§ 2.1-114.7:2. Rights of state employees on leave without pay-layoff.

A. Effective January 1, 1995, any employee of the Commonwealth who is placed on leave without pay-layoff and for whom reassignment within his agency is not possible because (i) there is no available position for which the employee is qualified or (ii) the position offered to the employee requires relocation or a reduction in salary, shall be entitled to exercise his preferential employment rights for any vacant position in his agency for which he is qualified so long as he applies for the position and presents his preferential hiring form on or before the closing date for applications.
