6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:7 1. That § 60.2-623 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

8 § 60.2-623. Procedure generally; confidentiality of information.

9 A. The manner in which disputed claims shall be presented, reports required from the claimant and 10 from employers, the conduct of hearings and appeals before any deputy, appeal tribunal or the 11 Commission, and transcripts prepared shall be in accordance with regulations prescribed by the 12 Commission for determining the rights of the parties. Such regulations need not conform to common law 13 or statutory rules of evidence and other technical rules of procedure. A full and complete record shall be 14 kept of all proceedings in connection with a disputed claim. All testimony at any hearing upon a 15 disputed claim shall be recorded, but need not be transcribed unless the disputed claim is further 16 appealed and a timely request for a hearing before the Commission has been made in accordance with 17 regulations prescribed by the Commission.

18 B. Information furnished the Commission under the provisions of this chapter shall not be published 19 or be open to public inspection, other than to public employees in the performance of their public 20 duties. Neither such information, nor any determination or decision rendered under the provisions of 21 §§ 60.2-619, 60.2-620 or § 60.2-622, shall not be used in any judicial or administrative proceeding other
22 than one arising out of the provisions of this title; however, the Commission shall make its records 23 about a claimant available to the Workers' Compensation Commission if it requests such records. The 24 Commission may also, in its discretion, furnish copies of the transcript of hearings to any party.
