SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 10

Offered January 10, 1996

Commending the Central High School boys' cross-country team.

Patrons—Potts, Barry, Benedetti, Bolling, Chichester, Colgan, Earley, Hanger, Hawkins, Holland, Lambert, Lucas, Martin, Miller, K.G., Newman, Norment, Quayle, Schrock, Stolle, Stosch, Trumbo, Walker, Wampler, Williams and Woods

WHEREAS, the 1995 boys' cross-country team from Central High School, in the Shenandoah County town of Woodstock, was undefeated for the third consecutive year against all Group A opponents; and

WHEREAS, during this span, the Central boys' cross-country team has compiled a record of 178 victories and no defeats against Group A competition; and

WHEREAS, in addition to a perfect regular season, the Central High School runners swept the Chancellor Invitational, the Shenandoah County championship, the Bull Run District championship, the Region B championship, and, to cap a perfect season, the state Group A championship; and

WHEREAS, the team was coached by Joseph Huddle, a 1980 Central High graduate who earned his college degree at Roanoke College, and by assistant coach Melissa Wright, also an alumna of Central High School; and

WHEREAS, led by championship runners Tim Cline, Wes Cooper, Matt Dinardo, Jim Dlugasch, Tim Dlugasch, C. L. George, Bryce Long, Jason Long, and Collin Richman, the Central High team proudly represented the Shenandoah Valley in the state championships and brought home the title; now, therefore be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly salute the members of the boys' cross-country team for continuing the winning tradition at Central High School; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Coach Joseph Huddle in honor of the Central High School boys' cross-country team's third consecutive state championship.
