7 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

8 1. That § 19.2-298 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

9 § 19.2-298. Pronouncement of sentence.

10 After a finding of guilty, sentence shall be pronounced, or decision to suspend the imposition of 11 sentence shall be announced, without unreasonable delay. Pending pronouncement, the court may 12 commit the accused to jail or may continue or alter the bail except that in those cases where the accused 13 is convicted of a murder in the first degree, the court shall commit him to jail and he shall not be 14 allowed bail pending the pronouncement of sentence. Before pronouncing the sentence, the court shall 15 inquire of the accused if he desires to make a statement and if he desires to advance any reason why 16 judgment should not be pronounced against him.

17 Whenever any person willfully and knowingly fails to surrender or submit to the custody of a sheriff
 18 as ordered by a court, any law-enforcement officer, with or without a warrant, may arrest such person 19 anywhere in the Commonwealth. If the arrest is made in the county or city in which the person was 20 ordered to surrender, or in an adjoining county or city, the officer may forthwith return the accused 21 before the proper court. If the arrest is made beyond the foregoing limits, the officer shall proceed 22 according to the provisions of § 19.2-76, and if such arrest is made without a warrant, the officer shall 23 procure a warrant from the magistrate serving the county or city wherein the arrest was made, charging 24 the accused with contempt of court.

25 After the pronouncement of sentence, if the court is aware that the defendant is registered, certified,
 26 or licensed by a health regulatory board or holds a multistate licensure privilege, or is licensed by the 27 Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services in accordance with § 37.2-404, and the 28 defendant has been convicted of a felony, crime involving moral turpitude, or crime that occurred 29 during the course of practice for which such practitioner or person is licensed, the court shall order the 30 clerk of the court to transmit certified copies of sentencing documents to the Director of the Department
 31 of Health Professions or to the Commissioner of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services. Such 32 certified copies of sentencing documents shall be transmitted within 30 days after the sentencing 33 hearing.
