SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 294

Offered January 19, 1995

Commending Rochelle S. Friedman.

Patrons—Holland, E.M.; Delegate: Hull

WHEREAS, Rochelle S. Friedman was a recipient of the 1994 Washington Post Distinguished Educational Leadership Award, one of only 17 principals in the Washington metropolitan area so honored; and

WHEREAS, an educator for over 20 years, Rochelle Friedman has been the Principal at George Mason Middle School in Falls Church since 1993; and

WHEREAS, the prestigious Washington Post award honors those "who day after day go beyond the demands of their highly demanding professions to create exceptional educational environments for our children"; and

WHEREAS, Rochelle Friedman's varied educational background includes teaching at the elementary, secondary, and college levels, along with administrative experience in New York, Florida, and Louisiana, and in Charlottesville, Virginia; and

WHEREAS, Rochelle Friedman's outstanding success in fostering academic excellence, combined with her lifelong dedication to education, makes her a most worthy recipient of this prestigious award; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly commend and congratulate Rochelle S. Friedman on her well-earned Distinguished Educational Leadership Award; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Rochelle S. Friedman as an expression of the General Assembly's gratitude for her exceptional efforts on behalf of the youth of the Commonwealth.
