6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:7 1. That § 8.01-449 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

8 § 8.01-449. How judgments are docketed; executions issued thereon.

9 In the judgment docket there shall be stated in separate columns (i) the date and amount of the 10 judgment, (ii) the time from which it bears interest, (iii) the costs, the full names of all the parties
11 thereto, including the address, date of birth and social security number, if known, of each party against 12 whom judgment is rendered, (iv) the alternative value of any specific property recovered by it, (v) the 13 date and the time of docketing it, (vi) the amount and date of any credits thereon, (vii) the court by 14 which it was rendered and the case number, and (viii) when paid off or discharged in whole or in part,
15 the time of payment or discharge and by whom made when there is more than one defendant. And in 16 case of a judgment or decree by confession, the clerk shall also enter in such docket the time of day at 17 which the same was confessed, or at which the same was received in his office to be entered of record.
18 There shall also be shown on such book the name of the plaintiff's attorney, if any.

19 Error or omission in the entry of the address or addresses or the social security number or numbers
20 of each party against whom judgment is rendered shall in no way affect the validity, finality or priority
21 of the judgment docketed. The clerk may maintain the docket on computer, word processor, microfilm,
22 microfiche, or other micrographic process.

23 2. That the provisions of this act shall apply to judgments docketed on or after July 1, 1996.
