Patrons—Hamilton, Behm, Christian, Cooper, Crittenden, Diamonstein, Forbes, Moore, Purkey, Tata and Wagner; Senators: Maxwell and Williams

Referred to Committee on Education

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 23-7.4:2 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 23-7.4:2. Eligibility for in-state or reduced tuition for students not domiciled in Virginia; members of the National Guard of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

A. A nonmilitary student whose parent or spouse is a member of the armed forces may establish domicile in the same manner as any other student. However, a nonmilitary student, not otherwise eligible for in-state tuition, whose parent or spouse is a member of the military residing in the Commonwealth pursuant to military orders and claiming a state other than Virginia on their his State of Legal Residence Certificate, shall be entitled to in-state tuition charges when the following conditions are met: (i) if the student is a child of a an active member of the armed forces, then the nonmilitary parent shall have, for at least one year immediately prior to the date of alleged entitlement for in-state tuition charges, resided in Virginia, been employed full time and paid individual income taxes to be a registered voter in Virginia. Such student shall be eligible for in-state tuition charges only if the nonmilitary parent claims him must be claimed as a dependent for Virginia and federal income tax purposes by the member of the armed forces, as evidenced by claiming him as a dependent on an individual or joint return; or (ii) if the student is the spouse of a an active member of the armed forces, then such student shall have, for at least one year immediately prior to the date of alleged entitlement for in-state tuition, resided in Virginia, been employed full time and paid individual income taxes to Virginia; or (iii) if the student is the child or the spouse of a member of the armed forces, then the student shall be entitled to in-state tuition charges for a maximum of one year during the period that the military parent or spouse is residing in the Commonwealth. Any student whose spouse or parent is a member of the armed forces shall be eligible for in-state tuition charges for so long as the conditions of clauses (i) and (ii) of this subsection continue to be met. Military dependents provided in-state tuition for one year during the period the military parent or spouse is residing in Virginia be a registered voter in Virginia.

Students entitled to in-state tuition charges pursuant to this subsection shall be eligible for a period of time not to exceed the length of residency required pursuant to military orders. Such students shall be counted as out-of-state in-state students for admissions, enrollment and tuition and fee revenue policy purposes. No budget adjustments shall be made for such students until the 1998-2000 fiscal biennium.

B. Students who live outside this Commonwealth and have been employed full time inside Virginia for at least one year immediately prior to the date of the alleged entitlement for in-state tuition shall be eligible for in-state tuition charges if such student has paid Virginia income taxes on all taxable income earned in this Commonwealth for the tax year prior to the date of the alleged entitlement. Students claimed as dependents for federal and Virginia income tax purposes who live outside this Commonwealth shall become eligible for in-state tuition charges if the nonresident parents claiming them as dependents have been employed full time inside Virginia for at least one year immediately prior to the date of the alleged entitlement and paid Virginia income taxes on all taxable income earned in this Commonwealth for the tax year prior to the date of the alleged entitlement. Such students shall continue to be eligible for in-state tuition charges for so long as they or their qualifying parent is employed full time in Virginia, paying Virginia income taxes on all taxable income earned in this Commonwealth and the student is claimed as a dependent for Virginia and federal income tax purposes.

C. Any person who (i) is a member of the National Guard of the Commonwealth of Virginia and has a minimum remaining obligation of two years, (ii) has satisfactorily completed required initial active duty service, (iii) is satisfactorily performing duty in accordance with regulations of the National Guard, and (iv) is enrolled in any state institution of higher education, any private, accredited and nonprofit institution of higher education in the Commonwealth whose primary purpose is to provide collegiate or graduate education and not to provide religious training or theological education, any course or program offered by any such institution or any public vocational or technical school shall be eligible for a grant in the amount of one-half of the tuition not exceeding $500 per term, semester or quarter. No person

60 shall receive grants totaling more than $1,000 in any one year. Application for a grant shall be made to 61 the Department of Military Affairs. Grants shall be awarded from funds available for the purpose by 62 such Department.

63 D. Notwithstanding the provisions of § 23-7.4 or any other provision of the law to the contrary, the 64 governing board of any state institution of higher education or the governing board of the Virginia 65 Community College System may charge the same tuition as is charged to any person domiciled in 66 Virginia pursuant to the provisions of § 23-7.4 to:

67 1. Any person enrolled in one of the institution's programs designated by the State Council of Higher
68 Education who is domiciled in and is entitled to reduced tuition charges in the institutions of higher 69 learning in any state which is a party to the Southern Regional Education Compact which has similar 70 reciprocal provisions for persons domiciled in Virginia;

71 2. Any student from a foreign country who is enrolled in a foreign exchange program approved by 72 the state institution during the same period that an exchange student from the same state institution, who 73 is entitled to in-state tuition pursuant to § 23-7.4, is attending the foreign institution; and

74 3. Any high school or magnet school student, not otherwise qualified for in-state tuition, who is 75 enrolled in courses specifically designed as part of the high school or magnet school curriculum in a 76 community college for which he may, upon successful completion, receive high school and community 77 college credit pursuant to a dual enrollment agreement between the high school or magnet school and 78 the community college.

79 E. The governing board of the Virginia Community College System may charge reduced tuition to 80 any person enrolled in one of the System's institutions who lives within a thirty-mile radius of a
81 Virginia institution, is domiciled in, and is entitled to in-state tuition charges in the institutions of higher 82 learning in any state which is contiguous to Virginia and which has similar reciprocal provisions for 83 persons domiciled in Virginia. This subsection shall expire on July 1, 1998.

84 F. The advisory board of Clinch Valley College and the board of visitors of the University of 85 Virginia may charge reduced tuition to any person enrolled at Clinch Valley College who lives within a 86 fifty-mile radius of the College, is domiciled in, and is entitled to in-state tuition charges in the 87 institutions of higher learning in Kentucky, if Kentucky has similar reciprocal provisions for persons 88 domiciled in Virginia.

89 Any out-of-state students granted in-state tuition pursuant to this subsection and subsection E shall be 90 counted as out-of-state students for the purposes of determining admissions, enrollment, and tuition and 91 fee revenue policies.

92 G. Public institutions of higher education may enter into special arrangement contracts with Virginia
93 employers or authorities controlling federal installations or agencies located in Virginia. The special 94 arrangement contracts shall be for the purpose of providing reduced rate tuition charges for the 95 employees of the Virginia employers or federal personnel when the employers or federal authorities are 96 assuming the liability for paying, to the extent permitted by federal law, the tuition for the employees or 97 personnel in question and the employees or personnel are classified by the requirements of this section 98 as out-of-state.

99 Special arrangement contracts with Virginia employers or federal installations or agencies may be for 100 group instruction in facilities provided by the employer or federal authority or in the institution's 101 facilities or on a student-by-student basis for specific employment-related programs.

102 Special arrangement contracts shall be valid for a period not to exceed two years and shall be 103 reviewed for legal sufficiency by the Office of the Attorney General prior to signing. All rates agreed to 104 by the public institutions shall be at least equal to in-state tuition and shall only be granted by the 105 institution with which the employer or the federal authorities have a valid contract for students for 106 whom the employer or federal authorities are paying the tuition charges.

107 All special arrangement contracts with authorities controlling federal installations or agencies shall 108 include a specific number of students to be served at reduced rates.

109 Nothing in this subsection shall change the domiciliary status of any student for the purposes of 110 enrollment reporting or calculating the proportions of general funds and tuition and fees contributed to 111 the cost of education.
