6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

7 1. That the Code of Virginia is amended by adding a section numbered 55.1-1234.1 as follows:

8 § 55.1-1234.1. Uninhabitable dwelling unit.

9 A. If, at the beginning of the tenancy, a condition exists in a rental dwelling unit that constitutes a 10 fire hazard or serious threat to the life, health, or safety of tenants or occupants of the premises,
11 including an infestation of rodents or a lack of heat, hot or cold running water, electricity, or adequate 12 sewage disposal facilities, the tenant shall be entitled to terminate the rental agreement and receive a 13 full refund of all deposits and rent paid to the landlord, so long as the tenant provides the landlord with 14 written notice of his intent to terminate the rental agreement within seven days of the date on which 15 possession of the dwelling unit was to have transferred to the tenant. Unless the landlord asserts, 16 pursuant to subsection B, that the tenant's termination of the rental agreement is unjustified, the 17 landlord shall refund all deposits and rent paid by the tenant to the tenant on or before the fifteenth 18 business day following the day on which (i) the termination notice is delivered to the landlord or (ii) the 19 tenant vacates the dwelling unit, whichever occurs later.

20 B. If a tenant terminates a rental agreement pursuant to subsection A and the landlord asserts that 21 the tenant is unjustified in his termination of the rental agreement, the landlord shall provide written 22 notice to the tenant of his refusal to accept the tenant's termination notice, along with the reasons for 23 such refusal, within 15 business days following the date on which such termination notice is delivered to 24 the landlord.

25 C. A tenant who has not taken possession or who has vacated the dwelling unit may file an action in 26 a court of competent jurisdiction to contest the landlord's refusal to accept the termination notice, if 27 applicable, and for the return of any deposits and rent paid to the landlord. In any such action, the 28 prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney fees.
