6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:7 1. That § 8.01-389 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

8 § 8.01-389. Judicial records as evidence; full faith and credit; recitals in deeds, deeds of trust, and 9 mortgages; "records" defined.

10 A. The records of any judicial proceeding and any other official records of any court of this
11 Commonwealth shall be received as prima facie evidence provided that such records are authenticated
12 and certified by the clerk of the court where preserved to be a true record.

13 A1. The records of any judicial proceeding and any other official record of any court of another state
14 or country, or of the United States, shall be received as prima facie evidence provided that such records
15 are authenticated by the clerk of the court where preserved to be a true record, ~~and similarly certified by~~
16 ~~a judge of that court.~~

17 B. Every court of this Commonwealth shall give such records of courts not of this Commonwealth
18 the full faith and credit given to them in the courts of the jurisdiction from whence they come.

19 B1. In any instance in which a court not of this Commonwealth shall have entered an order of 20 injunction limiting or preventing access by any person to the courts of this Commonwealth without that 21 person having had notice and an opportunity for a hearing prior to the entry of such foreign order, that 22 foreign order is not required to be given full faith and credit in any Virginia court. The Virginia court
23 may, in its discretion, hold a hearing to determine the adequacy of notice and opportunity for hearing in 24 the foreign court.

25 C. Specifically, recitals of any fact in a deed or deed of trust of record conveying any interest in real 26 property shall be prima facie evidence of that fact.

27 D. "Records" as used in this article, shall be deemed to include any memorandum, report, paper, data
28 compilation, or other record in any form, or any combination thereof.
