

LD3995112

HOUSE BILL NO. 902

Offered January 25, 1994

A BILL to amend and reenact § 16.1-267, as it is currently effective and as it may become effective January 1, 1995, of the Code of Virginia, relating to compensation of court appointed counsel.

Patrons—Plum, Albo, Almand and Van Landingham

Referred to Committee for Courts of Justice

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 16.1-267, as it is currently effective and as it may become effective January 1, 1995, of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 16.1-267. (For effective date - See note) Compensation of appointed counsel.

A. When the court appoints counsel to represent a child pursuant to § 16.1-266 A and, after an investigation by the court services unit, finds that the parents are financially able to pay for the attorney and refuse to do so, the court shall assess costs against the parent for such legal services in the amount awarded the attorney by the court under the circumstances of the case, considering such factors as the ability of the parents to pay and the nature and extent of the counsel's duties in the case. Such amount shall not exceed $100 if the action is in circuit court or the maximum amount specified in subdivision (1) of § 19.2-163 if the action is in district court.

When the court appoints counsel to represent a child pursuant to § 16.1-266 B and, after an investigation by the court services unit, finds that the parents are financially able to pay for the attorney in whole or in part and refuse to do so, the court shall assess costs in whole or in part against the parents for such legal services in the amount awarded the attorney by the court. Such amount shall not exceed $100 if the action is in circuit court or the maximum amount specified in subdivision (1) of § 19.2-163 if the action is in district court. In determining the financial ability of the parents to pay for an attorney to represent the child, the court shall utilize the financial statement required by § 19.2-159.

In all other cases, except as provided in § 16.1-343, counsel appointed to represent a child shall be compensated for his services pursuant to § 19.2-163.

B. When the court appoints counsel to represent a parent, guardian or other adult pursuant to § 16.1-266, such counsel shall be compensated for his services pursuant to § 19.2-163 and for reasonable expenses incurred by such counsel.

§ 16.1-267. (Delayed effective date - See notes) Compensation of appointed counsel.

A. When the court appoints counsel to represent a child pursuant to § 16.1-266 A and, after an investigation by the court services unit, finds that the parents are financially able to pay for the attorney and refuse to do so, the court shall assess costs against the parent for such legal services in the amount awarded the attorney by the court under the circumstances of the case, considering such factors as the ability of the parents to pay and the nature and extent of the counsel's duties in the case. Such amount shall not exceed $100 if the action is in circuit court or the maximum amount specified in subdivision (1) of § 19.2-163 if the action is in family court.

When the court appoints counsel to represent a child pursuant to § 16.1-266 B and, after an investigation by the court services unit, finds that the parents are financially able to pay for the attorney in whole or in part and refuse to do so, the court shall assess costs in whole or in part against the parents for such legal services in the amount awarded the attorney by the court. Such amount shall not exceed $100 if the action is in circuit court or the maximum amount specified in subdivision (1) of § 19.2-163 if the action is in family court. In determining the financial ability of the parents to pay for an attorney to represent the child, the court shall utilize the financial statement required by § 19.2-159.

In all other cases, except as provided in § 16.1-343, counsel appointed to represent a child shall be compensated for his services pursuant to § 19.2-163.

B. When the court appoints counsel to represent a parent, guardian or other adult pursuant to § 16.1-266, such counsel shall be compensated for his services pursuant to § 19.2-163 and for reasonable expenses incurred by such counsel.

INTRODUCED

HB902