HOUSE BILL NO. 1642

Offered January 16, 1995

A BILL to amend and reenact § 24.2-710 of the Code of Virginia and to amend the Code of Virginia by adding a section numbered 24.2-705.1, relating to absentee voting; extended period for absentee voting; administrative duties and lists of absentee voters.

Patron—Hull

Referred to Committee on Privileges and Elections

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 24.2-710 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted and that the Code of Virginia is amended by adding a section numbered 24.2-705.1, as follows:

§ 24.2-705.1. Late applications and in-person absentee voting for business emergencies.

Any person registered and otherwise qualified to vote who becomes obligated after 5:00 p.m. on the Saturday before an election to be absent from his county or city on election day for a purpose pertaining to his business, profession, or occupation may apply for an absentee ballot and vote absentee in person pursuant to this section and subject to the following conditions:

1. The applicant applies in person for an absentee ballot on the Monday immediately preceding the election, before noon, at the principal office of the registrar;

2. The applicant signs a statement, which shall be deemed part of his absentee ballot application and subject to felony penalties for making false statements pursuant to § 24.2-1016, that he is required to leave the county or city before the opening of the polls on election day for a purpose pertaining to his business, profession or occupation and that he did not have notice or knowledge of such required travel prior to 5:00 p.m. on the immediately preceding Saturday; and

3. The applicant provides a statement signed by his superior at his business, profession, or occupation that confirms that the applicant is required to leave the county or city before the opening of the polls on election day for a purpose pertaining to his business, profession or occupation and that the applicant did not have notice or knowledge of such required travel prior to 5:00 p.m. on the immediately preceding Saturday, which statement shall also be subject to felony penalties for making false statements pursuant to § 24.2-1016,

§ 24.2-710. Further duties of electoral board and general registrar; absentee voter applicant lists.

On receipt of an absentee ballot, the electoral board or general registrar shall mark the date of receipt in the appropriate column opposite the name and address of the voter on the absentee voter applicant list maintained in the general registrar's office. A board member or registrar shall deposit the return envelope and the unopened ballot envelope in an appropriate container provided for the purpose, in which they shall remain until the day of the election.

On the day before the election, the general registrar shall (i) make out in triplicate on a form prescribed by the State Board the absentee voter applicant list containing the names of all persons who applied for an absentee ballot through the third day before the election and (ii) by noon on the day before the election, deliver two copies of the list to the electoral board and post a copy in the general registrar's office. The general registrar shall make out a supplementary list containing the names of all persons voting absentee in person pursuant to § 24.2-705.1 for delivery and posting by 4:00 p.m. on the day before the election. The supplementary list shall be deemed part of the absentee voter applicant list and shall be prepared and delivered in accordance with the instructions of the State Board. The general registrar shall maintain one copy of the list in his office for two years as a public record open for inspection during regular office hours.

On the day before the election, the electoral board shall deliver one copy of the list provided to it by the general registrar to the chief officer of election for each precinct. The list shall be attested by the secretary of the electoral board who shall be responsible for the delivery of the attested lists to the chief officer of election for each precinct.

Absentee ballots shall be accepted only from voters whose names appear on the attested list.

Before the polls close on the day of the election, the electoral board shall deliver the absentee ballot containers to, and obtain a receipt from, the officers of election at each appropriate precinct. The containers shall be sealed prior to delivery to the officers and shall contain the sealed absentee ballots, the accompanying return envelopes, and a copy of the absentee voter applicant list for each precinct.

If the county or city uses a central absentee voter precinct pursuant to § 24.2-712, the lists and containers shall be delivered, as provided in this section, to the officers of election for the absentee precinct.
