3 law-enforcement officers; retention of badge.

4 [H 1459]

5 Approved

6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:7 1. That § 9.1-1000 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:8 § 9.1-1000. Retired and former law-enforcement officers; photo identification cards; retention of 9 badge.10 A. Upon the retirement of a law-enforcement officer, as defined in § 9.1-101, the employing 11 department or agency shall, upon request of the retiree, issue the individual a photo identification card
12 indicating that such individual is a retired law-enforcement officer of that department or agency. Upon 13 request, such a card shall also be issued to any law-enforcement officer who retired before July 1, 2004.14 B. Upon request of a former law-enforcement officer with at least 10 years of service who has been 15 diagnosed with post-traumatic stress disorder, as defined in § 65.2-107, by a mental health professional, 16 as defined in § 65.2-107, or who is disabled, the employing department or agency shall issue the 17 individual a photo identification card indicating that such individual is a former law-enforcement officer
18 of that department or agency who honorably served. However, prior to issuing the photo identification 19 card, the employing department or agency shall have it mounted in such a manner that it will be 20 impossible for anyone to carry it on his person. The employing department or agency may deny, for 21 cause, any request made under this subsection, provided that it gives a written explanation to the 22 requester of the grounds for denial. Any individual issued a photo identification card under this 23 subsection shall be ineligible to receive a photo identification card pursuant to subsection A. The 24 provisions of this subsection shall not apply to any individual who was decertified pursuant to 25 § 15.2-1707.26 C. Notwithstanding the provisions of § 52-9.1:1 or any other provision of law to the contrary, on and 27 after July 1, 2023, upon the retirement of a law-enforcement officer who is employed by an agency of 28 the Commonwealth as a law-enforcement officer at the time of his retirement, the employing department
29 or agency shall, upon request of the retiree, award the retiree his badge or other insignia of his office
30 for permanent keeping, provided, however, that the employing department or agency, prior to tendering 31 such badge or insignia, shall have the same mounted in such a manner that it will be impossible for 32 anyone to display such badge or insignia upon his person.
