HOUSE BILL NO. 918

Offered January 25, 1994

A BILL to amend and reenact § 53.1-151 of the Code of Virginia, relating to parole consideration for the third offense of rape, robbery or murder.

Patrons—Purkey, Abbitt, Albo, Crouch, Howell, Kilgore, Orrock, Phillips, Putney, Rhodes and Rollison

Referred to Committee for Courts of Justice

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 53.1-151 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 53.1-151. Eligibility for parole.

A. Except as herein otherwise provided, every person convicted of a felony and sentenced and committed by a court under the laws of this Commonwealth to the Department of Corrections, whether or not such person is physically received at a Department of Corrections facility, or as provided for in § 19.2-308.1:

1. For the first time, shall be eligible for parole after serving one-fourth of the term of imprisonment imposed, or after serving twelve years of the term of imprisonment imposed if one-fourth of the term of imprisonment imposed is more than twelve years;

2. For the second time, shall be eligible for parole after serving one-third of the term of imprisonment imposed, or after serving thirteen years of the term of imprisonment imposed if one-third of the term of imprisonment imposed is more than thirteen years;

3. For the third time, shall be eligible for parole after serving one-half of the term of imprisonment imposed, or after serving fourteen years of the term of imprisonment imposed if one-half of the term of imprisonment imposed is more than fourteen years;

4. For the fourth or subsequent time, shall be eligible for parole after serving three-fourths of the term of imprisonment imposed, or after serving fifteen years of the term of imprisonment imposed if three-fourths of the term of imprisonment imposed is more than fifteen years.

For the purposes of subdivisions 2, 3 and 4 of subsection A and for the purposes of subsections B1 and B2, prior commitments shall include commitments to any correctional facility under the laws of any state, the District of Columbia, the United States or its territories for murder, rape, robbery, forcible sodomy, animate or inanimate object sexual penetration, aggravated sexual battery, abduction, kidnapping, burglary, felonious assault or wounding, or manufacturing, selling, giving, distributing or possessing with the intent to manufacture, sell, give or distribute a controlled substance, if such would be a felony if committed in the Commonwealth. Only prior commitments interrupted by a person's being at liberty, or resulting from the commission of a felony while in a correctional facility of the Commonwealth, of any other state or of the United States, shall be included in determining the number of times such person has been convicted, sentenced and committed for the purposes of subdivisions 2, 3 and 4 of subsection A. "At liberty" as used herein shall include not only freedom without any legal restraints, but shall also include release pending trial, sentencing or appeal, or release on probation or parole or escape. In the case of terms of imprisonment to be served consecutively, the total time imposed shall constitute the term of the imprisonment; in the case of terms of imprisonment to be served concurrently, the longest term imposed shall be the term of imprisonment. In any case in which a parolee commits an offense while on parole, only the sentence imposed for such offense and not the sentence or sentences or any part thereof from which he was paroled shall constitute the term of imprisonment.

The Department of Corrections shall make all reasonable efforts to determine prior convictions and commitments of each inmate for the enumerated offenses.

B. Persons sentenced to die shall not be eligible for parole. Any person sentenced to life imprisonment who escapes from a correctional facility or from any person in charge of his custody shall not be eligible for parole.

B1. Any person convicted of three separate felony offenses of (i) murder, (ii) rape or (iii) robbery by the presenting of firearms or other deadly weapon, or any combination of the offenses specified in subdivisions (i), (ii), or (iii), including convictions under the laws of any other jurisdictions for offenses which are substantially similar to the offenses specified in those subdivisions, when such offenses were not part of a common act, transaction or scheme shall not be eligible for parole. In the event of a determination by the Department of Corrections that an individual is not eligible for parole under this subsection, the Parole Board may in its discretion, review that determination, and make a determination for parole eligibility pursuant to regulations promulgated by it for that purpose. Any determination of the

INTRODUCED

HB918

60 Parole Board of parole eligibility thereby shall supersede any prior determination of parole ineligibility
61 by the Department of Corrections under this subsection.

62 B2. Any person convicted of three separate felony offenses of manufacturing, selling, giving,
63 distributing or possessing with the intent to manufacture, sell, give or distribute a controlled substance,
64 when such offenses were not part of a common act, transaction or scheme, and who has been at liberty
65 as defined in this section between each conviction, shall not be eligible for parole.

66 C. Any person sentenced to life imprisonment for the first time shall be eligible for parole after
67 serving fifteen years, except that if such sentence was for a Class 1 felony violation or the first degree
68 murder of a child under the age of eight in violation of § 18.2-32, he shall be eligible for parole after
69 serving twenty-five years, unless he is ineligible for parole pursuant to subsection B1 or B2.

70 D. A person who has been sentenced to two or more life sentences, except a person to whom the 71 provisions of subsection B1, B2, or E of this section are applicable, shall be eligible for parole after
72 serving twenty years of imprisonment, except that if either such sentence, or both, was or were for a
73 Class 1 felony violation, and he is not otherwise ineligible for parole pursuant to subsection B1, B2, or
74 E of this section, he shall be eligible for parole only after serving thirty years.

75 E. A person convicted of an offense and sentenced to life imprisonment after being paroled from a
76 previous life sentence shall not be eligible for parole.

77 E1. Any person who has been convicted of murder in the first degree, rape in violation of § 18.2-61,
78 forcible sodomy, animate or inanimate object sexual penetration or aggravated sexual battery and who
79 has been sentenced to a term of years shall, upon a first commitment to the Department of Corrections,
80 be eligible for parole after serving two-thirds of the term of imprisonment imposed or after serving
81 fourteen years of the term of imprisonment imposed if two-thirds of the term of imprisonment imposed
82 is more than fourteen years. If such person has been previously committed to the Department of 83 Corrections, such person shall be eligible for parole after serving three-fourths of the term of 84 imprisonment imposed or after serving fifteen years of the terms of imprisonment imposed if 85 three-fourths of the term of imprisonment imposed is more than fifteen years.

86 F. If the sentence of a person convicted of a felony and sentenced to the Department is partially 87 suspended, he shall be eligible for parole based on the portion of such sentence execution which was not
88 suspended.

89 G. The eligibility time for parole as specified in subsections A, C and D of this section may be 90 modified as provided in §§ 53.1-191, 53.1-197 and 53.1-198.

91 H. The time for eligibility for parole as specified in subsection D of this section shall apply only to 92 those criminal acts committed on or after July 1, 1976.

93 I. The provisions of subdivisions 2, 3 and 4 of subsection A shall apply only to persons committed
94 to the Department of Corrections on or after July 1, 1979, but such persons' convictions and
95 commitments shall include all felony convictions and commitments without regard to the date of such 96 convictions and commitments.
