SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 119

Offered January 22, 1996

Requesting the Department of Historic Resources to study ways to improve procedures for making state grants to historical organizations.

Patrons—Waddell, Howell, Ticer and Whipple; Delegates: Almand, Connally, Keating, Mims, Parrish and Scott

Referred to the Committee on Rules

WHEREAS, the General Assembly has historically given millions of dollars in public funds to private historical societies and other organizations on a non-competitive basis; and

WHEREAS, these state grants to historical societies and other organizations, used for operating and capital expenses, amount to an unrestricted subsidy for private activities with few or no requirements to ensure the public benefit to be provided by the expenditure of public funds; and

WHEREAS, such grants are increasingly seen as an "entitlement" by many of the recipient organizations, thus encouraging dependency on public resources; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the Department of Historic Resources, in consultation with other appropriate public and private organizations, be requested to study alternative funding mechanisms and to make recommendations for (i) improving the quality; (ii) ensuring the maximum public benefit to be derived from state grants; (iii) promoting greater self-reliance; and (iv) reducing dependency on state government by private historic attractions.

The Department shall complete its work in time to submit its findings and recommendations to the Governor and the 1997 Session of the General Assembly as provided in the procedures of the Division of Legislative Automated Systems for processing legislative documents.
