§ 3.1-796.93:1. Authority to control dangerous or vicious dogs.

14 A. The governing body of (i) any county having adopted the urban county executive form of 15 government, (ii) any county contiguous thereto, (iii) any county having adopted the county manager form of government, (iv) any town located, wholly or partly, in such counties, (v) any city contiguous to 16 a county having adopted the urban county executive form of government or surrounded by a county 17 contiguous thereto, (vi) any city having a population of more than 100,000, and (vii) any city or county 18 adjacent to a city having a population of more than 100,000, and (viii) Patrick County may enact an 19 20 ordinance regulating dangerous dogs and vicious dogs.

B. As used in this section, "dangerous dogs" means a canine or canine crossbreed which has bitten, 21 22 attacked, or inflicted injury on a person or companion animal, other than a dog, or killed a companion animal, and "vicious dog" means a canine or canine crossbreed which has (i) killed a person; (ii) 23 24 inflicted serious injury to a person, including multiple bites, serious disfigurement, serious impairment of 25 health, or serious impairment of a bodily function; or (iii) continued to exhibit the behavior which 26 resulted in a previous finding by a court that it is a dangerous dog, provided that its owner has been 27 given notice of that finding. 28

C. Any ordinance enacted pursuant to this section shall prescribe the following provisions:

29 1. Any animal warden who has reason to believe that a canine or canine crossbreed within his 30 jurisdiction is a dangerous dog or vicious dog shall apply to a magistrate of the jurisdiction for the issuance of a summons requiring the owner or custodian, if known, to appear before a general district 31 32 court at a specified time. The summons shall advise the owner of the nature of the proceeding and the 33 matters at issue. The animal warden or owner shall confine the animal until such time as evidence shall 34 be heard and a verdict rendered. The court, through its contempt powers, may compel the owner, 35 custodian or harborer of the animal to produce the animal. If, after hearing the evidence, the court finds 36 that the animal is a dangerous dog, the court shall order the animal's owner to comply with the 37 provisions of the ordinance. If, after hearing the evidence, the court finds that the animal is a vicious 38 dog, the court shall order the animal euthanized in accordance with the provisions of § 3.1-796.119.

39 2. No canine or canine crossbreed shall be found to be a dangerous dog or vicious dog solely 40 because it is a particular breed, nor shall the local governing body prohibit the ownership of a particular 41 breed of canine or canine crossbreed. No animal shall be found to be a dangerous dog or vicious dog if the threat, injury or damage was sustained by a person who was (i) committing, at the time, a crime 42 43 upon the premises occupied by the animal's owner or custodian, (ii) committing, at the time, a willful trespass or other tort upon the premises occupied by the animal's owner or custodian or (iii) provoking, 44 tormenting, or physically abusing the animal, or can be shown to have repeatedly provoked, tormented, 45 abused, or assaulted the animal at other times. No police dog which was engaged in the performance of 46 its duties as such at the time of the acts complained of shall be found to be a dangerous dog or a 47 vicious dog. No animal which, at the time of the acts complained of, was responding to pain or injury, 48 49 or was protecting itself, its kennel, its offspring, or its owner or owner's property, shall be found to be a 50 dangerous dog or a vicious dog.

51 3. The owner of any animal found by a court to be a dangerous dog shall, within ten days of such finding, obtain a dangerous dog registration certificate from the animal warden for a fee of fifty dollars 52 53 in addition to other fees that may be authorized by law. The local animal warden shall also provide the 54 owner with a uniformly designed tag which identifies the animal as a dangerous dog. The owner shall affix the tag to the animal's collar and ensure that the animal wears the collar and tag at all times. All 55 certificates obtained pursuant to this subsection shall be renewed annually for the same fee and in the 56 57 same manner as the initial certificate was obtained.

4. All certificates or renewals thereof required to be obtained under this section shall only be issued 58 59 to persons eighteen years of age or older who present satisfactory evidence (i) of the animal's current HB320

The structure shall 70 be designed to provide the animal with shelter from the elements of nature. When off its owner's 71 72 property, an animal found by a court to be a dangerous dog shall be kept on a leash and muzzled in such a manner as not to cause injury to the animal or interfere with the animal's vision or respiration, 73 74 but so as to prevent it from biting a person or another animal.

6. If the owner of an animal found by a court to be a dangerous dog is a minor, the custodial parent 75 76 or legal guardian shall be responsible for complying with all requirements of this section.
