126 B. On and after January 1, 1975, no additional circuit court judge shall be authorized or provided for 127 any judicial circuit until the Judicial Council has made a study of the need for such additional circuit
128 court judge and has reported its findings and recommendations to the Courts of Justice Committees of 129 the House of Delegates and Senate. In its study, the Judicial Council shall consider, and report its 130 findings regarding, the reduced case load that will occur if Family Court judgeships are authorized in 131 accordance with the provisions of Chapter 4.1, Article 2 (§ 16.1-69.6:1 et seq.) of Title 16.1. Nor shall 132 the boundary of any judicial circuit be changed until a study has been made by the Judicial Council and 133 a report of its findings and recommendations made to said Committees.

134 C. If the Judicial Council finds the need for an additional circuit court judge after a study is made 135 pursuant to subsection B, the study shall be made available to the State Compensation Board and the 136 Courts of Justice Committees of the House of Delegates and Senate. The State Compensation Board 137 shall make a study of the need to provide additional courtroom security and deputy court clerk staffing.
138 This study shall be reported to the Courts of Justice Committees of the House of Delegates and the 139 Senate, and to the Department of Planning and Budget.
