5 Approved

6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:7 1. That § 19.2-81.3 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

8 § 19.2-81.3. Arrest without a warrant authorized in cases of assault and battery against a family or 9 household member; procedure, etc.

10 A. Any law-enforcement officer may arrest, in the same manner as provided in § 19.2-81, persons for 11 crimes involving a violation of § 18.2-57.2.

12 B. A law-enforcement officer investigating any complaint of assault and battery against a family or 13 household member may, upon request, transport an abused person to a hospital, safe shelter, or 14 magistrate.

15 C. A law-enforcement officer who has reasonable grounds to believe that assault and battery against 16 a family or household member has occurred shall file a written report of the incident with his 17 department.

18 D. Any law-enforcement officer may, with or without a warrant, take the following course of action 19 where the officer has reasonable grounds to believe that a person committed assault and battery against 20 a family or household member, whether or not that assault and battery occurred in his presence:

21 1. The law-enforcement officer may make reasonable inquiry of the family or household member 22 who the officer believes is the victim of assault and battery and other witnesses as there may be.

23 2. If a law-enforcement officer has reasonable grounds to believe that there is probable danger of 24 further assault and battery by a person upon a family or household member, the law-enforcement officer 25 may petition for an emergency protective order pursuant to § 16.1-253.4.

26 E. As used in this section, "family or household member" means (i) the person's spouse, whether or 27 not he or she resides in the same home with the person, (ii) the person's former spouse, whether or not 28 he or she resides in the same home with the person, (iii) the person's parents, stepparents, children, 29 stepchildren, brothers and sisters, grandparents and grandchildren who reside in the same home with the 30 person, (iv) the person's mother-in-law, father-in-law, sons-in-law, daughters-in-law, brothers-in-law and 31 sisters-in-law who reside in the same home with the person, (v) any person who has a child in common 32 with the defendant, whether or not the person and that person have been married or have resided 33 together at any time, or (vi) any individual who cohabits or who, within the previous twelve months, 34 cohabited with the person, and any children of either of them then residing in the same home with the 35 defendant.

36 F. As used in this section, a "law-enforcement officer" means (i) any full-time or part-time employee 37 of a police department or sheriff's office which is part of or administered by the Commonwealth or any 38 political subdivision thereof, and who is responsible for the prevention and detection of crime and the 39 enforcement of the penal, traffic or highway laws of this Commonwealth and (ii) any member of an 40 auxiliary police force established pursuant to subsection B of § 15.1-159.2. Part-time employees are 41 compensated officers who are not full-time employees as defined by the employing police department or 42 sheriff's office.
