 123 property. The officer charged with the duty of collecting taxes for the locality wherein the real property
 124 lies shall, at least thirty days prior to instituting any action pursuant to this section, send a notice to the 125 last known address of the property owner (and to the property address if the property address is different 126 from the owner's address and if the real estate is listed with the post office by a numbered and named 127 street address) and to the last known address of any trustee under any deed of trust, mortgagee under

 138 A notice substantially in the following form shall be sufficient:

141 On ..... (date) ..... proceedings will be commenced under the authority of § 58.1-3965 et seq.
 142 of the Code of Virginia to sell the following parcels for payment of delinquent taxes:

143 (description of properties)

144 B. The owner of any property listed may redeem it at any time before the date of the sale by paying 145 all accumulated taxes, penalties, interest and costs thereon, including the pro rata cost of publication 146 hereunder. Partial payment of delinquent taxes, penalties, interest or costs shall not be sufficient to 147 redeem the property, and shall not operate to suspend, invalidate or make moot any action for judicial 148 sale brought pursuant to this article.

149 C. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection B and of §58.1-3954, the treasurer or other officer 150 responsible for collecting taxes may suspend any action for sale of the property commenced pursuant to 151 this article upon entering into an agreement with the owner of the real property for the payment of all
 152 delinquent amounts in installments over a period which is reasonable under the circumstances, but in no
 153 event shall exceed twenty-four months. Any such agreement shall be recorded by the officer among the 154 land records of the locality in which the property lies, and shall be secured by the lien of the locality
 155 pursuant to § 58.1-3340.

156 D. During the pendency of any installment agreement permitted under subsection C, any proceeding 157 for sale previously commenced shall not abate, but shall be continued on the docket of the court in 158 which such action is pending. It shall be the duty of the treasurer or other officer responsible for 159 collecting taxes to promptly notify the clerk of such court when obligations arising under such an 160 installment agreement have been fully satisfied. Upon the receipt of such notice, the clerk shall cause 161 the action to be stricken from the docket.

162 E. In the event the owner of the property or other responsible person defaults upon obligations
 163 arising under an installment agreement permitted by subsection C, or during the term of any installment 164 agreement, defaults on any current obligation as it becomes due, such agreement shall be voidable by 165 the treasurer or other officer responsible for collecting taxes upon fifteen days' written notice to the 166 signatories of such agreement. Any action for the sale previously commenced pursuant to this article 167 may proceed without any requirement that the notice or advertisement required by subsection A, which 168 had previously been made with respect to such property, be repeated. No owner of property which has 169 been the subject of a defaulted installment agreement shall be eligible to enter into a second installment 170 agreement with respect to the same property within three years of such default.
