INTRODUCED

HB1048

60 (e) Except as provided in subsection (f), a person other than an individual knows, has notice, or 61 receives a notification of a fact for purposes of a particular transaction when the individual conducting 62 the transaction knows, has notice, or receives a notification of the fact, or in any event when the fact
63 would have been brought to the individual's attention if the person had exercised reasonable diligence.
64 The person exercises reasonable diligence if it maintains reasonable routines for communicating
65 significant information to the individual conducting the transaction and there is reasonable compliance
66 with the routines. Reasonable diligence does not require an individual acting for the person to 67 communicate information unless the communication is part of the individual's regular duties or the 68 individual has reason to know of the transaction and that the transaction would be materially affected 69 by the information.

70 (f) A partner's knowledge, notice, or receipt of a notification of a fact relating to the partnership is 71 effective immediately as knowledge by, notice to, or receipt of a notification by the partnership, except 72 in the case of a fraud on the partnership committed by or with the consent of that partner.

73 § 50-73.80. Effect of partnership agreement; nonwaivable provisions.

74 (a) Except as provided in subsection (b), relations among the partners and between the partners and
75 the partnership are governed by the partnership agreement. To the extent the partnership agreement
76 does not otherwise provide, this Act governs relations among the partners and between the partners and 77 the partnership.

78 (b) The partnership agreement may not:

79 (1) vary the rights and duties under § 50-73.82 except to eliminate the duty to provide copies of 80 statements to all of the partners;

81 (2) unreasonably restrict the right of access to books and records under § 50-73.99(b);

82 (3) eliminate the duty of loyalty under § 50-73.100(b) or 50-73.109(b)(3), but:

83 (i) the partnership agreement may identify specific types or categories of activities that do not violate
84 the duty of loyalty, if not manifestly unreasonable; or

85 (ii) all of the partners or a number or percentage specified in the partnership agreement may
86 authorize or ratify, after full disclosure of all material facts, a specific act or transaction that otherwise
87 would violate the duty of loyalty;

88 (4) unreasonably reduce the duty of care under § 50-73.100(c) or 50-73.109(b)(3);

89 (5) eliminate the obligation of good faith and fair dealing under § 50-73.100(d), but the partnership
90 by agreement may determine the standards by which the performance of the obligation is to be 91 measured, if the standards are not manifestly unreasonable;

92 (6) vary the power to dissociate as a partner under § 50-73.108(a), except to require the notice
93 under § 50-73.107(1) to be in writing;

94 (7) vary the right of a court to expel a partner in the events specified in § 50-73.107(5);

95 (8) vary the requirement to wind up the partnership business in cases specified in § 50-73.115(4), 96 (5), or (6); or

97 (9) restrict rights of third parties under this Act.

98 § 50-73.81. Supplemental principals of law.

99 (a) Unless displaced by particular provisions of this Act, the principles of law and equity supplement
100 this Act.

101 (b) If an obligation to pay interest arises under this Act and the rate is not specified, the rate is that 102 specified in applicable statute.

103 § 50-73.82. Execution, filing, and recording of statements.

104 (a) A statement may be filed in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth. A certified copy of 105 a statement that is filed in an office in another state may be filed in the office of the Secretary of the 106 Commonwealth. Either filing has the effect provided in this Act with respect to partnership property
107 located in or transactions that occur in this State.

108 (b) A certified copy of a statement that has been filed in the office of the Secretary of the 109 Commonwealth and recorded in the office for recording transfers of real property has the effect
110 provided for recorded statements in this Act. A recorded statement that is not a certified copy of a
111 statement filed in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth does not have the effect provided for 112 recorded statements in this Act.

113 (c) A statement filed by a partnership must be executed by at least two partners. Other statements
114 must be executed by a partner or other person authorized by this Act. An individual who executes a 115 statement as, or on behalf of, a partner or other person named as a partner in a statement shall 116 personally declare under penalty of perjury that the contents of the statement are accurate.

117 (d) A person authorized by this Act to file a statement may amend or cancel the statement by filing 118 an amendment or cancellation that names the partnership, identifies the statement, and states the 119 substance of the amendment or cancellation.

120 (e) A person who files a statement pursuant to this section shall promptly send a copy of the 121 statement to every nonfiling partner and to any other person named as a partner in the statement.

Failure to send a copy of a statement to a partner or other person does not limit the effectiveness of the statement as to a person not a partner.

(f) The Secretary of the Commonwealth may collect a fee for filing or providing a certified copy of a statement. The clerk of the circuit court may collect a fee for recording a statement.

§ 50-73.83. Law governing internal relations.

The law of the jurisdiction in which a partnership has its chief executive office governs the relations among the partners and between the partners and the partnership.

§ 50-73.84. Partnership subject to amendment or repeal of act.

A partnership governed by this Act is subject to any amendment to or repeal of this Act modified.

Article 2.

Nature of partnership.

§ 50-73.85. Partnership as entity.

A partnership is an entity distinct from its partners.

§ 50-73.86. Formation of partnership.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b), the association of two or more persons to carry on as co-owners a business for profit forms a partnership, whether or not the persons intend to form a partnership.

(b) An association formed under a statute other than this Act, a predecessor statute, or a comparable statute of another jurisdiction is not a partnership under this Act.

(c) In determining whether a partnership is formed, the following rules apply:

(1) Joint tenancy, tenancy in common, tenancy by the entireties, joint property, common property, or part ownership does not by itself establish a partnership, even if the co-owners share profits made by the use of the property.

(2) The sharing of gross returns does not by itself establish a partnership, even if the persons sharing them have a joint or common right or interest in property from which the returns are derived.

(3) A person who receives a share of the profits of a business is presumed to be a partner in the business, unless the profits were received in payment:

(i) of a debt by installments or otherwise;

(ii) for services as an independent contractor or of wages or other compensation to an employee;

(iii) of rent;

(iv) of an annuity or other retirement benefit to a beneficiary, representative, or designee of a deceased or retired partner;

(v) of interest or other charge on a loan, even if the amount of payment varies with the profits of the business, including a direct or indirect present or future ownership of the collateral, or rights to income, proceeds, or increase in value derived from the collateral; or

(vi) for the sale of the goodwill of a business or other property by installments or otherwise.

§ 50-73.87. Partnership property. Property acquired by a partnership is property of the partnership and not of the partners individually.

§ 50-73.88. When property is partnership property.

(a) Property is partnership property if acquired in the name of:

(1) the partnership; or

(2) one or more partners with an indication in the instrument transferring title to the property of the person's capacity as a partner or of the existence of a partnership but without an indication of the name of the partnership.

(b) Property is acquired in the name of the partnership by a transfer to:

(1) the partnership in its name; or

(2) one or more partners in their capacity as partners in the partnership, if the name of the partnership is indicated in the instrument transferring title to the property.

(c) Property is presumed to be partnership property if purchased with partnership assets, even if not acquired in the name of the partnership or of one or more partners with an indication in the instrument transferring title to the property of the person's capacity as a partner or of the existence of a partnership.

(d) Property acquired in the name of one or more of the partners, without an indication in the instrument transferring title to the property of the person's capacity as a partner or of the existence of a partnership and without use of partnership assets, is presumed to be separate property, even if used for partnership purposes.

Article 3.

Relations of partners to persons dealing with partnership.

§ 50-73.89. Partner agent of partnership.

Subject to the effect of a statement of partnership authority under § 50-73.91:

(1) Each partner is an agent of the partnership for the purpose of its business. An act of a partner,

183 including the execution of an instrument in the partnership name, for apparently carrying on in the 184 ordinary course the partnership business or business of the kind carried on by the partnership binds the 185 partnership, unless the partner had no authority to act for the partnership in the particular matter and
186 the person with whom the partner was dealing knew or had received a notification that the partner
187 lacked authority.

188 (2) An act of a partner which is not apparently for carrying on in the ordinary course the 189 partnership business or business of the kind carried on by the partnership binds the partnership only if 190 the act was authorized by the other partners.

191 § 50-73.90. Transfer of partnership property.

192 (a) Partnership property may be transferred as follows:

193 (1) Subject to the effect of a statement of partnership authority under § 50-73.91, partnership
194 property held in the name of the partnership may be transferred by an instrument of transfer executed
195 by a partner in the partnership name.

196 (2) Partnership property held in the name of one or more partners with an indication in the 197 instrument transferring the property to them of their capacity as partners or of the existence of a
198 partnership, but without an indication of the name of the partnership, may be transferred by an 199 instrument of transfer executed by the persons in whose name the property is held.

200 (3) Partnership property held in the name of one or more persons other than the partnership,
201 without an indication in the instrument transferring the property to them of their capacity as partners or 202 of the existence of a partnership, may be transferred by an instrument of transfer executed by the 203 persons in whose name the property is held.

204 (b) A partnership may recover partnership property from a transferee only if it proves that execution
205 of the instrument of initial transfer did not bind the partnership under § 50-73.89 and:

206 (1) as to a subsequent transferee who gave value for property transferred under subsection (a)(1)
207 and (2), proves that the subsequent transferee knew or had received a notification that the person who 208 executed the instrument of initial transfer lacked authority to bind the partnership; or

209 (2) as to a transferee who gave value for property transferred under subsection (a)(3), proves that 210 the transferee knew or had received a notification that the property was partnership property and that 211 the person who executed the instrument of initial transfer lacked authority to bind the partnership.

212 (c) A partnership may not recover partnership property from a subsequent transferee if the 213 partnership would not have been entitled to recover the property, under subsectionb), from any earlier 214 transferee of the property.

215 (d) If a person holds all of the partners' interests in the partnership, all of the partnership property
216 vests in that person. The person may execute a document in the name of the partnership to evidence
217 vesting of the property in that person and may file or record the document.

218 § 50-73.91. Statement of partnership authority.

219 (a) A partnership may file a statement of partnership authority, which:

220 (1) must include:

221 (i) the name of the partnership;

222 (ii) the street address of its chief executive office and of one office in this State, if there is one;

223 (iii) the names and mailing addresses of all of the partners or of an agent appointed and maintained
224 by the partnership for the purpose of subsection (b); and

225 (iv) the names of the partners authorized to execute an instrument transferring real property held in 226 the name of the partnership; and

227 (2) may state the authority, or limitations on the authority, of some or all of the partners to enter 228 into other transactions on behalf of the partnership and any other matter.

229 (b) If a statement of partnership authority names an agent, the agent shall maintain a list of the 230 names and mailing addresses of all of the partners and make it available to any person on request for 231 good cause shown.

232 (c) If a filed statement of partnership authority is executed pursuant to § 50-73.82(c) and states the 233 name of the partnership but does not contain all of the other information required by subsection (a), the 234 statement nevertheless operates with respect to a person not a partner as provided in subsections (d)
235 and (e).

236 (d) Except as provided in subsection (g), a filed statement of partnership authority supplements the 237 authority of a partner to enter into transactions on behalf of the partnership as follows:

238 (1) Except for transfers of real property, a grant of authority contained in a filed statement of 239 partnership authority is conclusive in favor of a person who gives value without knowledge to the 240 contrary, so long as and to the extent that a limitation on that authority is not then contained in 241 another filed statement. A filed cancellation of a limitation on authority revives the previous grant of 242 authority.

243 (2) A grant of authority to transfer real property held in the name of the partnership contained in a
244 certified copy of a filed statement of partnership authority recorded in the office for recording transfers of that real property is conclusive in favor of a person who gives value without knowledge to the contrary, so long as and to the extent that a certified copy of a filed statement containing a limitation on that authority is not then of record in the office for recording transfers of that real property. The recording in the office for recording transfers of that real property of a certified copy of a filed cancellation of a limitation on authority revives the previous grant of authority.

(e) A person not a partner is deemed to know of a limitation on the authority of a partner to transfer real property held in the name of the partnership if a certified copy of the filed statement containing the limitation on authority is of record in the office for recording transfers of that real property.

(f) Except as provided in subsections (d) and (e) and §§ 50-73.113 and 50-73.119, a person not a partner is not deemed to know of a limitation on the authority of a partner merely because the limitation is contained in a filed statement.

(g) Unless earlier canceled, a filed statement of partnership authority is canceled by operation of law five years after the date on which the statement, or the most recent amendment, was filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

§ 50-73.92. Statement of denial.

A partner or other person named as a partner in a filed statement of partnership authority or in a list maintained by an agent pursuant to § 50-73.91(b) may file a statement of denial stating the name of the partnership and the fact that is being denied, which may include denial of a person's authority or status as a partner. A statement of denial is a limitation on authority as provided in § 50-73.91(d) and (e).

§ 50-73.93. Partnership liable for partner's actionable conduct..

(a) A partnership is liable for loss or injury caused to a person, or for a penalty incurred, as a result of a wrongful act or omission, or other actionable conduct, of a partner acting in the ordinary course of business of the partnership or with authority of the partnership.

(b) If, in the course of the partnership's business or while acting with authority of the partnership, a partner receives or causes a partnership to receive money or property of a person not a partner and the money or property is misapplied by a partner, the partnership is liable for the loss.

§ 50-73.94. Partner's liability.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b), all partners are liable jointly and severally for all obligations of the partnership unless otherwise agreed by the claimant or provided by law.

(b) A person admitted as a partner into an existing partnership is not personally liable for any partnership obligation incurred before the person's admission as a partner.

§ 50-73.95. Actions by and against partnership and partners.

(a) A partnership may sue and be sued in the name of the partnership.

(b) An action may be brought against the partnership and any or all of the partners in the same action or in separate actions.

(c) A judgment against a partnership is not by itself a judgment against a partner. A judgment against a partnership may not be satisfied from a partner's assets unless there is also a judgment against the partner.

(d) A judgment creditor of a partner may not levy execution against the assets of the partner to satisfy a judgment based on a claim against the partnership unless:

(1) a judgment based on the same claim has been obtained against the partnership and a writ of execution on the judgment has been returned unsatisfied in whole or in part;

(2) the partnership is a debtor in bankruptcy;

(3) the partner has agreed that the creditor need not exhaust partnership assets;

(4) a court grants permission to the judgment creditor to levy execution against the assets of a partner based on a finding that partnership assets subject to execution are clearly insufficient to satisfy the judgment, that exhaustion of partnership assets is excessively burdensome, or that the grant of permission is an appropriate exercise of the court's equitable powers; or

(5) liability is imposed on the partner by law or contract independent of the existence of the partnership.

(e) This section applies to any partnership liability or obligation resulting from a representation by a partner or purported partner under § 50-73.96.

§ 50-73.96. Liability of purported partner.

(a) If a person, by words or conduct, purports to be a partner, or consents to being represented by another as a partner, in a partnership or with one or more persons not partners, the purported partner is liable to a person to whom the representation is made, if that person, relying on the representation, enters into a transaction with the actual or purported partnership. If the representation, either by the purported partner or by a person with the purported partner's consent, is made in a public manner, the purported partner is liable to a person who relies upon the purported partnership even if the purported partner is not aware of being held out as a partner to the claimant. If partnership liability results, the purported partner is liable with respect to that liability as if the purported partner were a partner. If no partnership liability results, the purported partner is liable with respect to that liability jointly and severally with any other person consenting to the representation.

(b) If a person is thus represented to be a partner in an existing partnership, or with one or more persons not partners, the purported partner is an agent of persons consenting to the representation to bind them to the same extent and in the same manner as if the purported partner were a partner, with respect to persons who enter into transactions in reliance upon the representation. If all of the partners of the existing partnership consent to the representation, a partnership act or obligation results. If fewer than all of the partners of the existing partnership consent to the representation, the person acting and the partners consenting to the representation are jointly and severally liable.

(c) A person is not a partner in a partnership merely because the person is named by another in a statement of partnership authority.

(d) A person does not continue to be liable as a partner merely because of a failure to file a statement of dissociation or to amend a statement of partnership authority to indicate the partner's dissociation from the partnership.

(e) Except as provided in subsections (a) and (b), persons who are not partners as to each other are not liable as partners to other persons.

Article 4.

Relations of Partners to Each Other and to Partnership.

§ 50-73.97. Partner's rights and duties.

(a) Each partner is deemed to have an account that is:

(1) credited with an amount equal to the money plus the value of any other property, net of the amount of any liabilities, the partner contributes to the partnership and the partner's share of the partnership profits; and

(2) charged with an amount equal to the money plus the value of any other property, net of the amount of any liabilities, distributed by the partnership to the partner and the partner's share of the partnership losses.

(b) Each partner shall share equally in partnership profits and shall share in partnership losses in proportion to the partner's share of the profits.

(c) A partnership shall reimburse a partner for payments made and indemnify a partner for liabilities incurred by the partner in the ordinary course of the business of the partnership or for the preservation of its business or property.

(d) A partnership shall reimburse a partner for advances to the partnership beyond the amount of capital the partner agreed to contribute.

(e) A payment or advance made by a partner which gives rise to a partnership obligation under subsection (c) or (d) constitutes a loan to the partnership which shall accrue interest from the date of the payment or advance.

(f) Each partner has equal rights in the management and conduct of the partnership business.

(g) A partner may use or possess partnership property only on behalf of the partnership.

(h) A partner is not entitled to remuneration for services performed for the partnership, except for reasonable compensation for services rendered in winding up the business of the partnership.

(i) A person may become a partner only with the consent of all of the partners.

(j) A difference arising as to a matter in the ordinary course of business of a partnership may be decided by a majority of the partners. An act outside the ordinary course of business of a partnership and an amendment to the partnership agreement may be undertaken only with the consent of all of the partners.

(k) This section does not affect the obligations of a partnership to other persons under § 50-73.89.

§ 50-73.98. Distributions in kind.

A partner has no right to receive, and may not be required to accept, a distribution in kind.

§ 50-73.99. Partner's information rights and duties.

(a) A partnership shall keep its books and records, if any, at its chief executive office.

(b) A partnership shall provide partners and their agents and attorneys access to its books and records. It shall provide former partners and their agents and attorneys access to books and records pertaining to the period during which they were partners. The right of access provides the opportunity to inspect and copy books and records during ordinary business hours. A partnership may impose a reasonable charge, covering the costs of labor and material, for copies of documents furnished.

(c) Each partner and the partnership shall furnish to a partner, and to the legal representative of a deceased partner or partner under legal disability:

(1) without demand, any information concerning the partnership's business and affairs reasonably required for the proper exercise of the partner's rights and duties under the partnership agreement or this Act; and

(2) on demand, any other information concerning the partnership's business and affairs, except to the extent the demand or the information demanded is unreasonable or otherwise improper under the circumstances.

§ 50-73.100. General standards of partner's conduct.

(a) The only fiduciary duties a partner owes to the partnership and the other partners are the duty of loyalty and the duty of care set forth in subsections (b) and (c).

(b) A partner's duty of loyalty to the partnership and the other partners is limited to the following:

(1) to account to the partnership and hold as trustee for it any property, profit, or benefit derived by the partner in the conduct and winding up of the partnership business or derived from a use by the partner of partnership property, including the appropriation of a partnership opportunity;

(2) to refrain from dealing with the partnership in the conduct or winding up of the partnership business as or on behalf of a party having an interest adverse to the partnership; and

(3) to refrain from competing with the partnership in the conduct of the partnership business before the dissolution of the partnership.

(c) A partner's duty of care to the partnership and the other partners in the conduct and winding up of the partnership business is limited to refraining from engaging in grossly negligent or reckless conduct, intentional misconduct, or a knowing violation of law.

(d) A partner shall discharge the duties to the partnership and the other partners under this Act or under the partnership agreement and exercise any rights consistently with the obligation of good faith and fair dealing.

(e) A partner does not violate a duty or obligation under this Act or under the partnership agreement merely because the partner's conduct furthers the partner's own interest.

(f) A partner may lend money to and transact other business with the partnership and as to each loan or transaction, the rights and obligations of the partner are the same as those of a person who is not a partner, subject to other applicable law.

(g) This section applies to a person winding up the partnership business as the personal or legal representative of the last surviving partner as if the person were a partner.

§ 50-73.101. Actions by partnership and partners.

(a) A partnership may maintain an action against a partner for a breach of the partnership agreement, or for the violation of a duty to the partnership, causing harm to the partnership.

(b) A partner may maintain an action against the partnership or another partner for legal or equitable relief, with or without an accounting as to partnership business, to:

(1) enforce the partner's rights under the partnership agreement;

(2) enforce the partner's rights under this Act, including:

(i) the partner's rights under §§ 50-73.97, 50-73.99, and 50-73.100;

(ii) the partner's right on dissociation to have the partner's interest in the partnership purchased pursuant to § 50-73.110 or enforce any other right under Article 6 or 7; or

(iii) the partner's right to compel a dissolution and winding up of the partnership business under § 50-73.115 or enforce any other right under Article 8; or

(3) enforce the rights and otherwise protect the interests of the partner, including rights and interests arising independently of the partnership relationship.

(c) The accrual of, and any time limitation on, a right of action for a remedy under this section is governed by other law. A right to an accounting upon a dissolution and winding up does not revive a claim barred by law.

§ 50-73.102. Continuation of partnership beyond definite term or particular undertaking.

(a) If a partnership for a definite term or particular undertaking is continued, without an express agreement, after the expiration of the term or completion of the undertaking, the rights and duties of the partners remain the same as they were at the expiration or completion, so far as is consistent with a partnership at will.

(b) If the partners, or those of them who habitually acted in the business during the term or undertaking, continue the business without any settlement or liquidation of the partnership, they are presumed to have agreed that the partnership will continue.

Article 5.

Transferees and Creditors of Partner.

§ 50-73.103. Partner not co-owner of partnership property.

A partner is not a co-owner of partnership property and has no interest in partnership property which can be transferred, either voluntarily or involuntarily.

§ 50-73.104. Partner's transferable interest in partnership.

The only transferable interest of a partner in the partnership is the partner's share of the profits and losses of the partnership and the partner's right to receive distributions. The interest is personal property.

§ 50-73.105. Transfer of partner's transferable interest.

(a) A transfer, in whole or in part, of a partner's transferable interest in the partnership:

(1) is permissible;

(2) does not by itself cause the partner's dissociation or a dissolution and winding up of the partnership business; and

(3) does not, as against the other partners or the partnership, entitle the transferee, during the continuance of the partnership, to participate in the management or conduct of the partnership business, to require access to information concerning partnership transactions, or to inspect or copy the partnership books or records.

(b) A transferee of a partner's transferable interest in the partnership has a right:

(1) to receive, in accordance with the transfer, distributions to which the transferor would otherwise be entitled;

(2) to receive upon the dissolution and winding up of the partnership business, in accordance with the transfer, the net amount otherwise distributable to the transferor; and

(3) to seek under § 50-73.115(6) a judicial determination that it is equitable to wind up the partnership business.

(c) In a dissolution and winding up, a transferee is entitled to account only from the date of the latest account agreed to by all of the partners.

(d) Upon transfer, the transferor retains the rights and duties of a partner other than the interest in distributions transferred.

(e) A partnership need not give effect to a transferee's rights under this section until it has notice of the transfer.

(f) A transfer of a partner's transferable interest in the partnership in violation of a restriction on transfer contained in the partnership agreement is ineffective as to a person having notice of the restriction at the time of transfer.

§ 50-73.106. Partner's transferable interest subject to charging order..

(a) On application by a judgment creditor of a partner or of a partner's transferee, a court having jurisdiction may charge the transferable interest of the judgment debtor to satisfy the judgment. The court may appoint a receiver of the share of the distributions due or to become due to the judgment debtor in respect of the partnership and make all other orders, directions, accounts, and inquiries the judgment debtor might have made or which the circumstances of the case may require.

(b) A charging order constitutes a lien on the judgment debtor's transferable interest in the partnership. The court may order a foreclosure of the interest subject to the charging order at any time. The purchaser at the foreclosure sale has the rights of a transferee.

(c) At any time before foreclosure, an interest charged may be redeemed:

(1) by the judgment debtor;

(2) with property other than partnership property, by one or more of the other partners; or

(3) with partnership property, by one or more of the other partners with the consent of all of the partners whose interests are not so charged.

(d) This Act does not deprive a partner of a right under exemption laws with respect to the partner's interest in the partnership.

(e) This section provides the exclusive remedy by which a judgment creditor of a partner or partner's transferee may satisfy a judgment out of the judgment debtor's transferable interest in the partnership.

Article 6.

§ 50-73.108. Partner's power to dissociate; wrongful dissociation.

(a) A partner has the power to dissociate at any time, rightfully or wrongfully, by express will pursuant to § 50-73.84(1).

(b) A partner's dissociation is wrongful only if:

(1) it is in breach of an express provision of the partnership agreement; or

(2) in the case of a partnership for a definite term or particular undertaking, before the expiration of the term or the completion of the undertaking:

(i) the partner withdraws by express will, unless the withdrawal follows the dissociation of another partner and results in a right to dissolve the partnership under § 50-73.115(2)(i);

(ii) the partner is expelled by judicial determination under § 50-73.50-73.84(5);

(iii) the partner is dissociated by becoming a debtor in bankruptcy; or

(c) A partner who wrongfully dissociates is liable to the partnership and to the other partners for damages caused by the dissociation. The liability is in addition to any other obligation of the partner to the partnership or to the other partners.

§ 50-73.109. Effect of partner's dissociation.

(a) If a partner's dissociation results in a dissolution and winding up of the partnership business, Article 8 applies; otherwise, Article 7 applies.

(b) Upon a partner's dissociation:

(1) the partner's right to participate in the management and conduct of the partnership business terminates, except as provided in § 50-73.117;

(3) the partner's duty of loyalty under § 50-73.100(b)(1) and (2) and duty of care under § 50-73.100(c) continue only with regard to matters arising and events occurring before the partner's dissociation, unless the partner participates in winding up the partnership's business pursuant to § 50-73.117.

Article 7.

Partner's Dissociation when Business Not Wound Up.

§ 50-73.110. Purchase of dissociated partner's interest.

(a) If a partner is dissociated from a partnership without resulting in a dissolution and winding up of the partnership business under § 50-73.115, the partnership shall cause the dissociated partner's interest in the partnership to be purchased for a buyout price determined pursuant to subsection (b).

552 (b) The buyout price of a dissociated partner's interest is the amount that would have been
553 distributable to the dissociating partner under § 50-73.121(b) if, on the date of dissociation, the assets
554 of the partnership were sold at a price equal to the greater of the liquidation value or the value based 555 on a sale of the entire business as a going concern without the dissociated partner and the partnership 556 were wound up as of that date. Interest must be paid from the date of dissociation to the date of 557 payment.

558 (c) Damages for wrongful dissociation under § 50-73.108(b), and all other amounts owing, whether
559 or not presently due, from the dissociated partner to the partnership, must be offset against the buyout
560 price. Interest must be paid from the date the amount owed becomes due to the date of payment.

561 (d) A partnership shall indemnify a dissociated partner whose interest is being purchased against all 562 partnership liabilities, whether incurred before or after the dissociation, except liabilities incurred by an 563 act of the dissociated partner under § 50-73.111.

564 (e) If no agreement for the purchase of a dissociated partner's interest is reached within 120 days
565 after a written demand for payment, the partnership shall pay, or cause to be paid, in cash to the 566 dissociated partner the amount the partnership estimates to be the buyout price and accrued interest,
567 reduced by any offsets and accrued interest under subsection (c).

568 (f) If a deferred payment is authorized under subsection (h), the partnership may tender a written
569 offer to pay the amount it estimates to be the buyout price and accrued interest, reduced by any offsets
570 under subsection (c), stating the time of payment, the amount and type of security for payment, and the 571 other terms and conditions of the obligation.

572 (g) The payment or tender required by subsection (e) or (f) must be accompanied by the following:

573 (1) a statement of partnership assets and liabilities as of the date of dissociation;

574 (2) the latest available partnership balance sheet and income statement, if any;

575 (3) an explanation of how the estimated amount of the payment was calculated; and

576 (4) written notice that the payment is in full satisfaction of the obligation to purchase unless, within 577 120 days after the written notice, the dissociated partner commences an action to determine the buyout
578 price, any offsets under subsection (c), or other terms of the obligation to purchase.

579 (h) A partner who wrongfully dissociates before the expiration of a definite term or the completion of 580 a particular undertaking is not entitled to payment of any portion of the buyout price until the 581 expiration of the term or completion of the undertaking, unless the partner establishes to the satisfaction
582 of the court that earlier payment will not cause undue hardship to the business of the partnership. A 583 deferred payment must be adequately secured and bear interest.

584 (i) A dissociated partner may maintain an action against the partnership, pursuant to 585 § 50-73.101(b)(2)(ii), to determine the buyout price of that partner's interest, any offsets under 586 subsection (c), or other terms of the obligation to purchase. The action must be commenced within 120
587 days after the partnership has tendered payment or an offer to pay or within one year after written
588 demand for payment if no payment or offer to pay is tendered. The court shall determine the buyout
589 price of the dissociated partner's interest, any offset due under subsection (c), and accrued interest, and 590 enter judgment for any additional payment or refund. If deferred payment is authorized under subsection 591 (h), the court shall also determine the security for payment and other terms of the obligation to 592 purchase. The court may assess reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of appraisers or 593 other experts for a party to the action, in amounts the court finds equitable, against a party that the 594 court finds acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith. The finding may be based on the 595 partnership's failure to tender payment or an offer to pay or to comply with subsection (g)

596 § 50-73.111. Dissociated partner's power to bind and liability to partnership.

597 (a) For two years after a partner dissociates without resulting in a dissolution and winding up of the 598 partnership business, the partnership, including a surviving partnership under Article 9, is bound by an 599 act of the dissociated partner which would have bound the partnership under § 50-73.89 before
600 dissociation only if at the time of entering into the transaction the other party:

601 (1) reasonably believed that the dissociated partner was then a partner;

602 (2) did not have notice of the partner's dissociation; and

603 (3) is not deemed to have had knowledge under § 50-73.91(e) or notice under § 50-73.113(c).

604 (b) A dissociated partner is liable to the partnership for any damage caused to the partnership 605 arising from an obligation incurred by the dissociated partner after dissociation for which the 606 partnership is liable under subsection (a).

607 § 50-73.112. Dissociated partner's liability to other persons.

608 (a) A partner's dissociation does not of itself discharge the partner's liability for a partnership
609 obligation incurred before dissociation. A dissociated partner is not liable for a partnership obligation
610 incurred after dissociation, except as provided in subsection (b).

611 (b) A partner who dissociates without resulting in a dissolution and winding up of the partnership
612 business is liable as a partner to the other party in a transaction entered into by the partnership, or a 613 surviving partnership under Article 9, within two years after the partner's dissociation, only if at the time of entering into the transaction the other party:

(1) reasonably believed that the dissociated partner was then a partner;

(2) did not have notice of the partner's dissociation; and

(3) is not deemed to have had knowledge under § 50-73.91(e) or notice under § 50-73.113(c).

(c) By agreement with the partnership creditor and the partners continuing the business, a dissociated partner may be released from liability for a partnership obligation.

(d) A dissociated partner is released from liability for a partnership obligation if a partnership creditor, with notice of the partner's dissociation but without the partner's consent, agrees to a material alteration in the nature or time of payment of a partnership obligation.

§ 50-73.113. Statement of dissociation.

(a) A dissociated partner or the partnership may file a statement of dissociation stating the name of the partnership and that the partner is dissociated from the partnership.

(b) A statement of dissociation is a limitation on the authority of a dissociated partner for the purposes of § 50-73.91(d) and (e).

(c) For the purposes of §§ 50-73.111(a)(3) and 50-73.112(b)(3), a person not a partner is deemed to have notice of the dissociation § 50-73.124 days after the statement of dissociation is filed.

§ 50-73.114. Continued use of partnership name.

Continued use of a partnership name, or a dissociated partner's name as part thereof, by partners continuing the business does not of itself make the dissociated partner liable for an obligation of the partners or the partnership continuing the business.

Article 8.

Winding up Partnership Business.

§ 50-73.115. Events causing dissolution and winding up of partnership business.

A partnership is dissolved, and its business must be wound up, only upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

(1) in a partnership at will, the partnership's having notice from a partner, other than a partner who is dissociated under § 50-73.107(2) through (10), of that partner's express will to withdraw as a partner, or on a later date specified by the partner;

(2) in a partnership for a definite term or particular undertaking:

(i) within 90 days after a partner's wrongful dissociation under § 50-73.108(b) or a partner's dissociation by death or otherwise under § 50-73.107(6) through (10), the express will of at least half of the remaining partners to wind up the partnership business, for which purpose a partner's rightful association pursuant to § 50-73.108 (b) (2) (i) constitutes the expression of that partner's will;

(ii) the express will of all of the partners to wind up the partnership business; or

(iii) the expiration of the term or the completion of the undertaking;

(3) an event agreed to in the partnership agreement resulting in the winding up of the partnership business;

(4) an event that makes it unlawful for all or substantially all of the business of the partnership to be continued, but a cure of illegality within § 50-73.124 days after notice to the partnership of the event is effective retroactively to the date of the event for purposes of this section;

(5) on application by a partner, a judicial determination that:

(ii) another partner has engaged in conduct relating to the partnership business which makes it not reasonably practicable to carry on the business in partnership with that partner; or

(iii) it is not otherwise reasonably practicable to carry on the partnership business in conformity with the partnership agreement; or

(6) on application by a transferee of a partner's transferable interest, a judicial determination that it is equitable to wind up the partnership business:

(i) after the expiration of the term or completion of the undertaking, if the partnership was for a definite term or particular undertaking at the time of the transfer or entry of the charging order that gave rise to the transfer; or

(ii) at any time, if the partnership was a partnership at will at the time of the transfer or entry of the charging order that gave rise to the transfer.

§ 50-73.116. Partnership continues after dissolution.

(a) Subject to subsection (b), a partnership continues after dissolution only for the purpose of winding up its business. The partnership is terminated when the winding up of its business is completed.

(b) At any time after the dissolution of a partnership and before the winding up of its business is completed, all of the partners, including any dissociating partner other than a wrongfully dissociating partner, may waive the right to have the partnership's business wound up and the partnership terminated. In that event:

(i) the partnership resumes carrying on its business as if dissolution had never occurred and any

675 liability incurred by the partnership or a partner after the dissolution and before the waiver is 676 determined as if dissolution had never occurred; and

677 (ii) the rights of a third party accruing under § 50-73.118 (1) or arising out of conduct in reliance
678 on the dissolution before the third party knew or received a notification of the waiver may not be 679 adversely affected.

680 § 50-73.117. Right to wind up partnership business.

681 (a) After dissolution, a partner who has not wrongfully dissociated may participate in winding up the 682 partnership's business, but on application of any partner, partner's legal representative, or transferee, 683 the designate the appropriate court, for good cause shown, may order judicial supervision of the 684 winding up.

685 (b) The legal representative of the last surviving partner may wind up a partnership's business.

686 (c) A person winding up a partnership's business may preserve the partnership business or property
687 as a going concern for a reasonable time, prosecute and defend actions and proceedings, whether civil,
688 criminal, or administrative, settle and close the partnership's business, dispose of and transfer the 689 partnership's property, discharge the partnership's liabilities, distribute the assets of the partnership
690 pursuant to § 50-73.121, settle disputes by mediation or arbitration, and perform other necessary acts.

691 § 50-73.118. Partner's power to bind partnership after dissolution.

692 Subject to § 50-73.119, a partnership is bound by a partner's act after dissolution that:

693 (1) is appropriate for winding up the partnership business; or

694 (2) would have bound the partnership under § 50-73.89 before dissolution, if the other party to the 695 transaction did not have notice of the dissolution.

696 § 50-73.119. Statement of dissolution.

697 (a) After dissolution, a partner who has not wrongfully dissociated may file a statement of 698 dissolution stating the name of the partnership and that the partnership has dissolved and is winding up
699 its business.

700 (b) A statement of dissolution cancels a filed statement of partnership authority for the purposes of 701 § 50-73.91(d) and is a limitation on authority for the purposes of § 50-73.91(e).

702 (c) For the purposes of §§ 50-73.89 and 50-73.118, a person not a partner is deemed to have notice
703 of the dissolution and the limitation on the partners' authority as a result of the statement of dissolution
704 § 50-73.124 days after it is filed.

705 (d) After filing and, if appropriate, recording a statement of dissolution, a dissolved partnership may 706 file and, if appropriate, record a statement of partnership authority which will operate with respect to a
707 person not a partner as provided in § 50-73.91(d) and (e) in any transaction, whether or not the 708 transaction is appropriate for winding up the partnership business.

713 § 50-73.118(2) by an act that is not appropriate for winding up the partnership business is liable to the 715 § 50-73.121. Settlement of accounts and contributions among partners.

716 (a) In winding up a partnership's business, including the contributions of the partners required by 717 this section, the assets of the partnership must be applied to discharge its obligations to creditors,
718 including, to the extent permitted by law, partners who are creditors. Any surplus must be applied to 719 pay in cash the net amount distributable to partners in accordance with their right to distributions 720 under subsection (b).

721 (b) Each partner is entitled to a settlement of all partnership accounts upon winding up the 722 partnership business. In settling accounts among the partners, the profits and losses that result from the 723 liquidation of the partnership assets must be credited and charged to the partners' accounts. The 724 partnership shall make a distribution to a partner in an amount equal to any excess of the credits over 725 the charges in the partner's account. A partner shall contribute to the partnership an amount equal to

729 obligations. A partner or partner's legal representative may recover from the other partners any 730 contributions the partner makes to the extent the amount contributed exceeds that partner's share of the 731 partnership obligations.

732 (d) After the settlement of accounts, each partner shall contribute, in the proportion in which the 733 partner shares partnership losses, the amount necessary to satisfy partnership obligations that were not 734 known at the time of the settlement.

735 (e) The estate of a deceased partner is liable for the partner's obligation to contribute to the 736 partnership.

(f) An assignee for the benefit of creditors of a partnership or a partner, or a person appointed by a court to represent creditors of a partnership or a partner, may enforce a partner's obligation to contribute to the partnership.
