A BILL to amend and reenact § 58.1-3916 of the Code of Virginia, relating to payment of local taxes.

ENGROSSED

4 5 6 7 Patron-O'Brien Referred to Committee on Finance 8 9 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 1. That § 58.1-3916 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows: 10 11 § 58.1-3916. Counties, cities and towns may provide dates for filing returns, set penalties, interest, 12 etc. Notwithstanding provisions contained in §§ 58.1-3518, 58.1-3900, 58.1-3913, 58.1-3915 and 13 14 58.1-3918, the governing body of any county, city or town may provide by ordinance the time for filing local license applications and annual returns of taxable tangible personal property, machinery and tools 15 and merchants' capital. The governing body may also by ordinance establish due dates for the payment 16 17 of local taxes; may provide that payment be made in a single installment or in two equal installments for [real estate local license,] machinery and tools and merchants' capital; [shall may] offer 18 options, [such as which may include] coupon books and payroll deductions, which allow the taxpayer 19 20 to determine whether to pay the tangible personal property tax through monthly, bimonthly, quarterly, 21 or semiannual installments or in a lump sum, provided such taxes are paid in full by the final due date; 22 may provide by ordinance penalties for failure to file such applications and returns and for nonpayment 23 in time; may provide for payment of interest on delinquent taxes; and may provide for the recovery of 24 reasonable attorney's or collection agency's fees which shall not exceed twenty percent of the delinquent 25 tax bill upon nonpayment. Attorney's fees shall be added only if such delinquency is collected by action 26 at law or suit in equity. 27 No tax assessment or tax bill shall be deemed delinquent and subject to the collection procedures 28 prescribed herein during the pendency of any administrative appeal under § 58.1-3980, so long as the 29 appeal is filed within ninety days of the date of the assessment, and for thirty days after the date of the 30 final determination of the appeal, provided that nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to preclude the assessment or refund, following the final determination of such appeal, of such interest as otherwise 31 32 may be provided by general law as to that portion of a tax bill which has remained unpaid or was 33 overpaid during the pendency of such appeal and is determined in such appeal to be properly due and 34 owing. 35 Interest may commence not earlier than the first day following the day such taxes are due by 36 ordinance to be filed, at a rate not to exceed ten percent per year. The governing body may impose 37 interest at a rate not to exceed the rate of interest established pursuant to § 6621 of the Internal Revenue 38 Code of 1954, as amended, or ten percent annually, whichever is greater, for the second and subsequent 39 years of delinquency. No penalty for failure to pay a tax or installment shall exceed ten percent of the 40 tax past due on such property or the sum of ten dollars, whichever is the greater; provided, however, 41 that the penalty shall in no case exceed the amount of tax due. No penalty for failure to file a return 42 shall be greater than ten percent of the tax assessable on such return or ten dollars, whichever is greater; 43 provided, however, that the penalty shall in no case exceed the amount of the tax assessable. The 44 assessment of such penalty shall not be deemed a defense to any criminal prosecution for failing to make return of taxable property as may be required by law or ordinance. Penalty for failure to file an 45 application or return may be assessed on the day after such return or application is due; penalty for 46 47 failure to pay any tax may be assessed on the day after the first installment is due. Any such penalty 48 when so assessed shall become a part of the tax. No penalty for failure to pay any tax shall be imposed for any assessment made later than two weeks 49 50 prior to the day on which the taxes are due, if such assessment is made thereafter through the fault of a 51 local official, and if such assessment is paid within two weeks after the notice thereof is mailed. In the event a transfer of real property ownership occurs after January 1 of a tax year and a real 52 53 estate tax bill has been mailed pursuant to §§ 58.1-3281 and 58.1-3912, the treasurer or other appropriate local official designated by ordinance of the local governing body in jurisdictions not having 54 a treasurer, upon ascertaining that a property transfer has occurred, may invalidate a bill sent to the prior 55 owner and reissue the bill to the new owner as permitted by § 58.1-3912, and no penalty for failure to 56 57 pay any tax for any such assessment shall be imposed if the tax is paid within two weeks after the notice thereof is mailed. 58

59 Penalty and interest for failure to file a return or to pay a tax shall not be imposed if such failure was not the fault of the taxpayer, or was the fault of the commissioner of revenue or the treasurer, as 60 61 the case may be. The failure to file a return or to pay a tax due to a medically determinable physical or 62 mental impairment on the date the return or tax is due shall be presumptive proof of lack of fault on the 63 taxpayer's part, provided the return is filed or the taxes are paid within thirty days of the due date; however, this provision shall not apply if there is a committee, legal guardian or other fiduciary 64 handling the individual's affairs. The treasurer shall make determinations of fault relating exclusively to 65 66 failure to pay a tax, and the commissioner of the revenue shall make determinations of fault relating exclusively to failure to file a return. In jurisdictions not having a treasurer or commissioner of the 67 68 revenue, the governing body may delegate to the appropriate local tax officials the responsibility to 69 make the determination of fault.

The governing body may further provide for reasonable extensions of time, not to exceed ninety days, for the payment of real estate taxes and for filing returns on tangible personal property, machinery and tools and merchants' capital, and the business, professional, and occupational license tax, whenever good cause exists. The official granting such extension shall keep a record of every such extension. If any taxpayer who has been granted an extension of time for filing his return fails to file his return within the extended time, his case shall be treated the same as if no extension had been granted.

76 This section shall be the sole authority for local ordinances setting due dates of local taxes and 77 penalty and interest thereon, and shall supersede the provisions of any charter or special act.
