SENATE BILL NO. 170

Offered January 16, 1996

A BILL to amend and reenact § 24.2-1014 of the Code of Virginia, relating to identifying persons responsible for campaign writings; penalties.

Patron—Miller, K.G.

Referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:*1. That § 24.2-1014 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 24.2-1014. Identifying persons responsible for campaign writing; penalties.

A. As used in this section "writing" includes any printed or otherwise reproduced statement or advertisement, but shall not include editorial comment or news coverage which is sponsored and financed by the news medium publishing or broadcasting it nor writings authorized by the candidate on novelties including, but not limited to, pens, pencils, and buttons to be attached to wearing apparel.

B. It shall be unlawful for any person to cause any writing other than a television or radio broadcast to appear concerning any potential nominee or candidate; ~~or concerning any question to be submitted to the voters~~ unless such writing plainly identifies the person responsible for it. The writing shall carry the statement "authorized by" ..... and contain the following information to complete the statement:

1. The name of the candidate if the writing is authorized by the candidate or his campaign committee;

2. The name of the political party committee if the writing is authorized by that committee; or

3. If authorized by any person other than the candidate, his campaign committee, or a political party committee, either:

a. In the case of a committee that has filed a statement of organization under § 24.2-908, the full name of the committee and a registration number provided by the State Board, or

b. In any other case, the full name and residence address of the individual responsible for the writing.

C. It shall be unlawful for any person to use a false or fictitious name or address on any such writing described in subsection B.

D. It shall be unlawful for any person to cause any radio or television statement to appear unless the advertisement or statement contains information which plainly identifies the candidate, committee, or individual responsible for it.

E. Any person violating any provision of this section shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed fifty dollars; and, in the case of a willful violation, he shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor. The procedure to enforce the civil penalty provided in this section shall be as stated in § 24.2-929. The violation of this section shall not void any election.
