shall such person be eligible to receive any retirement benefits available to 156 him pursuant to Chapter 6.1 (§ 51.1-607 et seq.). In addition, the employer shall include the person's 157 compensation in membership payroll subject to employer contributions under § 51.1-145.

158 At least once in each four-year period, in conjunction with the actuarial investigation made under 159 subdivision A 4 of § 51.1-124.22, there shall be an actuarial investigation made of the experience under 160 subdivisions B 3 and, 4, and 5 of this section, and the retirement system shall submit a report to the 161 General Assembly advising it of the results of such investigation.
