HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 601

Offered January 23, 1995

Establishing a joint subcommittee to study the appropriate minimum level of uninsured motorist coverage for property damage.

Patrons—Keating, Albo, Cooper, Crittenden, Darner, Dillard, Hull, Ingram, Jones, J.C., Mayer, McClure, Plum and Puller; Senators: Calhoun, Lambert and Woods

Referred to Committee on Rules

WHEREAS, Virginia law requires policies of motor vehicle insurance to include coverage to pay an insured all sums he is legally entitled to recover as damages from the owner or operator of an uninsured motor vehicle; and

WHEREAS, the minimum amount of uninsured motorist coverage prescribed by law for damage or destruction of the property of the insured in any one accident is $20,000; and

WHEREAS, a portion of an insured's premium is used to cover such $20,000 minimum coverage; and

WHEREAS, the current level of required minimum coverage may exceed the amount of coverage many insureds can reasonably expect to need; and

WHEREAS, according to the Department of Motor Vehicles, for fiscal year 1994, 3.2 million cars registered in Virginia were manufactured prior to 1992, 2.4 million of which were manufactured prior to 1990; and

WHEREAS, DMV statistics indicate, for the same period, that the average price of a new vehicle sold was $17,401 and the average price of a used vehicle sold was $4,132; and

WHEREAS, many of Virginia's insured drivers may not need or desire having a minimum of $20,000 in property damage coverage; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That a joint subcommittee be established to study the appropriate amount of uninsured motorist coverage for property damage. The joint subcommittee shall consist of seven members as follows: four members from the House, to be appointed by the Speaker of the House; and three members from the Senate, to be appointed by the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections.
