An Act to amend and reenact § 63.1-248.3 of the Code of Virginia, as it is currently effective and as it may become effective, relating to persons required to report suspected child abuse or neglect.

[S 946]

Approved

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 63.1-248.3 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 63.1-248.3. Physicians, nurses, teachers, etc., to report certain injuries to children; penalty for failure to report.

A. Any person licensed to practice medicine or any of the healing arts, any hospital resident or intern, any person employed in the nursing profession, any person employed as a social worker, any probation officer, any teacher or other person employed in a public or private school, kindergarten or nursery school, any person providing full-time or part-time child care for pay on a regularly planned basis, any duly accredited Christian Science practitioner, any mental health professional, any law-enforcement officer, in his professional or official capacity, any professional staff person, not previously enumerated, employed by a private or state-operated hospital, institution or facility which children have been committed to or placed in for care and treatment and any person associated with or employed by any private organization responsible for the care, custody or control of children who has The following persons who, in their professional or official capacity, have reason to suspect that a child is an abused or neglected child, shall report the matter immediately, except as hereinafter provided, to the local department of the county or city wherein the child resides or wherein the abuse or neglect is believed to have occurred or to the Department of Social Services' toll-free child abuse and neglect hotline:

- 1. Any person licensed to practice medicine or any of the healing arts,*
- 2. Any hospital resident or intern, and any person employed in the nursing profession,*
- 3. Any person employed as a social worker,*
- 4. Any probation officer,*
- 5. Any teacher or other person employed in a public or private school, kindergarten or nursery school,*
- 6. Any person providing full-time or part-time child care for pay on a regularly planned basis,*
- 7. Any duly accredited Christian Science practitioner,*
- 8. Any mental health professional,*
- 9. Any law-enforcement officer,*
- 10. Any mediator eligible to receive court referrals pursuant to § 8.01-576.8,*
- 11. Any professional staff person, not previously enumerated, employed by a private or state-operated hospital, institution or facility to which children have been committed or where children have been placed for care and treatment, and*
- 12. Any person associated with or employed by any private organization responsible for the care, custody or control of children.*

If neither the locality in which the child resides or where the abuse or neglect is believed to have occurred is known, then such report shall be made to the local department of the county or city where the abuse or neglect was discovered or to the Department of Social Services' toll-free child abuse and neglect hotline.

If an employee of the local department is suspected of abusing or neglecting a child, the report shall be made to the juvenile and domestic relations district court of the county or city where the abuse or neglect was discovered. Upon receipt of such a report by the court, the judge of the juvenile and domestic relations district court shall assign the report to a local department of social services that is not the employer of the suspected employee for investigation; or, if the judge believes that no local department of social services within a reasonable geographic distance can be impartial in investigating the reported case, the judge shall assign the report to the court service unit of his court for investigation. The judge may consult with the State Department of Social Services in selecting a local department to conduct the investigation.

If the information is received by a teacher, staff member, resident, intern or nurse in the course of professional services in a hospital, school or similar institution, such person may, in place of said report, immediately notify the person in charge of the institution or department, or his designee, who shall make such report forthwith.

57 The initial report may be an oral report but such report shall be reduced to writing by the child
 58 abuse coordinator of the local department on a form prescribed by the State Board of Social Services.
 59 The person required to make the report shall disclose all information which is the basis for his suspicion
 60 of abuse or neglect of the child and, upon request, shall make available to the child-protective services
 61 coordinator and the local department investigating the reported case of child abuse or neglect any 62 records or reports which document the basis for the report.

63 B. Any person required to file a report pursuant to subsection A of this section who fails to do so
 64 within seventy-two hours of his first suspicion of child abuse or neglect shall be fined not more than 65 $500 for the first failure and for any subsequent failures not less than $100 nor more than $1,000.

66 § 63.1-248.3. (Delayed effective date) Physicians, nurses, teachers, etc., to report certain injuries to

 101 the abuse or neglect was discovered or to the Department of Social Services' toll-free child abuse and 102 neglect hotline.

103 If an employee of the local department is suspected of abusing or neglecting a child, the report shall 104 be made to the family court of the county or city where the abuse or neglect was discovered. Upon 105 receipt of such a report by the court, the judge of the family court shall assign the report to a local 106 department of social services that is not the employer of the suspected employee for investigation; or, if 107 the judge believes that no local department of social services in a reasonable geographic distance can be 108 impartial in investigating the reported case, the judge shall assign the report to the court service unit of 109 his court for investigation. The judge may consult with the State Department of Social Services in 110 selecting a local department to conduct the investigation.

111 If the information is received by a teacher, staff member, resident, intern or nurse in the course of 112 professional services in a hospital, school or similar institution, such person may, in place of said report,
 113 immediately notify the person in charge of the institution or department, or his designee, who shall 114 make such report forthwith.

115 The initial report may be an oral report but such report shall be reduced to writing by the child
 116 abuse coordinator of the local department on a form prescribed by the State Board of Social Services.
 117 The person required to make the report shall disclose all information which is the basis for his suspicion

118 of abuse or neglect of the child and, upon request, shall make available to the child-protective services
119 coordinator and the local department investigating the reported case of child abuse or neglect any
120 records or reports which document the basis for the report.

121 B. Any person required to file a report pursuant to subsection A of this section who fails to do so
122 within seventy-two hours of his first suspicion of child abuse or neglect shall be fined not more than 123 $500 for the first failure and for any subsequent failures not less than $100 nor more than $1,000.
