18	testator and the executor then qualified in a permanent index that shows the number and date such will
19	was deposited. Such index shall be made available to the public in an online, searchable database.

32	or judges of such court have entered an order authorizing the use of the clerk's office for such purpose.
33	G. The clerk may destroy any will that has been lodged in his office for safekeeping under this
34	section for 100 years or more.
