HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 400

Commending Boyd F. Hall.

Agreed to by the House of Delegates, January 13, 1995

Agreed to by the Senate, January 19, 1995

WHEREAS, for the major part of this century, Boyd F. "Hawkbill" Hall has been a major benefactor of baseball, schools, and parks and recreation in Franklin County; and

WHEREAS, beginning as early as the 1920s, Boyd Hall has been involved in nearly all aspects of youth sports and recreation in Franklin County; and

WHEREAS, a hardworking family man who has frequently worked more than one job to raise his 11 children, Boyd Hall has always found the time to help, work, coach, and do what was needed to keep youth baseball alive in Franklin County; and

WHEREAS, during the 1950s and 1960s, Boyd Hall helped to form county baseball leagues, where he coached for at least 20 years; and

WHEREAS, Boyd Hall founded an umpires' association, called games himself, and helped build the first fence at the Franklin County High School baseball field; and

WHEREAS, often working behind the scenes doing the unglamorous but necessary chores, Boyd Hall has prepared baseball fields with his own equipment; has purchased bats, balls, and uniforms; and has sold concessions from the back of his truck to raise money for local teams; and

WHEREAS, in 1994, Boyd Hall was recognized for his matchless contributions to baseball by being inducted into the Roanoke-Salem Baseball Hall of Fame; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That the General Assembly commend Boyd F. Hall for his lifelong dedication to the youth of Franklin County; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Boyd F. Hall in gratitude for his sustained, selfless, and invaluable contributions to his community.
