432 limitations contained in its license, such children as may be entrusted or committed to it by the parents, 433 guardians, relatives or other persons having legal custody thereof, or committed by any court of 434 competent jurisdiction. The agency shall, within the terms of its license and the agreement or order by 435 which such child is entrusted or committed to its care, have custody and control of every child so 436 entrusted or committed and accepted, until he is lawfully discharged, has been adopted, or has attained 437 his majority.

438 An agency which is licensed as a child-placing agency by the Department of Social Services and 439 certified as a proprietary school for students with disabilities by the Department of Education shall not 440 be required to take custody of any child placed in its special education program but shall enter into a 441 placement agreement with the parents or guardian of the child concerning the respective responsibilities 442 of the agency and the parents or guardian for the care and control of the child. Such an agency shall 443 conform with all other legal requirements of licensed child-placing agencies including the provisions of 444 §§ 16.1-281 and 16.1-282.

445 A licensed private child-placing agency may accept placement of a child through an agreement with 446 a local department of social services where the local department of social services retains legal custody 447 of the child or where the parents or legal guardian of the child retain legal custody but have entered into 448 a placement agreement with the local department or the public agency designated by the community 451 with §§ 16.1-281 and 16.1-282.

452 A child-caring institution licensed as a temporary emergency shelter may accept a child for 453 placement provided that verbal agreement for placement is obtained from the parents, guardians, 454 relatives or other persons having legal custody thereof, within eight hours of the child's arrival at the 456 and the facility representative within twenty-four hours of the child's arrival or by the end of the next 457 business day after the child's arrival.

458 B. Whenever a licensed child-welfare agency accepts custody of a child pursuant to a temporary 459 entrustment agreement entered into under the authority of this section, except when the entrustment 460 agreement between the parent or parents and the licensed child-welfare agency provides for the 461 termination of all parental rights and responsibilities with respect to the child, such child-welfare agency, 462 except a child-caring institution when the child is placed there by a parent or parents, shall petition the 463 juvenile and domestic relations district court of the city or county for approval of such agreement within 464 a reasonable time, not to exceed thirty days, after its execution; however, such petition shall not be 465 required when the agreement stipulates in writing that the temporary entrustment shall be for less than 476 or certified mail to his last known address and such father fails to object to the entrustment within 477 twenty-one days of the mailing of such notice. An affidavit of the mother that the identity of the father 478 is not reasonably ascertainable shall be sufficient evidence of this fact, provided there is no other 479 evidence which would refute such an affidavit. The absence of such an affidavit shall not be deemed 480 evidence that the identity of the father is reasonably ascertainable. For purposes of determining whether 481 the identity of the father is reasonably ascertainable, the standard of what is reasonable under the 482 circumstances shall control, taking into account the relative interests of the child, the mother and the 483 father.

The agency shall, within the terms of its license and the agreement or order by which such child is entrusted or committed to its care, have custody and control of every child so entrusted or committed and accepted, until he is lawfully discharged, has been adopted, or has attained his majority.

An agency which is licensed as a child-placing agency by the Department of Social Services and certified as a proprietary school for students with disabilities by the Department of Education shall not be required to take custody of any child placed in its special education program but shall enter into a placement agreement with the parents or guardian of the child concerning the respective responsibilities of the agency and the parents or guardian for the care and control of the child. Such an agency shall conform with all other legal requirements of licensed child-placing agencies including the provisions of §§ 16.1-281 and 16.1-282.

A licensed private child-placing agency may accept placement of a child through an agreement with a local department of social services where the local department of social services retains legal custody of the child or where the parents or legal guardian of the child retain legal custody but have entered into a placement agreement with the local department or the public agency designated by the community policy and management team.

Whenever a licensed child-placing agency accepts legal custody of a child, the agency shall comply with §§ 16.1-281 and 16.1-282.

B. Whenever a licensed child-welfare agency accepts custody of a child pursuant to a temporary entrustment agreement entered into under the authority of this section, except when the entrustment agreement between the parent or parents and the licensed child-welfare agency provides for the termination of all parental rights and responsibilities with respect to the child, such child-welfare agency, except a child-caring institution when the child is placed there by a parent or parents, shall petition the family court of the city or county for approval of such agreement within a reasonable time, not to exceed thirty days, after its execution; however, such petition shall not be required when the agreement stipulates in writing that the temporary entrustment shall be for less than ninety days and the child is returned to his home within that period.

C. A child may be placed for adoption by a licensed child-placing agency or a local board of public welfare or social services, in accordance with the provisions of § 63.1-220.2.

For the purposes of this section, a parent who is less than eighteen years of age shall be deemed fully competent and shall have legal capacity to execute a valid entrustment agreement, including an agreement which provides for the termination of all parental rights and responsibilities, and shall be as fully bound thereby as if such parent had attained the age of eighteen years. An entrustment agreement for the termination of all parental rights and responsibilities with respect to the child shall be valid notwithstanding that it is not signed by the father of a child born out of wedlock if the identity of the father is not reasonably ascertainable, or if such father is given notice of the entrustment by registered or certified mail to his last known address and such father fails to object to the entrustment within twenty-one days of the mailing of such notice. An affidavit of the mother that the identity of the father is not reasonably ascertainable shall be sufficient evidence of this fact, provided there is no other evidence which would refute such an affidavit. The absence of such an affidavit shall not be deemed evidence that the identity of the father is reasonably ascertainable. For purposes of determining whether the identity of the father is reasonably ascertainable, the standard of what is reasonable under the circumstances shall control, taking into account the relative interests of the child, the mother and the father.

An entrustment agreement for the termination of all parental rights and responsibilities with respect to the child shall be valid notwithstanding that it is not signed by the birth father of a child when such father has been convicted of a violation of subsection A of § 18.2-61 or subsection B of § 18.2-366, and the child was conceived as the result of such violation.

563 adoption, and is empowered to consent to the adoption of, any child who is properly committed or 564 entrusted to its care, in accordance with the provisions of § 63.1-56, § 63.1-204 or this section, when the 565 order of commitment or the entrustment agreement between the ~~parent or parents~~ birth parent(s) and 566 the agency or board provides for the termination of all parental rights and responsibilities with respect to 567 the child for the purpose of placing and consenting to the adoption of such child.

568 For the purposes of this section, a birth parent who is less than eighteen years of age shall be 569 deemed fully competent and shall have legal capacity to execute a valid entrustment agreement, 570 including an agreement which provides for the termination of all parental rights and responsibilities, and 571 shall be as fully bound thereby as if such birth parent had attained the age of eighteen years. An 572 entrustment agreement for the termination of all parental rights and responsibilities with respect to the 573 child shall be valid notwithstanding that it is not signed by the birth father of a child born out of 574 wedlock if the identity of the birth father is not reasonably ascertainable, or if such birth father is given 575 notice of the entrustment by registered or certified mail to his last known address and such birth father 576 fails to object to the entrustment within twenty-one days of the mailing of such notice. An affidavit of 577 the birth mother that the identity of the birth father is not reasonably ascertainable shall be sufficient 578 evidence of this fact, provided there is no other evidence which would refute such an affidavit. The 579 absence of such an affidavit shall not be deemed evidence that the identity of the birth father is 580 reasonably ascertainable. For purposes of determining whether the identity of the birth father is 581 reasonably ascertainable, the standard of what is reasonable under the circumstances shall control, taking 582 into account the relative interests of the child, the birth mother and the birth father.

583 A valid entrustment agreement terminating all parental rights and responsibilities to the child shall be 584 revocable by either of the birth parents until (i) the child has reached the age of twenty-five days and 585 (ii) fifteen days have elapsed from the date of execution of the agreement. Such agreement shall divest 586 the birth parents of all legal rights and obligations with respect to the child, and the child shall be free 587 from all legal obligations of obedience and maintenance with respect to them, provided that such rights 588 and obligations may be restored to the birth parents and the child by court order prior to entry of final 590 revocable by either of the birth parents if the child has not been placed in the home of adoptive parents 591 at the time of such revocation. Revocation of an entrustment agreement shall be in writing and signed 592 by the revoking party or counsel of record for the revoking party. The written revocation shall be 593 delivered to the child placing agency or local board of public welfare or social services to whom the 594 child was originally entrusted. Delivery of the written revocation shall be made during the business day 595 of the child-placing agency or local board of public welfare or social services to whom the child was 596 originally entrusted, in accordance with the applicable time period set out in this section. If the 597 revocation period expires on a Saturday, Sunday, legal holiday or any day on which the agency or local 598 board is officially closed, the revocation period shall be extended to the next day that is not a Saturday, 599 Sunday, legal holiday or other day on which the agency or local board is officially closed. Upon 600 revocation of the entrustment agreement, the child shall be returned to the parent revoking the 601 agreement.

602 An entrustment agreement for the termination of all parental rights and responsibilities with respect 603 to the child shall be valid notwithstanding that it is not signed by the birth father of a child when the 604 birth father has been convicted of a violation of subsection A of § 18.2-61 or subsection B of 605 § 18.2-366, and the child was conceived as a result of such violation.

606 Prior to the placement of a child for adoption, the licensed child-placing agency or local board 607 having custody of the child shall counsel the birth mother or, if reasonably available, both birth parents, 608 concerning the disposition of their child. In determining the appropriate home in which to place a child 609 for adoption, a married couple or an unmarried individual shall be eligible to receive placement of a 610 child for purposes of adoption. In addition, the agency or board may consider the recommendations of a 611 physician or attorney licensed in the Commonwealth, or a clergyman who is familiar with the situation 612 of the ~~proposed~~ prospective adoptive parents or the child. The physician, attorney or clergyman shall not charge any fee for recommending such a placement to a board or agency and shall not advertise that he is available to make such recommendations.

When a licensed child-placing agency or a local board of public welfare accepts custody of a child for the purpose of placing the child with adoptive parents designated by the birth parents or a person other than a licensed child-placing agency or local board of public welfare, the provisions of § 63.1-220.3 shall apply to such placement.

§ 63.1-220.3. (For effective date - See note) Placement of children for adoption by parent or guardian.

A. The birth parent or legal guardian of a child may place his child for adoption directly with the adoptive parents of his choice ~~only after executing a valid consent to the proposed adoption~~. Consent to the prospective adoption shall be executed before a juvenile and domestic relations district court of competent jurisdiction or, if the birth parent or legal guardian does not reside in Virginia, before a court having jurisdiction over child custody matters in the jurisdiction where the birth parent or legal guardian resides, upon compliance with the provisions of this section. Proceedings under this section shall be advanced on the docket so as to be heard by the court within ten days of filing of the petition, or as soon thereafter as practicable so as to provide the earliest possible disposition.

B. The court shall not accept consent until it determines that:

1. The birth parent(s) are aware of alternatives to adoption, adoption procedures, and opportunities for placement with other adoptive families, and that the birth parents' consent is informed and uncoerced.

2. A licensed or duly authorized child-placing agency has counseled the prospective adoptive parents with regard to alternatives to adoption, adoption procedures, including the need to address the parental rights of birth parents, the procedures for terminating such rights, and opportunities for adoption of other children; that the prospective adoptive parents' decision is informed and uncoerced; and that they intend to file an adoption petition and proceed toward a final order of adoption.

3. The birth parent(s) and adoptive parents have exchanged identifying information including but not limited to full names, addresses, physical, mental, social and psychological information and any other information necessary to promote the welfare of the child.

4. Any financial agreement or exchange of property among the parties and any fees charged or paid for services related to the placement or adoption of the child have been disclosed to the court and that all parties understand that no binding contract regarding placement or adoption of the child exists.

5. There has been no violation of the provisions of § 63.1-220.4 in connection with the placement; however, if it appears there has been such violation, the court shall not reject consent of the birth parent to the adoption for that reason alone but shall report the alleged violation as required by subsection F G of this section.

6. A licensed or duly authorized child-placing agency has conducted a home study of the prospective adoptive home in accordance with regulations established by the State Board of Social Services and has provided to the court a report of such home study, which shall contain the agency's recommendation regarding the suitability of the placement. A married couple or an unmarried individual shall be eligible to receive placement of a child for adoption. The home study shall make inquiry as to (i) whether the prospective adoptive parents are financially able, morally suitable, and in satisfactory physical and mental health to enable them to care for the child; (ii) the physical and mental condition of the child, if known; (iii) the circumstances under which the child came to live, or will be living, in the home of the prospective adoptive family, as applicable; (iv) what fees have been paid by the prospective adoptive family or in their behalf in the placement and adoption of the child; (v) whether the requirements of subdivisions 1, 2, 3 and 5 of this subsection have been met; and (vi) any other matters specified by the court. In the course of the home study, the agency social worker shall meet at least once with the birth parent(s) and prospective adoptive parents simultaneously. When the child has been placed with prospective adoptive parents who are related to the child as specified in subdivision 5 6 of subsection C of this section, this meeting is not required.

7. The birth parent(s) have been informed of their opportunity to be represented by legal counsel.

C. When the court is satisfied that all requirements of subsection B of this section have been met with respect to at least one birth parent and the adoptive child is at least ten days old, ~~the~~ that birth parent or both birth parents, as the case may be, shall execute consent to the proposed adoption in compliance with the provisions of § 63.1-225 while before the court in person and in the presence of the prospective adoptive parents. The court shall accept the consent of the birth parent(s) and transfer custody of the child to the prospective adoptive parents, pending notification to any nonconsenting birth parent, as described hereinafter.

1. Consent shall be revocable for up to fifteen days from its execution for any reason and shall be revocable prior to the final order of adoption (i) upon proof of fraud or duress or (ii) after placement of the child in an adoptive home, upon written, mutual consent of the birth parents and proposed adoptive

674 parents. Such revocation shall be in writing and filed with the court which accepted consent.

675 2. a. The execution of consent before the Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court court as required
676 set forth in subsection A shall not be required of the father of a child born to an unmarried woman a
677 birth father who is not married to the mother of the child at the time of the child's conception or birth 678 if (i) the birth father consents under oath and in writing to the adoption; (ii) the birth mother swears 679 under oath and in writing that the identity of the birth father is not reasonably ascertainable; (iii) the 680 identity of the birth father is ascertainable and his whereabouts are known, the father he is given notice 681 of the proceedings by registered or certified mail to his last known address and he fails to object to the 682 proceeding within twenty-one days of the mailing of such notice; or (iv) the putative birth father named
683 by the birth mother denies under oath and in writing paternity of the child. An affidavit of the birth 684 mother that the identity of the birth father is not reasonably ascertainable shall be sufficient evidence of 685 this fact, provided there is no other evidence before the court which would refute such an affidavit. The 686 absence of such an affidavit shall not be deemed evidence that the identity of the birth father is 687 reasonably ascertainable. For purposes of determining whether the identity of the birth father is 688 reasonably ascertainable, the standard of what is reasonable under the circumstances shall control, taking 689 into account the relative interests of the child, the birth mother and the birth father.

690 b. The court may accept the written consent of the birth father of a child born to an unmarried 691 woman who is not married to the birth mother of the child at the time of the child's conception or birth, 692 provided that the identifying information required in subsection B3 is filed in writing with the court of 693 jurisdiction. Such consent shall be executed after the birth of the child, shall advise the birth father of 694 his opportunity for legal representation, and shall be presented to the court for acceptance. The consent 695 may waive further notice of the adoption proceedings and shall contain the name, address and telephone 696 number of the birth father's legal counsel or an acknowledgment that he was informed of his right to be 697 represented by legal counsel and declined such representation.

698 c. In the event that the birth mother's consent is not executed in court in accordance with subsection 699 A, the consent of the birth father of a child born to an unmarried woman who is not married to the 700 birth mother of the child must shall be executed in court.

701 d. A child born to a married birth mother shall be presumed to be the child of her husband and his 702 consent under subsection A shall be required. This presumption may be rebutted by evidence which 703 would either tend to establish the paternity of another man, or, the impossibility or improbability of 704 cohabitation of the birth mother and her husband for a period of at least 300 days preceding the birth 705 of the child, in which case the husband's consent shall not be required.

706 2. A birth parent whose consent is required as set forth in § 63.1-225, whose identity is known and 707 who neither consents before the court as described above, nor executes a written consent out of court as 708 provided above, shall be given notice of the proceedings pending before the court and be given the 709 opportunity to appear before the court. Such hearing may occur subsequent to the proceeding wherein 710 the consenting birth parent appeared but may not be held until twenty-one days after personal service of 711 notice on the nonconsenting birth parent, or if personal service is unobtainable, ten days after the 712 completion of the execution of an order of publication against such birth parent. If the court finds that 713 consent is withheld contrary to the best interests of the child, as set forth in § 63.1-225.1, or is 714 unobtainable, it may grant the petition without such consent. If the court denies the petition, the 715 acceptance of consent and transfer of custody described in subsection C of this section shall be void.

716 3. If the court finds that the valid consent of any person whose consent is required is withheld 717 contrary to the best interests of the child or is unobtainable, the court may accept consent of the other 718 parent and transfer custody of the child to the prospective adoptive parents:

719 a. Twenty-one days after personal service of notice on the party or parties whose consent is required 720 by this section; or

721 b. If personal service is unobtainable, ten days after the completion of the execution of an order of 722 publication against the party or parties whose consent is required by this section; or

723 c. If the judge certifies on the record that the identity of any person whose consent is hereinabove 724 required is not reasonably ascertainable.

725 If Except as provided in subsection C4 of this section, if consent cannot be obtained from at least 726 one birth parent, the court shall deny the petition and determine custody of the child pursuant to 727 § 16.1-278.2.

728 4. If both birth parents have failed, without good cause, and after receiving proper notice of the 729 hearing pursuant to § 16.1-264, to appear at a hearing to execute consent under this section, the court 730 may grant the petition without the consent of either birth parent, and enter an order waiving consent 731 and transferring custody of the child to the prospective adoptive parents, which order shall become 732 effective fifteen days thereafter,

733 5. If both birth parents are deceased, the court, after hearing evidence to that effect, may grant the 734 petition without the filing of any consent.

735 56. When a child has been placed by the birth parent(s) with prospective adoptive parents who are the child's grandparents, adult brother or sister, ~~or~~ adult uncle or aunt or adult great uncle or great aunt, consent does not have to be executed in court in the presence of the prospective adoptive parents. The court may accept written consent that has been signed and acknowledged before an officer authorized by law to take ~~acknowledgements~~ acknowledgments. No hearing shall be required for the court's acceptance of such consent.

When such child has resided in the home of the prospective adoptive parent(s) continuously for three or more years, this section shall not apply, and consent shall be executed in accordance with subsection ~~D E~~ of § 63.1-225.

7. 810 uncoerced.

811 2. A licensed or duly authorized child-placing agency has counseled the prospective adoptive parents 812 with regard to alternatives to adoption, adoption procedures, including the need to address the parental 813 rights of birth parents, the procedures for terminating such rights, and opportunities for adoption of other 822 5. There has been no violation of the provisions of § 63.1-220.4 in connection with the placement; 823 however, if it appears there has been such violation, the court shall not reject consent of the birth parent 824 to the adoption for that reason alone but shall report the alleged violation as required by subsection F 825 G of this section.

826 6. A licensed or duly authorized child-placing agency has conducted a home study of the prospective 827 adoptive home in accordance with regulations established by the State Board of Social Services and has 828 provided to the court a report of such home study, which shall contain the agency's recommendation 829 regarding the suitability of the placement. A married couple or an unmarried individual shall be eligible 830 to receive placement of a child for adoption. The home study shall make inquiry as to (i) whether the 831 prospective adoptive parents are financially able, morally suitable, and in satisfactory physical and 846 prospective adoptive parents. The court shall accept the consent of the birth parent(s) and transfer 847 custody of the child to the prospective adoptive parents, pending notification to any nonconsenting birth 848 parent, as described hereinafter.

849 1. Consent shall be revocable for up to fifteen days from its execution for any reason and shall be 850 revocable prior to the final order of adoption (i) upon proof of fraud or duress; or (ii) after placement of 851 the child in an adoptive home, upon written, mutual consent of the birth parents and proposed adoptive 852 parents. Such revocation shall be in writing and filed with the court which accepted consent.

853 2. a. The execution of consent before the Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court court as required
854 set forth in subsection A shall not be required of the father of a child born to an unmarried woman a 855 birth father who is not married to the mother of the child at the time of the child's conception or birth proceedings by registered or certified mail to his last known address and he fails to object to the proceeding within twenty-one days of the mailing of such notice; or (iv) the putative birth father named by the birth mother denies under oath and in writing paternity of the child. An affidavit of the birth mother that the identity of the birth father is not reasonably ascertainable shall be sufficient evidence of this fact, provided there is no other evidence before the court which would refute such an affidavit. The absence of such an affidavit shall not be deemed evidence that the identity of the father is reasonably ascertainable. For purposes of determining whether the identity of the birth father is reasonably ascertainable, the standard of what is reasonable under the circumstances shall control, taking into account the relative interests of the child, the birth mother and the birth father.

b. The court may accept the written consent of the birth father of a child born to an unmarried woman who is not married to the birth mother of the child at the time of the child's conception or birth, provided that the identifying information required in subsection B3 is filed in writing with the court of jurisdiction. Such consent shall be executed after the birth of the child, shall advise the birth father of his opportunity for legal representation, and shall be presented to the court for acceptance. The consent may waive further notice of the adoption proceedings and shall contain the name, address and telephone number of the birth father's legal counsel or an acknowledgment that he was informed of his right to be represented by legal counsel and declined such representation.

c. In the event that the birth mother's consent is not executed in court in accordance with subsection A, the consent of the birth father of a child born to an unmarried woman who is not married to the birth mother of the child must shall be executed in court.

d. A child born to a married birth mother shall be presumed to be the child of her husband and his consent under subsection A shall be required. This presumption may be rebutted by evidence which would either tend to establish the paternity of another man, or, the impossibility or improbability of cohabitation of the birth mother and her husband for a period of at least 300 days preceding the birth of the child, in which case the husband's consent shall not be required.

2. A birth parent whose consent is required as set forth in § 63.1-25, whose identity is known and who neither consents before the court as described above, nor executes a written consent out of court as provided above, shall be given notice of the proceedings pending before the court and be given the opportunity to appear before the court. Such hearing may occur subsequent to the proceeding wherein the consenting birth parent appeared but may not be held until twenty-one days after personal service of notice on the nonconsenting birth parent, or if personal service is unobtainable, ten days after the completion of the execution of an order of publication against such birth parent. If the court finds that consent is withheld contrary to the best interests of the child, as set forth in § 63.1-225.1, or is unobtainable, it may grant the petition without such consent. If the court denies the petition, the acceptance of consent and transfer of custody described in subsection C of this section shall be void.

3. If the court finds that the valid consent of any person whose consent is required is withheld contrary to the best interests of the child or is unobtainable, the court may accept consent of the other parent and transfer custody of the child to the prospective adoptive parents:

a. Twenty-one days after personal service of notice on the party or parties whose consent is required by this section; or

b. If personal service is unobtainable, ten days after the completion of the execution of an order of publication against the party or parties whose consent is required by this section; or

c. If the judge certifies on the record that the identity of any person whose consent is hereinabove required is not reasonably ascertainable.

If Except as provided in subsection C4 of this section, if consent cannot be obtained from at least one birth parent, the court shall deny the petition and determine custody of the child pursuant to § 16.1-278.2.

4. If both birth parents have failed, without good cause, and after receiving proper notice of the hearing pursuant to § 16.1-264, to appear at a hearing to execute consent under this section, the court may grant the petition without the consent of either birth parent, and enter an order waiving consent and transferring custody of the child to the prospective adoptive parents, which order shall become effective fifteen days thereafter.

5. If both birth parents are deceased, the court, after hearing evidence to that effect, may grant the petition without the filing of any consent.

§ 6. When a child has been placed by the birth parent(s) with prospective adoptive parents who are the child's grandparents, adult brother or sister, or adult uncle or aunt or adult great uncle or great aunt, consent does not have to be executed in court in the presence of the prospective adoptive parents. The court may accept written consent that has been signed and acknowledged before an officer authorized by law to take acknowledgements. No hearing shall be required for the court's acceptance of such consent.

When such child has resided in the home of the prospective adoptive parent(s) continuously for three or more years, this section shall not apply, and consent shall be executed in accordance with subsection D E of § 63.1-225.

7. No consent shall be required from the birth father of a child placed pursuant to this section when 920 such father is convicted of a violation of subsection A of § 18.2-61 or subsection B of § 18.2-366, and 921 the child was conceived as a result of such violation, nor shall the birth father be entitled to notice of 922 any of the proceedings under this section.

923 6. After accepting the consent, the court shall 8. Upon a finding by the court that all of the 924 requirements of this section have been met, and upon entry of such orders as may be appropriate, 925 including the transfer of custody of the child to the prospective adoptive parents, to be responsible for 926 the care of the child until such time as the court order is modified. Any such order shall include specific 927 findings with respect to the applicable consent and notice provisions of subdivisions 2 through 5 of 928 subsection C. The court shall review such orders at least annually until such time as the final order of 929 adoption is entered.

930 7. Upon execution of consent and transfer of custody, the prospective adoptive family parents may 931 file a petition for adoption of the child pursuant to § 63.1-221. The court shall review each order 932 entered under this section at least annually until such time as the final order of adoption is entered.

933 D. Consent shall be revocable as follows:

934 1. By either consenting birth parent for any reason for up to fifteen days from its execution.

935 a. Such revocation shall be in writing, signed by the revoking party or counsel of record for the 936 revoking party and shall be filed with the clerk of the court in which the petition is filed during the 937 business day of the court, within the time period specified in this section. If the revocation period 938 expires on a Saturday, Sunday, legal holiday or any day on which the clerk's office is closed as 939 authorized by statute, the revocation period shall be extended to the next day that is not a Saturday, 940 Sunday, legal holiday or other day on which the clerk's office is closed as authorized by statute.

941 b. Upon the filing of a valid revocation within the time period set out in this section, the court shall 942 order that any consent given for the purpose of such placement shall be void and, if necessary, the 943 court shall determine custody of the child as between the birth parents.

944 2. By any party prior to the final order of adoption (i) upon proof of fraud or duress, or (ii) after 945 placement of the child in an adoptive home, upon written, mutual consent of the birth parents and 946 prospective adoptive parents.

947 E. The court shall not accept the consent if the requirements of subsection B of this section have not 948 been met. In such cases, it shall refer the birth parent to a licensed or duly authorized child-placing 949 agency for investigation and recommendation in accordance with subsection B above. If the court 950 determines that any of the parties is financially unable to obtain the required services, it shall refer the 951 matter to the local director of social services or superintendent of public welfare.

952 F. If the court determines from the information provided to it that placement in the prospective 953 adoptive home will be contrary to the best interests of the child, it shall so inform the birth parents. If 954 the birth parents choose not to retain custody of the child nor to designate other prospective adoptive 955 parents, or if the birth parents' whereabouts are not reasonably ascertainable, the court shall determine 956 custody of the child.

957 G. If the court or any participating licensed or duly authorized child-placing agency suspects that 958 there has been a violation of § 63.1-220.4 in connection with the placement, it shall report such findings 959 to the Commissioner of Social Services for investigation and appropriate action. If the Commissioner 960 suspects that a person has violated § 63.1-220.4, he shall report his findings to the appropriate attorney 961 for the Commonwealth. If the Commissioner believes that such violation has occurred in the course of 962 the practice of a profession or occupation licensed or regulated pursuant to Title 54.1, he shall also 963 report such findings to the appropriate regulatory authority for investigation and appropriate disciplinary 964 action.

965 H. The Department of Social Services shall develop and disseminate information to the public 966 regarding the provisions of this law, including the desirability of initiating the procedures required by 967 subsection B of this section as early in the placement and adoption process as possible to ensure that

However, if a petition is filed for the adoption of any person eighteen years of age or older under (iv) above, the court shall require an investigation and report to be made pursuant to § 63.1-223.

Any interlocutory or final order issued in any case under this section shall have the same effect as other orders issued under this chapter; and in any such case the word "child" in any other section of this chapter shall be construed to refer to the person whose adoption is petitioned for under this section. The entry of a final order of adoption pursuant to this section which incorporates a change of name shall be deemed to meet the requirements of § 8.01-217.

The provisions of this section shall apply to any person who would have been eligible for adoption hereunder prior to July 1, 1972.

§ 63.1-223. Preliminary investigations; report to court.

A. Upon the filing of the petition, the court wherein the petition is filed, or the clerk thereof upon order of the court, shall forward a copy of the petition and all exhibits thereto to the Commissioner and to the agency which placed the child. In cases where the child was placed by an agency in another state, or by an agency, court, or other entity in another country, the petition and all exhibits shall be forwarded to the local director of social services or superintendent of public welfare or licensed child-placing agency, whichever agency completed the home study or provided supervision. If no Virginia agency provided such services, the petition and all exhibits shall be forwarded to the local director of social services or superintendent of public welfare. If the child was not placed by an agency, the petition and all exhibits shall be forwarded to the director of social services or superintendent of public welfare of the locality where the petitioners reside or resided at the time of filing the petition, or had legal residence at the time of the filing of the petition. However, in cases where a licensed child-placing agency has completed a home study in accordance with § 63.1-220.3 B 6, the petition and all exhibits shall be forwarded to the licensed child-placing agency. Except as provided in subsection E, the applicable agency shall make a thorough investigation of the matter and report thereon in writing, in such form as the Commissioner may prescribe, to the court within ninety days after the copy of the petition and all exhibits thereto are forwarded. A copy of the report to the court shall be served on the Commissioner by delivering or mailing a copy to him on or before the day of filing the report with the court. On the report to the court there shall be appended either acceptance of service or certificate of the local director of social services or superintendent of public welfare, or other welfare agency of the county or city or the representative of the child-placing agency, that copies were served as this section requires, showing the date of delivery or mailing. The Commissioner may notify the court within twenty-one days of the date of delivery or mailing of the report as shown by the agency, during which time the court shall withhold consideration of the merits of the petition pending review of the agency report by the Commissioner, of any disapproval thereof stating reasons for any further action on the report which he deems necessary.

B. If the report required in subsection A is not made to the court within the periods specified, the court may proceed to hear and determine the merits of the petition and enter such order or orders as the court may deem appropriate.

C. The investigation requested by the court shall include, in addition to other inquiries which the court may require the child-placing agency or local director of social services or superintendent of public welfare to make, inquiries as to (i) whether the petitioner is financially able, except as provided in Chapter 11.1 (§ 63.1-238.1 et seq.) of this title, morally suitable, in satisfactory physical and mental health and a proper person to care for and to train the child; (ii) what the physical and mental condition of the child is; (iii) why the parents, if living, desire to be relieved of the responsibility for the custody, care and maintenance of the child, and what their attitude is toward the proposed adoption; (iv) whether the parents have abandoned the child or are morally unfit to have custody over him; (v) the circumstances under which the child came to live, and is living, in the same home of the petitioner; (vi) whether the child is a suitable child for adoption by the petitioner; and (vii) what fees have been paid by the petitioners or in their behalf to persons or agencies which have assisted them in obtaining the child. Any report made to the court shall include a recommendation as to the action to be taken by the court on the petition. A copy of any report made to the court shall be furnished counsel of record representing the adopting parent or parents. When the investigation reveals that there may have been a violation of § 63.1-220.1 or § 63.1-220.4, the local director or superintendent or child-placing agency shall so inform the court and shall make such violation known to the Commissioner.

D. The report shall include the relevant physical and mental history of the birth parents if known to the person making the report. However, nothing in this subsection shall require that an investigation be made.

E. When a placement is a parental placement and consent has been executed in accordance with the provisions of § 63.1-220.3 or subsection D of § 63.1-225, the court may proceed without the investigations and report required by this section.

§ 63.1-225. Parental, etc., consent.

A. No petition for adoption shall be granted, except as hereinafter provided in this section, unless written consent to the proposed adoption is filed with the petition. Such consent shall be signed and acknowledged before an officer authorized by law to take acknowledgments. The consent of a birth parent for the adoption of his child placed directly by the birth parent shall be executed as provided in § 63.1-220.3, and the court may accept a certified copy of an order entered pursuant to § 63.1-220.3 in satisfaction of all requirements of this section, provided the order clearly evidences compliance with the applicable notice and consent requirements of § 63.1-220.3.

B. No consent shall be required of the birth father of a child when the birth father is convicted of a violation of subsection A of § 18.2-61 or subsection B of § 18.2-366, and the child was conceived as a result of such violation.

C. A birth parent who has not reached the age of eighteen shall have legal capacity to give consent to adoption and shall be as fully bound thereby as if the birth parent had attained the age of eighteen years.

CD. Consent shall be executed:

1. By the parents or surviving parent of a child born in wedlock; ~~however, if~~ A child born to a married birth mother shall be presumed to be the child of her husband and his consent shall be required. This presumption may be rebutted by evidence which would either tend to establish the paternity of another man, or the impossibility or improbability of cohabitation of the birth mother and her husband for a period of at least 300 days preceding the birth of the child, in such case his consent shall not be required. If the parents are divorced and the residual parental rights and responsibilities as defined in § 16.1-228 of one parent have been terminated by terms of the divorce, or other order of a court having jurisdiction, the petition may be granted without the consent of such parent; or

2. By the parents or surviving parent of a child born ~~out of wedlock to parents who were not married to each other at the time of the child's conception or birth.~~ The consent of the birth father of a child born to an unmarried woman to parents who were not married to each other at the time of the child's conception or birth shall not be required (i) if the identity of the birth father is not reasonably ascertainable, or (ii) if the identity of such birth father is ascertainable and his whereabouts are known, such birth father is given notice of the adoption proceeding by registered or certified mail to his last known address and such birth father fails to object to the adoption proceeding within twenty-one days of the mailing of such notice; or

3. By the child-placing agency or the local board of public welfare or social services having custody of the child, with right to place him for adoption, through court commitment or parental agreement as provided in §§ 63.1-56, 63.1-204 or § 63.1-220.2; or an agency outside the Commonwealth which is licensed or otherwise duly authorized to place children for adoption by virtue of the laws under which it operates; and

4. By the child if he is fourteen years of age or older, unless the court finds that the best interests of the child will be served by not requiring such consent.

D E. When a child has been placed by the birth parent(s) with the prospective adoptive parent(s) who is the child's grandparent, adult brother or sister, ~~or adult uncle or aunt, and the child has resided in the home of the prospective adoptive parent continuously for three or more years or adult great uncle or great aunt,~~ the court may accept the written and signed consent of the birth parent which has been acknowledged by an officer authorized by law to take such ~~acknowledgements~~ acknowledgments.

EF. If after ~~hearing~~ consideration of the evidence, the court finds that the valid consent of any person or agency whose consent is hereinabove required is withheld contrary to the best interests of the child as set forth in § 63.1-225.1, or is unobtainable, the court may grant the petition without such consent:

1. Twenty-one days after personal service of notice of petition on the party or parties whose consent is required by this section; or

2. If personal service is unobtainable, ten days after the completion of the execution of an order of publication against the party or parties whose consent is required by this section concerning the petition; or

3. If the judge certifies on the record that the identity of any person whose consent is hereinabove required is not reasonably ascertainable.

For the purposes of this section, an affidavit of the birth mother that the identity of the birth father is not reasonably ascertainable shall be sufficient evidence of this fact, provided there is no other evidence before the court which would refute such an affidavit. The absence of such an affidavit shall not be deemed evidence that the identity of the birth father is reasonably ascertainable. For purposes of determining whether the identity of the birth father is reasonably ascertainable, the standard of what is reasonable under the circumstances shall control, taking into account the relative interests of the child, the birth mother and the birth father.

FG. If the child is not in the custody of a child-placing agency and both parents are deceased, the court, after hearing evidence to that effect, may grant the petition without the filing of any consent.

GH. Parental consent to an adoption executed pursuant to this section shall be revocable prior to the final order of adoption (i) upon proof of fraud or duress, or (ii) after placement of the child in an adoptive home, upon written, mutual consent of the birth parents and ~~proposed~~ prospective adoptive parents.

§ 63.1-225.1. Best interests of the child; standards for determining.—In determining whether the valid consent of any person whose consent is required is withheld contrary to the best interests of the child, or is unobtainable, the court shall consider whether the failure to grant the petition would be detrimental to the child. In determining whether the failure to grant the petition would be detrimental to the child, the court shall consider all relevant factors, including the birth parent(s)' efforts to obtain or maintain legal and physical custody of the child, whether the birth parent(s)' efforts to assert parental rights were thwarted by other people, the birth parent(s)' ability to care for the child, the age of the child, the quality of any previous relationship between the birth parent(s) and the child and between the birth parent(s) and any other minor children, the duration and suitability of the child's present custodial environment and the effect of a change of physical custody on the child.

§ 63.1-227. Revocation of interlocutory order.

The court may, by order entered of record, revoke its interlocutory order of adoption at any time prior to the entry of the final order, for good cause shown, on its own motion, or on the motion of the natural birth parents of the child, or of the petitioner, or of the child himself by his next friend, or of the child-placing agency, which placed the child with the petitioners or of the Commissioner; but no such order of revocation shall be entered, except on motion of the petitioner, unless the petitioner is given ten days' notice of such motion in writing and an opportunity to be heard or has removed from the Commonwealth. The clerk of the court shall forward an attested copy of every such order to the Commissioner, and to the child-placing agency which placed the child.

When an interlocutory order has been entered and subsequently is revoked, the court may proceed in the same manner as set forth in § 63.1-226 to enter an order concerning the subsequent custody or guardianship of the child.

§ 63.1-229. Omission of probationary period and interlocutory order.

A. If the child is legally the child by birth or adoption of one of the petitioners or if the child has been placed in the home of the petitioner by a child-placing agency and the placing or supervising agency certifies to the court that the child has lived in the home of the petitioner continuously for a period of at least six months next preceding the filing of the petition, and has been visited by a representative of such agency at least three times within such six-month period, provided there are not less than ninety days between the first visit and the last visit, and if the court is of the opinion that the entry of an interlocutory order would otherwise be proper, the court, after receipt of the report, as provided for in § 63.1-223, may omit the probationary period provided for in § 63.1-228 and the interlocutory order, and enter a final order of adoption. The court may, for good cause shown, in cases of placement by a child-placing agency, omit the requirement of this section that the visitations be made in the six months immediately preceding the filing of the petition, provided that such visits be made in some six-month period preceding such filing.

B. If the child has been placed in the home of the petitioner by a child placing agency and the placing or supervising agency certifies to the court that the child (i) has lived in the home of the petitioner continuously for a period of at least six months immediately preceding the filing of the petition, (ii) has been visited by a representative of such agency at least three times within a six-month period, provided there are not less than ninety days between the first visit and the last visit, and (iii) the court is of the opinion that the entry of an interlocutory order would otherwise be proper, after receipt of the report as provided for in § 63.1-223, may omit the probationary period provided for in § 63.1-228 and the interlocutory order, and enter a final order of adoption. The court may, for good cause shown, in cases of placement by a child-placing agency, omit the requirement that the visits be made in the eight months immediately preceding the filing of the petition, provided that such visits were made in some six-month period preceding the filing.

C. If the child has resided in the home of the petitioner continuously for as much as at least three years immediately prior to the filing of the petition for adoption, and if the court is of the opinion that the entry of an interlocutory order would otherwise be proper, the court, after receipt of the report, as provided for in § 63.1-223, may omit the probationary period and the interlocutory order, and enter a final order of adoption.

D. When a child has been placed by the birth parent with the prospective adoptive parent who is the child's grandparent, adult brother or sister, or adult uncle or aunt, and the child has resided in the home of the prospective adoptive parent continuously for three or more years, or adult great uncle or great aunt and the court has accepted the written consent of the birth parent in accordance with § 63.1-225, and, if the court is of the opinion that the entry of an interlocutory order would otherwise be proper, the court may omit the probationary period and interlocutory order, and enter a final order of adoption.

If the court determines the need for an investigation prior to the final order of adoption, it shall refer the matter to the local director of social services, superintendent of public welfare or a licensed child placing agency as provided in § 63.1-223 for an investigation and report which shall be completed within such time as the court designates.

E. If the child has been legally adopted according to the laws of a foreign country with which the United States has diplomatic relations and if the court is of the opinion that the entry of an interlocutory order would otherwise be proper, the court, after receipt of the report, as provided for in § 63.1-223, may omit the probationary period and the interlocutory order and enter the final order of adoption if the child (i) has resided in the home of the petitioners for a period of at least one year immediately prior to the filing of the petition or (ii) has resided in the home of the petitioners for a period of at least six months immediately prior to the filing of the petition and, has been visited by a representative of a child-placing agency or of the local board or department of social services or public welfare three times within such six-month period with no fewer than ninety days between the first and last visits and the three visits have occurred within eight months immediately prior to the filing of the petition.

E F. If the child was placed into Virginia from a foreign country in accordance with § 63.1-207, and if the child (I) has resided in the home of the petitioner for a period of at least six months immediately prior to the filing of the petition and (ii) has been visited by a representative of a licensed child-placing agency or of the local board or department of social services or public welfare three times within the six-month period with no fewer than ninety days between the first and last visits, and (iii) the three visits have occurred within eight months immediately prior to the filing of the petition, and if the court is of the opinion that the entry of the interlocutory order would otherwise be proper, the court, after receipt of the report provided for in § 63.1-223, may omit the probationary period provided for in § 63.1-228 and the interlocutory order and enter a final order of adoption.

§ 63.1-231. Adoption of infant by new spouse of natural birth or adoptive parent.

A. When the spouse of a natural birth parent of a legitimate infant or the spouse of a parent by adoption of an infant has died, and the surviving natural birth parent or parent by adoption marries again and the new spouse desires to adopt the infant, on a petition filed by the surviving natural birth parent or parent by adoption and new spouse for the adoption and change of name of the infant, the court may proceed to order the proposed adoption or change of name without referring the matter to the local director of social services or superintendent of public welfare. If the court feels that there should be some investigation before a final order of adoption is entered, it shall thereupon refer the matter to the local director of social services or superintendent of public welfare as provided in § 63.1-223 for an investigation and report within such time as the court designates.

B. When a natural birth parent of a legitimate infant or a parent by adoption of an infant is divorced and marries again and the natural birth parent or parent by adoption desires the new spouse to adopt the infant, on a petition filed by the natural birth parent or parent by adoption and the new spouse for the adoption and change of name of the infant, the court may proceed to order the proposed adoption or change of name without referring the matter to the local director of social services or superintendent of public welfare if the other natural birth parent or parent by adoption consents in writing to the adoption or change of name or if the other natural birth parent or parent by adoption is deceased. If the court feels that there should be some investigation before a final order of adoption is entered, it shall thereupon refer the matter to the local director of social services or superintendent of public welfare pursuant to § 63.1-223 for an investigation and report within such time as the court designates.

C. When the custodial natural birth parent of an infant born out of wedlock to parents who were not married to each other at the time of the child's conception or birth marries and the new spouse of such custodial natural birth parent desires to adopt such child, on a petition filed by the custodial natural birth parent and spouse for the adoption and change of name of the infant, the court may proceed to order the proposed adoption and change of name without referring the matter to the local director of social services or superintendent of public welfare if (i) the noncustodial natural birth parent of the infant consents, under oath, in writing to the adoption, or (ii) the mother swears, under oath, in writing, that the identity of the father is not reasonably ascertainable, or (iii) the putative father named by the mother denies paternity of the child, or (iv) such infant is fourteen years of age or older and has lived in the home of the person desiring to adopt the infant for at least five years, or (v) the noncustodial natural birth parent of the infant is deceased. If the court feels that there should be some investigation before a final order of adoption is entered, it shall thereupon refer the matter to the local director of social services or superintendent of public welfare pursuant to § 63.1-223 for an investigation and report within such time as the court designates.

D. When a single person who has adopted an infant thereafter marries and desires his spouse to adopt the infant, on a petition filed by the adoptive parent and the spouse for the adoption and change of name of the infant, the court may proceed to order the proposed adoption or change of name without referring the matter to the local director of social services or superintendent of public welfare.

If the court feels there should be some investigation before a final order of adoption is entered, it shall thereupon refer the matter to the local director of social services or superintendent of public welfare pursuant to § 63.1-223 for an investigation and report within such time as the court designates.

E. For adoptions under this section, the investigation and report provided for in § 63.1-223 shall be 1412 undertaken only if the court in its discretion determines that there should be an investigation before a 1413 final order of adoption is entered. If the court makes such a determination, it shall refer the matter to 1414 the local director of social services or superintendent of public welfare as provided in § 63.1-223 for an 1415 investigation and report to be completed within such time as the court designates.

1416 § 63.1-233. Legal effects of adoption.

1417 The ~~natural~~ birth parents, and the parents by previous adoption, if any, other than any such parent 1418 who is the husband or wife of one of the petitioners, shall, by such final order of adoption, be divested 1419 of all legal rights and obligations in respect to the child, and the child shall be free from all legal 1420 obligations of obedience and maintenance in respect to them. Any child adopted under the provisions of 1421 this chapter shall, from and after the entry of the interlocutory order or from and after the entry of the 1422 final order where no such interlocutory order is entered, be, to all intents and purposes, the child of the 1423 person or persons so adopting him, and, unless and until such interlocutory order or final order is 1424 subsequently revoked, shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges, and subject to all the obligations, 1425 of a child of such person or persons born in lawful wedlock.

1426 § 63.1-236. (For effective date - See note) Disposition of reports; disclosure of information as to 1427 identity of biological family.

1428 Upon the entry of a final order of adoption or other final disposition of the matter, the clerk of the 1429 court in which it was entered shall forthwith transmit to the Commissioner all reports made in 1430 connection with the case, and the Commissioner shall preserve such reports and all other collateral 1431 reports, information and recommendations in a separate file. Except as provided in subsections C, D and 1432 E of § 63.1-236.01, nonidentifying information from such adoption file shall not be open to inspection, 1433 or be copied, by anyone other than the adopted person, if eighteen years of age or over, or licensed or 1434 authorized child-placing agencies providing services to the child or the adoptive parents, except upon the 1435 order of a circuit court entered upon good cause shown. However, if the adoptive parents, or either of 1436 them, is living, the adopted person shall not be permitted to inspect the home study of the adoptive 1437 parents unless the Commissioner first obtains written permission to do so from such adoptive parent or 1438 parents.

1439 No identifying information from such adoption file shall be disclosed, open to inspection or made 1440 available to be copied except as provided in subsections A, B and E of § 63.1-236.01 or upon 1441 application of the adopted person, if eighteen years of age or over, to the Commissioner, who shall 1442 designate the person or agency which made the investigation required by §§ 63.1-220.3, 63.1-223 or 1443 § 63.1-228 to attempt to locate and advise the biological family of the application. The designated 1444 person or agency shall report the results of the attempt to locate and advise the biological family to the 1445 Commissioner, including the relative effects that disclosure of the identifying information may have on 1446 the adopted person, the adoptive parents, and the biological family. The adopted person and the 1447 biological family may submit to the Commissioner, and the Commissioner shall consider, written 1448 comments stating the anticipated effect that the disclosure of identifying information may have upon any 1449 party. Upon a showing of good cause, the Commissioner shall disclose the identifying information. If 1450 the Commissioner fails to designate a person or agency to attempt to locate the biological family within 1451 thirty days of receipt of the application, or if the Commissioner denies disclosure of the identifying 1452 information after receiving the designated person's or agency's report, the adopted person may apply to 1453 the circuit court for an order to disclose such information. Such order shall be entered only upon good 1454 cause shown after notice to and opportunity for hearing by the applicant for such order and the person 1455 or agency which made the investigation required by §§ 63.1-220.3, 63.1-223 or § 63.1-228. "Good 1456 cause" when used in this section shall mean a showing of a compelling and necessitous need for the 1457 identifying information.

1458 An eligible adoptee who is a resident of Virginia may apply for the court order provided for herein 1459 to (i) the circuit court of the county or city where the adoptee resides or (ii) the circuit court of the 1460 county or city where the central office of the State Department of Social Services is located. An eligible 1461 adoptee who is not a resident of Virginia shall apply for such a court order to the circuit court of the 1462 county or city where the central office of the State Department of Social Services is located.

1463 If the identity and whereabouts of the adoptive parents and the ~~biological~~ birth parents are known to 1464 the person or agency, the court may require the person or agency to advise the adoptive parents and the 1465 ~~biological~~ birth parents of the pendency of the application for such order. In determining good cause 1466 for the disclosure of such information, the court shall consider the relative effects of such action upon 1467 the adopted person, the adoptive parents and the ~~biological~~ birth parents. The adopted person and the 1468 ~~biological~~ birth family may submit to the court, and the court shall consider, written comments stating 1469 the anticipated effect that the disclosure of identifying information may have upon any party.

1470 When consent of the ~~biological~~ birth parents is not obtainable, due to the death of the ~~biological~~ 1471 birth parents or mental incapacity of the ~~biological~~ birth parents, the court may release identifying 1472 information to the adult adopted person. In making this decision, the court shall consider the needs and 1473 concerns of the adopted person and the biological family if such information is available, the actions the agency took to locate the biological family, the information in the agency's report and the recommendation of the agency.

The Commissioner, person or agency may charge a reasonable fee to cover the costs of processing requests for nonidentifying information.

Upon entry of a final order of adoption or other final disposition of a matter involving the placement of a child by a licensed child-placing agency or a local board of public welfare or social services or an investigation by the local director or superintendent of a placement for adoption of a child, the agency or local board shall transmit to the Commissioner all reports and collateral information in connection with the case which shall be preserved by the Commissioner in accordance with this section.

§ 63.1-236. (Delayed effective date - See notes) Disposition of reports; disclosure of information as to identity of biological family.

Upon the entry of a final order of adoption or other final disposition of the matter, the clerk of the court in which it was entered shall forthwith transmit to the Commissioner all reports made in connection with the case, and the Commissioner shall preserve such reports and all other collateral reports, information and recommendations in a separate file. Except as provided in subsections C, D and E of § 63.1-236.01, nonidentifying information from such adoption file shall not be open to inspection, or be copied, by anyone other than the adopted person, if eighteen years of age or over, or licensed or authorized child-placing agencies providing services to the child or the adoptive parents, except upon the order of a family court entered upon good cause shown.
