2. Persons acting as attorney-in-fact, except persons so acting and receiving compensation where the primary purpose is to avoid the licensure requirements of this chapter, under a power of attorney issued by the property's owner solely for the purpose of authorizing the final performance required of the owner under a contract of sale or exchange or a lease;

3. Service rendered by an attorney-at-law in the performance of his duties as such;

4. A person acting as a receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, administrator or executor, or any person selling real estate under order of any court;

5. A trustee acting under a trust agreement, deed of trust, or will, or the regular salaried employees thereof;

6. Any corporation managing rental housing when the officers, directors, and members in the ownership corporation and the management corporation are the same and the management corporation manages no other property for other persons, partnerships, associations, or corporations.

7. Any existing tenant of a residential dwelling unit who refers a prospective tenant to the owner of the unit or to the owner's duly authorized agent or employee and for the referral receives, or is offered, a referral fee from the owner, agent or employee.

B. The provisions of this chapter shall not prohibit the selling of real estate (i) at public auction by an auctioneer licensed in accordance with Chapter 6 (§ 54.1-600 et seq.) of this title, when employed for such purpose by the owner ~~or owners~~ of such real estate, (ii) by an attorney-at-law in the performance of his duties as such, (iii) by a receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, administrator or executor, a special commissioner or any person selling real estate under order of court, or (iv) by a trustee acting under the trust agreement, deed of trust or will, or the regular salaried employees thereof. However, an auctioneer shall not advertise that he is authorized to sell real estate. An auctioneer may advertise for sale at public auction any real estate when employed to do so as herein provided, and may advertise that he is authorized to auction real estate at public auction.

C. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any salaried person employed by a licensed real estate broker for and on behalf of the owner of any real estate or the improvements thereon which the licensed broker has contracted to manage for the owner if such salaried employee is employed on the premises of such real estate and limited in employment to exhibiting residential units on such real estate to prospective tenants, to providing such prospective tenants with information about the lease of such residential units, to accepting applications for lease of such units, and to accepting security deposits and rentals for such units. Such deposits and rentals shall be made payable to the owner or the broker employed by such owner. The salaried employee shall not negotiate the amounts of such security deposits or rentals and shall not negotiate any leases on behalf of such owner or broker.
