

2022 SESSION

ENROLLED

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 122

Commending Laura Goldzung.

Agreed to by the Senate, February 17, 2022
Agreed to by the House of Delegates, February 21, 2022

WHEREAS, Laura Goldzung of Bristow, the former principal of Baldwin Elementary School in Manassas, received the 2021-2022 National Administrator of the Year award from Project Lead the Way for her commitment to excellence in education; and

WHEREAS, Project Lead the Way, a national nonprofit organization that strives to transform the education system through innovative programs, selected Laura Goldzung from a pool of talented school administrators around the country in recognition of her work to deliver an inspiring and empowering student experience; and

WHEREAS, before joining Baldwin Elementary School in 2016, Laura Goldzung worked in Northern Virginia as an instructional assistant, a literacy tutor, a special education teacher, and a school-based administrator; and

WHEREAS, as principal, Laura Goldzung supported interdisciplinary instruction and unique assessment methods; she implemented Project Lead the Way Launch modules to help students stay better engaged in the learning process and build the skills and knowledge to meet the challenges of the future; and

WHEREAS, in 2021, Laura Goldzung accepted a position with Manassas City Public Schools as director for accountability and assessment and will continue to provide her leadership and expertise to the school district as a whole; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby commend Laura Goldzung on her selection as Project Lead the Way's 2021-2022 National Administrator of the Year; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Laura Goldzung as an expression of the General Assembly's admiration for her achievements in service to young people in Manassas.

ENROLLED

SJ122ER