6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:7 1. That § 55-248.18 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

8 § 55-248.18. Access.

9 A. The tenant shall not unreasonably withhold consent to the landlord to enter into the dwelling unit 10 in order to inspect the premises, make necessary or agreed repairs, decorations, alterations or 11 improvements, supply necessary or agreed services or exhibit the dwelling unit to prospective or actual 12 purchasers, mortgagees, tenants, workmen or contractors. The landlord may enter the dwelling unit 13 without consent of the tenant in case of emergency. The landlord shall not abuse the right of access or 14 use it to harass the tenant. Except in case of emergency or if it is impractical to do so, the landlord shall 15 give the tenant reasonable notice of his intent to enter and may enter only at reasonable times. The 16 landlord shall give written notice to the tenant no less than forty-eight hours prior to his application of 17 pesticide in tenant's dwelling unit unless the tenant agrees to a shorter notification period. If a tenant
18 requests the application of the pesticide, the forty-eight hour notice requirement is not required. The 19 landlord has no other right to access except by court order or that permitted by §§ 55-248.32 and 20 55-248.33 or if the tenant has abandoned or surrendered the premises.

21 B. The tenant may install, within the apartment, new burglary prevention, including chain latch 22 devices approved by the landlord, and fire detection devices that the tenant may believe necessary to 23 insure his safety, provided:

24 1. Installation does no permanent damage to any part of the apartment.

25 2. A duplicate of all keys and instructions of how to operate all devices are given to the landlord or 26 landlord's agent.27 3. Upon termination of occupancy the tenant shall, upon request of the landlord, remove all such 28 devices and repair all damages.
